Entry into Merger Agreement

On May 19, 2008, Tower Semiconductor Ltd. ("Tower") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the "Merger Agreement") with Jazz Technologies, Inc. (the "Jazz") and Armstrong Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Tower ("Merger Sub").

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Jazz, with Jazz continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Tower (the "Merger"). At the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time"), each outstanding share of common stock of Jazz will be converted into the right to receive 1.8 (the "Exchange Ratio") ordinary shares of Tower. The Merger Agreement provides that at the Effective Time, each outstanding option of Jazz and each outstanding warrant of Jazz will be assumed by Tower and will become exercisable for ordinary shares of Tower. The number of shares subject to each option and warrant and the applicable exercise prices will be adjusted based on the Exchange Ratio. All other terms of such options and warrants will continue after the Effective Time. The board of directors of Jazz has approved the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

Prior to the Effective Time, Tower will execute a supplemental indenture providing that each holder of Jazz's 8% convertible senior notes due 2011 then outstanding will have the right to convert such notes into ordinary shares of Tower based upon the conversion rate in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time. The Merger is intended to constitute a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The obligations of the parties to consummate the Merger are subject to certain conditions in favor of both parties. The closing of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement is expected to take place in the second half of calendar 2008.

The foregoing description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference. The Merger Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Tower or Jazz. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules provided by Tower and Jazz to each other in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. These disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purpose of allocating risk between Tower and Jazz rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of facts about Tower or Jazz.

On May 19, 2008, Tower and Jazz issued a joint press release announcing their entry into the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.
