Independent Auditors Report

The Board of Directors and Shareholders

Magnet Communications, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Magnet Communications, Inc. and subsidiary as of December 31, 2002 and the related consolidated statements of operations, shareholders' equity (deficit), and cash flows for the year then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Magnet Communications, Inc. and subsidiary as of December 31, 2002 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

MAGNET COMMUNICATIONS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2002

(1) Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Description of Business and Basis of Presentation

Magnet Communications, Inc. (Magnet or the Company) provides web-based banking solutions for financial institutions of all sizes. The Company's products provide solutions for small businesses, middle market customers, as well as large corporations. These solutions can be implemented through in-house licensing or the Company's data center. In addition, Magnet provides professional services to facilitate the implementation and customization of its solutions.

The Company was founded as a limited liability company (LLC) in 1995. In August 1998, the Company was incorporated in Delaware and the LLC agreement in the State of Georgia was terminated. Accordingly, the LLC owners were issued common stock in August 1998 proportionate to their member interests in the LLC.

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of Magnet Communications, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

(c) Revenue Recognition and Deferred Revenue

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Statement of Position (SOP) 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, as amended by SOP 98-9, Software Revenue Recognition with Respect to Certain Transactions, and SOP 81-1, Accounting for Performance of Construction-Type and Certain Production-Type Contracts. Revenue is derived from the sale of software licenses, professional services, customer support, outsource services, and hardware, and is allocated to each element of the arrangement based on the relative fair values of the elements, which is established by the price charged when the respective element is sold separately. Revenue is recognized when persuasive evidence of an agreement exists, delivery of the product has occurred, the fee is fixed or determinable and collectibility is probable.

Revenues derived from license fees which require significant production, modification, or customization of the software are performed under contractual agreements with terms ranging from one month to five years. These contracts include both fixed-price and time and materials arrangements. Revenues from fixed-price contracts are recognized using the percentage-of-completion method, measured by the percentage of costs incurred to date to estimated total costs to complete for each contract. Contract costs include all direct and certain indirect costs. Contract provisions for estimated losses on uncompleted contracts are made in the period in which such losses are determined. Revenues derived from contracts to provide services on a time and materials basis are recognized as the related services are performed.

Professional services include customization, installation, implementation, and training and are recognized upon performance of the related services. Customization, installation, implementation, and training services are offered and billed as separate elements of contracts and are not essential to the functionality of the software. Customer support revenue is deferred and recognized ratably over the term of the related contract. Outsource service revenue is recognized as the services are performed. One-time upfront revenues related to outsourcing services are amortized over the contract period.

Deferred revenues represent billings rendered to, or cash payments received from, customers for services for which revenues have not been earned or recognized.

MAGNET COMMUNICATIONS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY*Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements Continued*December 31, 2002(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents of approximately $13.9 million at December 31, 2002 consist of overnight repurchase agreements with an initial term of less than three months. For purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

(e) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization are calculated on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Computer equipment and purchased software	3 years
Furniture and fixtures	5 years
Office equipment	3 years
Leasehold improvements	3-4 years

Leasehold improvements are amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the improvement or the lease term, whichever is shorter.

(f) Research and Development Costs and Software Development Costs

Research and development costs are expensed as incurred. Research and development costs were $4,090,590 (of which approximately 12% was reimbursed by customers) for the year ended December 31, 2002.

The Company's policy is to expense all software development costs associated with establishing technological feasibility, which the Company defines as completion of beta testing. Because of the insignificant amount of costs incurred by the Company between completion of beta testing and customer release, the Company has not capitalized any software development costs in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

(g) Income Taxes

Edgar Filing: DIGITAL INSIGHT CORP - Form 8-K/A

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method. Under the asset and liability method, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future income tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Under this method, the effect on deferred income tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

(h) Stock-Based Compensation

The Company applies the intrinsic value-based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations, in accounting for its fixed plan stock options. As such, compensation expense would generally be recorded on the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeded the exercise price on that date. Had the Company determined compensation cost based on the fair value at the grant date for its stock options under SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation, the Company's net loss would have been the pro forma amounts indicated below:

(i) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company uses financial instruments in the normal course of business. The carrying values of cash equivalents, certificates of deposit, accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and other current assets, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and other current liabilities, and deferred revenue approximate fair value due to the short-term maturities of the assets and liabilities. The Company estimates that the carrying value of the Company's long-term debt approximates fair value based on the current rates offered to the Company for debt of the same remaining maturities.

