On August 26, 2009, we signed a purchase and sale agreement to acquire an office building in Falls Church, Virginia for approximately $73.0 million. Completed in 2001, the building contains approximately 252,613 square feet of rentable space, and 100% of its rental income is derived from a triple net lease with a single tenant that expires on January 31, 2017. The acquisition is subject to customary termination rights and closing conditions.

Statements made in this Form 8-K regarding the Falls Church acquisition constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are based on current judgments and current knowledge of management, which are subject to certain risks, trends and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in such forward-looking statements, including without limitation, economic conditions in the United States, disruptions in the debt markets, economic conditions in the markets in which FSP owns properties, changes in the demand by investors for investment in Sponsored REITs (as defined in FSP’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008), risks of a lessening of demand for the types of real estate owned by FSP, changes in government regulations, and expenditures that cannot be anticipated such as utility rate and usage increases, unanticipated repairs, additional staffing, insurance increases and real estate tax valuation reassessments. See the “Risk Factors” set forth in Part I, Item 1A of FSP’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, as the same may be updated from time to time in subsequent filings with the SEC. Although FSP believes the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, FSP cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. FSP will not update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this Form 8-K to conform them to actual results or to changes in our expectations that occur after such date, other than as required by law.
