PART III— NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As disclosed in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by Computer Programs and Systems, Inc. (the "Company") on January 8, 2016 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), the Company consummated its acquisition of Healthland Holding Inc. ("Healthland") on January 8, 2016. Due to the completion of the acquisition of Healthland during the quarter ended March 31, 2016 (the "2016 first quarter"), substantial additional burden has been placed on our financial reporting and accounting personnel and significant additional management time and resources have been required to finalize the Company's consolidated financial statements and compile the information necessary to prepare a complete and accurate Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the 2016 first quarter, which will be the first periodic filing in which Healthland's financial results will be included in the Company's consolidated results. As a result, the Company is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Form 10-Q for the 2016 first quarter with the SEC on or prior to the prescribed due date of May 10, 2016. The Company expects to file the Form 10-Q for the 2016 first quarter within the extension period of five calendar days following the prescribed due date afforded by SEC Rule 12b 25 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or (2) Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).
 Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?
 Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates that its results of operations to be included in its Form 10-Q for the 2016 first quarter will be significantly different from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year, primarily as a result of the Company's completion of its acquisition of Healthland on January 8, 2016 and entry into a related financing agreement. These developments were discussed in detail in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on January 8, 2016, as amended on February 23, 2016.