(j) Long-Lived Assets and Long-Lived Assets to Be Disposed Of

In August 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets (SFAS 144), which supersedes both SFAS 121 and the accounting and reporting provisions of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 30, Reporting the Results of Operations-Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions (Opinion 30) for the disposal of a segment of a business (as previously defined in that Opinion). SFAS 144 retains the fundamental provisions in SFAS 121 for recognizing and measuring impairment losses on long-lived assets held for use and long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, while also resolving significant implementation issues associated with SFAS 121. For example, SFAS 144 provides guidance on how a long-lived asset that is used as part of a group should be evaluated for impairment, establishes criteria for when a long-lived asset is held for sale, and prescribes the accounting for a long-lived asset that will be disposed of other than by sale. SFAS 144 retains the basic provisions of Opinion 30 on how to present discontinued operations in the income statement but broadens that presentation to include a component of an entity (rather than a segment of a business). The Company adopted SFAS 144 on January 1, 2002. SFAS 144 had no impact on the Company's financial statements.

(k) Use of Estimates

Management of the Company has made a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reporting of revenues and expenses for the reporting period to prepare these consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(l) Comprehensive Income (Loss)

No consolidated statement of comprehensive income (loss) has been included in the accompanying financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002 since the Company does not have any other comprehensive income (loss) to report.

(m) Industry Segment

The Company operates primarily in one industry segment that being the design, production, marketing, and selling of software solutions to the banking industry.

(3) Notes Payable to Bank

In June 2001, the Company entered into a Loan and Security Agreement (the Loan Agreement) with a bank. The Loan Agreement provides for, among other things, a revolving line in the amount of $4,000,000 and an equipment line in the amount of $1,000,000. The revolving line expires on December 30, 2003 and bears interest at the bank's prime rate plus 1.75%; the prime rate was 4.25% at December 31, 2002. Interest on the revolving line is payable monthly and all advances outstanding under the revolving line are due December 30, 2003. At December 31, 2002, the Company had no amounts outstanding under the revolving line.

Under terms of the equipment line, the bank made advances to the Company to purchase equipment within 90 days of the advance, except for the initial advance on the closing date which allowed for equipment purchased by the Company after January 1, 2001. Equipment advances borrowed under the initial advance are payable in 36 equal monthly installments of principal, plus accrued interest, through June 30, 2004. Subsequent equipment advances made between July 1, 2001 and December 31, 2001 are due in 30 equal monthly installments of principal, plus accrued interest, ending on June 30, 2004. Interest on the equipment line accrues from the date of each equipment advance at the bank's prime rate plus 2.50%; prime rate was 4.25% at December 31, 2002. Equipment advances when repaid may not be re-borrowed. At December 31, 2002, the Company had $487,329 outstanding under the equipment line. The current portion of the equipment line at December 31, 2002 was $324,886. The Company is making monthly principal payments of $27,074, plus accrued interest, through June 30, 2004.

The Loan Agreement is secured by substantially all assets of the Company. The Loan Agreement contains covenants related to the Company's quick ratio and tangible net worth as defined in the Loan Agreement which were met by the Company during the reporting period.

(4) Income Taxes

Edgar Filing: DIGITAL INSIGHT CORP - Form 8-K/A

The Company has not recorded any income taxes during the year ended December 31, 2002 because of current and historical operating losses. As a result, the effective income tax rate is different from the amount computed by applying the statutory U.S. Federal income tax rate of 34% to loss before income taxes because of the Company's provision for a valuation allowance on substantially all deferred income tax assets.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements Continued

December 31, 2002

Income tax benefit differed from the amount computed by applying the statutory U.S. Federal income tax rate of 34% to loss before income taxes as a result of the following:

Computed expected tax benefit	$ (1,527,069)
(Increase) decrease in income tax benefit resulting from:
State income taxes, net of Federal effect	(281,019)
Other, net	22,199
Increase in valuation allowance for deferred income taxes	1,785,889
Total income taxes	$ <hr/>

The income tax effect of temporary differences that give rise to significant portions of the Company's deferred income tax assets and liabilities are presented below:

