ITEM 2. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS.

The Registrant has entered into agreements to acquire four commercial parcels of real estate for newly issued stock of the Registrant. The first parcel located at 109 Industrial Drive, Ripley, Tennessee, consists of 31,000 + sq. ft. of commercial property on 6 acres for which the Registrant will be paying $650,000.00 by assuming $155,000.00 of existing first loan, plus issue 123,750 newly restricted shares of the Registrant. The second parcel located at 306 Demers, East Grand Forks, Minnesota, consists of commercial retail and residential facility valued at around $365,000.00. The third parcel located at Walle Township, Grand Forks County, North Dakota consists of 2.75 acres with frontage on 21st Street SE which has been appraised for $60,000.00. The fourth parcel located at Edgewood Estates, Addition to City Grand Forks, North Dakota consists of 2.7 acres with frontage on Belmont Road which has been appraised for $60,000.00. The Registrant has agreed to pay 121,750 newly restricted shares of the Registrant for the Minnesota and North Dakota properties.

The Registrant is negotiating to acquire the properties utilized by Mound Technologies, Inc., and its wholly owned subsidiary Freedom Products of Ohio, which it currently leases, which includes its production facilities and office space from a related party whose general partner is a shareholder of the Registrant and the President of Mound. A financial institution currently has judgment liens against the Properties which serve as collateral for the property mortgages owed by this related party. The Registrant intends to purchase these properties from the related party utilizing in part its newly acquired commercial properties as additional collateral; however, the financial institution may or may not allow the time necessary in order for the Registrant to complete its financing arrangements. If the Registrant's financing arrangements are not completed in a timeframe acceptable to the financial institution, the Properties could be foreclosed upon, forcing Mound to seek alternative facilities. The Registrant expects to complete its financing arrangements over the next several months.

ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS.

On Monday, June 12, 2004 Craig Pietruszewski resigned as the Registrant's CFO. The Registrant and Mr. Pietruszewski could not come to terms on various issues including management styles and as a result, Mr. Pietruszewski decided to resign. Jerry Gruenbaum, the Company's Secretary and General Counsel will assume the responsibilities in the interim.
