GOVERNMENT MUST SCRAP £10 TOURIST TAX AND BREAKUP BAA MONOPOLY AS BAA TRAFFIC FALLS 4.5 MILLION IN 5 MONTHS

Ryanair freezes growth at 9 UK bases with immediate effect

Ryanair
, Europe's largest low fares airline, today (23
June
09
)
confirmed that it will freeze
growth at its nine UK bases with immediate effect
. Ryanair
highlighted that Gordon Brown' s £10 tourist tax, combined with the
BAA
M onopoly
's high airport
charges

have caused

to follow the lead of t

who have

he Belgian, Dutch, Greek and Spanish Governments

the loss of over 4.5 million passenger at the BAA UK airports in the first five months of the year. Ryanair called on Gordon Brown to scrap this £10 APD tax and speed up the sale of Gatwick and Stansted airports to prevent a further collapse in UK tourism and related jobs next winter. Ι f the UK traffic collapse continues for the full year the UK economy will lose over 10 million passengers, 10,000 airport jobs and over £2.5billion in tourism spend in 2009 alone, with the Government losing at least £350 million in VAT receipts. The UK is now tourism destination which is in steep decline. Ryanair urged the British Government recently scrapped similar tourist taxes and/or airport charges in order to reverse falling passenger numbers and prevent ther tourism and job losses. Ryanair Michael O'Leary said: Ryanair will grow by 15% this year to over 67 million passengers. However, the UKwill not share in any of this growth in 2009 as Ryanair (the only major E uro pean airline continuing to grow) freezes growth at our nine UKbases. Gordon Brown's £ 10 tourist tax will see Britain lose 10 million passengers, 10,000 airport jobs and more than £2.5 billion in tourism spend in the UKthis year alone should follow the example of their Belgian, Dutch, Greek and Spanish counterparts by immediately scrapping stupid and regressive tourist tax to avoid any further devastation to British tourism and jobs. Tourism is one of the UK's most important industries and employers. It responds q uickly to price changes . The G overnment's £10 tourist tax is making the UKan uncompetitive desti nation and they must scrap this tax now to prevent further collapse of UKpassenger tourism and job numbers While the UK keeps taxing tourists Ryanair will switch its growth to other EU countries where low cost airports are growing and where G overnments are wel coming tourists not taxing them Ends.

The G overnment