Deferred income tax assets:
Current:
Allowance for billing adjustments and doubtful accounts	$ 113,534
Deferred compensation	21,949
Other	8,445
Noncurrent:
Net operating loss and research and experimentation credit carryforwards	16,649,764
Deferred services revenue	271,709
	<hr/>
Total gross deferred income tax assets	17,065,401
Less valuation allowance for deferred income tax assets	(17,046,707)
	<hr/>
Net deferred income tax assets	18,694
Deferred income tax liabilities:
Property and equipment, principally due to difference in depreciation	18,694
	<hr/>
Net deferred income taxes	$ <hr/>

The valuation allowance for deferred income tax assets as of December 31, 2002 was $17,046,707. The net change in the total valuation allowance for the year ended December 31, 2002 was an increase of $1,785,889.

In assessing the realizability of deferred income tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred income tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred income tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which these temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred income tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Based on these criteria, management has decided to provide a full valuation allowance against its deferred income tax assets as of December 31, 2002.

At December 31, 2002, the Company had net operating loss and research and experimentation credit carryforwards for Federal income tax purposes of approximately $40.5 million and $316,000, respectively, which are available to offset future taxable income, if any, through the year 2022.

(5) Redeemable Preferred Stock

F-11

December 31, 2002

On May 2, 2002, the Company sold 3,924,501 shares of Series D Preferred stock, resulting in net proceeds to the Company of $9,635,311.

As part of a Series D Preferred stock offering in October 2001, each Series B and Series C preferred shareholder who purchased at least the minimum amount of Series D Preferred stock as set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement, was entitled to exchange each share of Series B Preferred stock held into 1.097 shares of Series B-1 Preferred stock and each share of Series C Preferred stock held into 3.232 shares of Series C-1 preferred stock.

As part of the Series D Preferred stock offering in May 2002, the exchange rate for Series B to B-1 changed, retroactively, for all Series D investors. The revised exchange rate entitled those Series B Preferred shareholders who purchased at least the minimum amount of Series D Preferred stock as set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement to exchange each share of Series B Preferred stock held into 1.172 shares of Series B-1 Preferred stock. As a result of this revision, the number of shares of B-1 converted by investors in the October 2001 Series D offering increased by 197,967. In addition, an additional 72,286 shares of Series B Preferred stock and 165,841 shares of Series C Preferred stock were exchanged as a result of investments in the May 2002 Series D Preferred stock offering. As a result of these exchanges, all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred stock had been converted into Series B-1 Preferred stock as of May 2002.

The holders of redeemable preferred stock are entitled to, among other substantial rights: (1) voting rights equivalent to the voting rights as if their holdings were converted into common stock; (2) cumulative preferred annual dividends of 8% of the liquidation value ($1.33 per share for Series A, $3.50 per share for Series B, $2.99 per share for Series B-1, $8.08 per share for Series C, $2.50 per share for Series C-1 and $7.50 per share for Series D) plus all accumulated and unpaid dividends; (3) liquidation and distribution preferences; (4) the option to convert to common stock at any time (initial conversion ratio of one-to-one for all classes of preferred stock, subject to adjustment); (5) automatic conversion upon the effective date of a qualified initial public offering; (6) certain anti-dilution provisions; (7) certain participation rights; (8) certain covenants requiring Series A, B, B-1, C, C-1, and D stockholder authorization of transactions; and (9) a mandatory redemption provision.

The Series A Preferred stock is redeemable at any time after the fourth anniversary of the original issuance of the Series D Preferred stock (October 31, 2005), upon election by the holders of a majority of the Preferred stock then outstanding, voting as a single class. The redemption price for the Series A Preferred stock is $1.33 per share plus all accrued and unpaid dividends.

The Series B-1 Preferred stock is redeemable any time after the fourth anniversary of the original issuance of the Series D Preferred stock, upon election by the holders of a majority of the Preferred stock then outstanding, voting as a single class. The redemption price for the Series B-1 Preferred stock is the liquidation value ($2.99 per share) plus all accrued and unpaid dividends, plus an amount equal to 12% per annum of the liquidation value.

The Series C Preferred stock is redeemable at any time after the fourth anniversary of the original issuance of the Series D Preferred stock, upon election by the holders of a majority of the preferred stock then outstanding, voting as a single class. The redemption price for the Series C Preferred stock is $8.08 per share plus all accrued and unpaid dividends.

