RYANAIR ANNOUNCES FIRST ESTONIAN ROUTES

SEVEN ROUTES, 300,000 PAX PA AND 300 JOBS AT TALLINN AIRPORT

Ryanair, the world's favourite airline, today (30th Sept) announced its first Estonian flights from Tallinn, the capital city, with seven routes to Dublin, Dusseldorf (Weeze), Edinburgh, London (Luton), Milan (Bergamo), Oslo (Rygge) and Stockholm (Skavsta) from December 2010, which will see Ryanair carry 300,000 passengers p.a. through Tallinn, creating and sustaining 300 local jobs.

Ryanair celebrated its first Estonian routes by releasing 1 million €7 seats for travel on over 500 routes across its European network in late October and November which are available for booking on www.ryanair.com until midnight tonight (30th Sept). Ryanair's seven new Tallinn routes go on sale tomorrow (1st Oct) on Ryanair.com.

Ryanair's Stephen McNamara said:

"Ryanair is pleased to announce our first seven Estonian routes which will commence in December and offer Tallinn passengers really low fares for the first time. Ryanair's Tallinn routes will deliver 300,000 passengers p.a. and sustain 300 local jobs. Estonian consumers/visitors can now beat the recession and escape the high fares charged by Estonian Air and Air Baltic by choosing Ryanair's lowest fares and our no fuel surcharge guarantee.

"To celebrate the opening of our first Estonian routes we are releasing 1 million €7 seats for travel in late October and November on 500 routes which are available for booking today on www.ryanair.com. Ryanair's new routes from Tallinn start from December."
