Item 8.01 Other Events

The Company is also filing this Current Report on Form 8-K to describe (i) revisions for immaterial errors, primarily in inventory and accounts receivable balances related mainly to two of our non-U.S. sites, that we concluded are not material to any previously issued financial statements; (ii) identification of material weaknesses in its internal control over financial reporting and, accordingly, ineffective disclosure controls and procedures at December 31, 2016, March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2017; and (iii) amendment of management’s prior assessments of the Company’s internal control over financial reporting and PwC’s opinion on Company’s internal control over financial reporting at December 31, 2016. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and management have discussed the matters disclosed in this report with the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (“PwC”).

Correction of Immaterial Errors Related to Two Non-U.S. Sites

In the second quarter of 2017, the Company identified accounting errors which were primarily limited to two of our non-U.S. sites, primarily in the inventory and accounts receivable balances and related income statement impacts for periods beginning 2013 through the first quarter of 2017. In addition, certain additional immaterial errors previously recorded in the periods identified were also considered in the Company’s analysis. The cumulative effect of the revisions to retained earnings as of March 31, 2017 was a reduction of approximately $30 million. We have assessed these errors and concluded that they are not material to any prior annual or interim periods. However, the aggregate amount of the prior period errors would have been material to our current interim condensed consolidated statements of income and to our anticipated full year results. The effect of the prior period revisions on the condensed consolidated statement of cash flows was not material to cash flows from operating activities, investing activities or financing activities for any of the prior annual or interim periods.

Identification of Material Weakness

Management of the Company, in consultation with the Audit Committee, has identified material weaknesses in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting primarily related to the operation of certain inventory controls at one of the non-U.S. subsidiaries noted above and related to business performance reviews. Employees of this non-U.S. subsidiary made certain journal entries and adjustments that lacked sufficient support and the business performance review control used to detect errors that, when aggregated, could be material to the interim or annual financial statements and to identify potential breakdowns in lower level controls, did not detect the unsubstantiated balances on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Company's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis. The Company has concluded that its internal control over financial reporting was not effective as of December 31, 2016, March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2017 and, accordingly, its disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of December 31, 2016, March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2017.

Remediation

The Company, the Audit Committee and its Board of Directors are committed to maintaining a strong internal control environment, and are currently evaluating remediation efforts that will be designed to enhance our control environment. Once a remediation plan is finalized and implemented, the identified material weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting and ineffective disclosure controls and procedures will be considered fully addressed when the relevant internal controls and disclosure controls and procedures have been in operation for a sufficient period of time for our management to conclude that the material weaknesses have been fully remediated and our internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures are effective. The Company will work to design, implement and rigorously test these new controls in order to make these final determinations.

Amendment of Internal Control over Financial Reporting Assessment, Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures and Revision of Previously Issued Financial Statements

The Company plans to file a Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, and a Form 10-Q/A for the first quarter ended March 31, 2017 to amend management's assessment to state that the Company's internal control over financial reporting and, accordingly, its disclosure controls and procedures, were not effective as of December 31, 2016 and March 31, 2017. PwC's opinion on the Company's internal control over financial reporting for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 will also be amended to state that the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2016 was not effective.

In connection therewith, the Company will revise the affected financial statements to correct the errors discussed above. The Company expects to file the Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2016; the Form 10-Q/A for the first quarter ended March 31, 2017; and its Form 10-Q for the second quarter ended June 30, 2017 by the time period prescribed for the second quarter Form 10-Q, including any extensions.

The Company issued a news release relating to the above, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. The portions of the news release titled "Reclassifications and Revisions to Prior Periods" are incorporated herein by reference.
