Item 5.02 — Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) In connection with the adoption by the Board of Directors of Dell Inc. (“Dell”) of the dividend policy described in Item 8.01 of this report, on June 11, 2012, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) approved amendments to each outstanding restricted stock unit award (“RSU”) and performance-based restricted stock unit award (“PBU”) granted by Dell to its employees and directors under Dell’s 2002 long-term incentive plan. The amendments to the awards provide that if Dell pays a cash dividend on its common stock, each holder of RSUs or PBUs will be entitled to receive a dollar amount equal to the per-share cash dividend paid by Dell, multiplied by the total number of shares issued upon the vesting of the stock units. The amounts that a holder of stock units is entitled to receive, which are cumulative to the extent that multiple cash dividends are paid, are referred to as “dividend equivalents.”

Any dividend equivalents credited to either an RSU or PBU award will be subject to the same vesting, payment and other terms and conditions as the related stock units. Accordingly, no holder of a PBU will receive any dividend equivalent payments with respect to that award unless the PBU vests and is paid out following the achievement of the specified performance goals. In addition, any employee who forfeits either RSUs or PBUs upon termination of employment also will forfeit the right to receive payment of any dividend equivalents accumulated with respect to those stock units. Accumulated dividend equivalents will be paid in cash upon delivery of the shares underlying the relevant RSUs and PBUs.

The stock unit awards subject to the amendments include awards held by Dell’s currently serving named executive officers. As of the date of this report, Michael S. Dell, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, held no RSUs, Brian T. Gladden, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, held RSUs for 219,895 shares, Stephen J. Felice, President, Chief Commercial Officer, held RSUs for 231,903 shares, and Stephen F. Schuckenbrock, President, Services, held RSUs for 312,642 shares. Each of these officers also held PBUs for a number of shares that will be fixed upon the vesting of such awards and based on performance. Although the final numbers of these PBUs will reflect actual performance outcomes, assuming the target performance metrics are achieved, Mr. Dell held PBUs for 1,058,974 shares, Mr. Gladden held PBUs for 407,365 shares, Mr. Felice held PBUs for 464,199 shares and Mr. Schuckenbrock held PBUs for 457,079 shares.

The Committee determined that the amendments were appropriate in light of the Board’s adoption of the dividend policy. As stock units are not outstanding shares of common stock and thus would not otherwise be entitled to participate in any dividends paid by the company, the crediting of dividend equivalents is intended to preserve the equity-based incentives intended by Dell when the awards were granted and to treat the award holders consistently with stockholders.

Item 8.01 —Other Events.

On June 12, 2012, Dell announced that its Board of Directors adopted a dividend policy under which the company intends to pay a quarterly cash dividend on its common stock beginning in the third quarter of the current fiscal year. Dell expects the initial dividend rate to be $0.32 per share per year, or $0.08 per share quarterly. Dell's third fiscal quarter ends on November 2, 2012.

The cash dividend policy and the declaration and payment of each quarterly cash dividend will be subject to the Board's continuing determination that the policy and the declaration of dividends thereunder are in the best interests of Dell's stockholders and are in compliance with applicable law. Dell's Board retains the power to modify, suspend or cancel its dividend policy in any manner and at any time that it may deem necessary or appropriate in the future.

The Board did not declare a dividend in connection with its adoption of the dividend policy.
