Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On November 3, 2005, a joint venture entity owned 20% by us and 80% by Denver Lowry Senior Housing, LLC, an affiliate of CNL Capital Corp., entered into a $25.5 million construction loan with GMAC Commercial Mortgage Bank in order to finance the development of a rental continuing care retirement community in Denver, Colorado. The total development cost of the project is estimated to be approximately $38.0 million. The remainder of the development cost will be funded by proportional capital contributions to the joint venture entity from us and the CNL affiliate. We will act as the developer of the project and will manage the community pursuant to a long-term management agreement. We also agreed to provide an operating deficits guaranty for the benefit of GMAC, under which we may be required to fund certain of the joint venture's operating deficits. In the event that we are required to fund any such operating deficits, the amounts so funded will be treated as advances by us to the joint venture and will be required to be repaid prior to any other distributions being made to the members of the joint venture.

The loan from GMAC to the joint venture is evidenced by a loan agreement and a promissory note, and is secured by a first mortgage lien. The loan matures on December 1, 2008, and the joint venture has two one-year extension options. The outstanding principal balance of the loan will bear interest at a variable rate equal to LIBOR plus 2.75%. The joint venture will be required to make monthly payments of interest only through the scheduled maturity date. If the joint venture exercises its extension options, it will also be required to make monthly principal payments (based upon a 25 year amortization schedule) during the extension period(s).

All forward-looking statements may be affected by certain risks and uncertainties, including without limitation the following: (i) our ability to successfully complete the development of the project and integrate the community into our operations, (ii) the risk that the joint venture entity will incur operating deficits which we will be required to fund, (iii) the risk that we will be unable to improve our results of operations, increase cash flow and reduce expenses, (iv) the risks associated with adverse market conditions of the senior housing industry and the United States economy in general, (v) the risk associated with our significant debt and lease obligations, and (vi) the risk factors described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2004 under the caption "Risk Factors" and in our other filings with the SEC.
