SHENANDOAH TELECOMMUNICATIONS COMPANY INCREASES CASH DIVIDEND AND REPORTS
THIRD QUARTER 2004 FINANCIAL RESULTS

EDINBURG, VA, (October 19, 2004) - The Board of Directors of Shenandoah Telecommunications Company (Shentel; NASDAQ: SHEN) declared a cash dividend of $0.43 per share. The dividend will be payable December 1, 2004, to shareholders of record on November 12, 2004. The dividend is an increase of $0.04 per share or 10.3 % over the 2003 dividend. Total payout to shareholders will be approximately $3.3 million.

Shenandoah Telecommunications Company also announced unaudited financial results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2004. Income from continuing operations for the quarter was $3.1 million, compared to $2.7 million for the third quarter 2003. Total third quarter revenues grew by 13.4% from the same quarter last year, including a 21.9% increase in wireless revenues. Income from continuing operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 was $8.3 million, which represented an increase of $2.6 million from the 2003 nine-month

Overall Highlights

For the quarter ended September 30, 2004, income from continuing operations was $3.1 million or $0.41 per diluted share, compared to $2.7 million or $0.35 per diluted share in the third quarter of 2003. The Company's total revenues for the third quarter of 2004 were $31.3 million, compared to $27.6 million in the third quarter of 2003, which represented an increase of $3.7 million or 13.4%. The Company's revenue growth was driven by an increase in its PCS business.

Operating income for the third quarter of 2004 and 2003 was $6.5 million and $4.9 million, respectively. The increase is due to the continued improvement in the Company's PCS operations.

President and CEO, Christopher E. French commented, "We are pleased with the continuation of our profitable growth, and our fourth consecutive quarter of profitable results from our PCS operations. This continued growth has enabled us to again increase our cash dividend to shareholders, further rewarding them for their patience as investors."

Wireless Operations

The Company experienced strong growth in third quarter wireless revenues as a PCS Affiliate of Sprint, increasing its PCS subsidiary revenue to a total of $21.2 million, which represented an increase of $3.9 million over the 2003 third quarter. The PCS net income was $1.3 million in the third quarter of 2004 compared to a net income of $9,000 in the third quarter of 2003. PCS net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 was $2.7 million, which represented a $4.2 million increase over the 2003 nine-month period. The Company's Sprint retail wireless customer count increased by 3,600, similar to the increase in the third quarter of 2003, to approximately 98,100 customers. Wholesale users increased by 1,600, compared to a 2,800 increase in the third quarter of 2003, to approximately 19,600. Wholesale users are added through Sprint's relationship with its wholesale customers. The Company's third quarter retail customer turnover, or churn, was 2.2%, compared to 2.4% in the third quarter of 2003.

Wireline Operations

The local telephone operations net income for the 2004 third quarter was $1.8 million, which represented a $0.2 million decrease compared to the 2003 third quarter. Telephone operations recorded a net loss of 49 access lines during the 2004 third quarter to end the quarter at 24,818.

External Investments

In the quarter ended September 30, 2004, the Company recorded a $0.3 million loss on investments compared to a nominal loss in the third quarter of 2003. At the end of the quarter, the Company's external investments totaled $7.9 million.

Consolidated Results

The Company recorded expenses of approximately $0.2 million in the third quarter of 2004 related to the ongoing implementation efforts related to new SEC and NASDAQ requirements as a result of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Interest expense decreased $0.1 million from the same quarter last year due to a reduction in debt outstanding. The Company invested $16.2 million in plant in service and retired $1.1 million of scheduled debt during the third quarter of 2004. The Company had cash and cash equivalents of $31.5 million as of the end of the third quarter. At September 30, 2004, the Company's debt/equity ratio was 35.0% and debt as a percent of total assets was 19.9%.