December 31, 2002

At December 31, 2002, shares of common stock totaling 2,480,000, 2,800,000, 3,200,000, 3,800,000, 13,250,000, and 7,200,000 are reserved for the conversion provision under the Series A, Series B, Series B-1, Series C, Series C-1, and Series D Preferred Stock Agreements, respectively.

The Company records accretion on the Series B-1 and Series D Preferred stock equal to the difference between the initial carrying value and estimated redemption amount using the interest method from the original issuance date through the redemption date.

(6) Shareholders' Equity

(a) Warrants

During 2001, in connection with the extension of a credit facility with a commercial bank (note 4), the Company issued warrants to the lender. The Company granted 7,500 warrants that allow the holder to acquire an equal number of the Company's $0.001 par value Series D Preferred stock at an exercise price of $2.50 per share. All warrants remain outstanding and exercisable as of December 31, 2002.

(b) Shareholders' Agreement

All owners of the preferred stock and all significant owners, as defined, of the Company's common stock are parties to the Company's shareholders' agreement. This agreement provides, among other specific rights and restrictions, for a right of first refusal to the Company and then to the preferred shareholders, to purchase selling shareholders' shares at a price equal to that agreed by a third party.

(c) Stock Options and Stock Issuances

During 2001, the Company adopted an incentive stock option plan and a stock issuance plan (the Plans) to attract and retain key employees under which 500,000 shares of the Company's common stock were reserved, plus 3,000,000 shares that were reserved under the Company's 1998 stock option and stock issuance plan.

In May 2002, the Company reserved an additional 2,452,689 shares for issuance under the Plans. The Plans are administered by the board of directors and the vesting, expiration, and exercise price of options granted under the Plans are determined within the provisions of the Plans at the discretion of the board of directors.

Edgar Filing: DIGITAL INSIGHT CORP - Form 8-K/A

The following table summarizes stock option activity under the Plans for 2002:

December 31, 2002

The following is a summary of stock options outstanding at December 31, 2002:

Exercise Price	Number of options outstanding at December 31, 2002	Weighted average remaining contractual life (years)	Number of options exercisable at December 31, 2002
$0.125	521,790	5.9	515,687
0.260	3,239,162	8.8	896,890
0.500	12,000	6.5	10,208
1.500	76,563	7.0	70,396
3.000	152,000	7.9	93,229
	4,001,515		1,586,410

In February 2002, the Company offered a voluntary stock option exchange program, which allowed employees, at their election, to forfeit a portion or all of their unexercised stock options effective February 8, 2002 and receive, no sooner than six months and one day after February 8, 2002, new options to purchase the same number of shares underlying the options forfeited in the program. In order to receive new options in exchange for forfeited options, a participant in the program must be employed by the Company on the date the new options are issued. Under the program, the exercise price of the newly issued options will be fair value as determined on the issue date of the new options. The vesting periods for the new options remained the same as the forfeited option grants. Unexercised options to acquire 971,500 shares with a weighted average exercise price of $2.44 per share were forfeited and are eligible to receive an equivalent number of option shares as part of the program.

The weighted average fair value per share of stock options granted during 2002 was $0.19. The fair value for these options was estimated at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions, dividend yield of 0%, expected volatility of 90%, risk free rate of 4%, and an expected life of five years.

(7) Commitments and Contingencies*(a) Leases

The Company has entered into operating lease agreements for office facilities and computer equipment expiring at various dates through 2006. Future minimum lease payments under these noncancelable operating lease agreements for the next four years and in the aggregate as of December 31, 2002 are as follows:

Edgar Filing: DIGITAL INSIGHT CORP - Form 8-K/A

Year ending December 31:
2003	$ 728,603
2004	540,193
2005	560,912
2006	96,458
	<hr/>
	$ 1,926,166
	<hr/>

Rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2002 was $901,417.

(b) Letter of Credit

The Company utilizes two separate third-party, irrevocable, stand-by letters of credit to guarantee its performance under two operating leases for office facilities. The letters of credit, totaling $133,333 and $66,243 at December 31, 2002, expire on October 28, 2003 and September 22, 2003, respectively. The letters of credit are collateralized by two certificates of deposit in the amounts of $133,333 and $66,243. These certificates of deposit mature on November 30, 2003 and September 21, 2003, respectively.

(c) Legal Proceedings

The Company is involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, the ultimate disposition of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or liquidity.

(8) Related Party Transactions

Due from officers at December 31, 2002 represents a note due from an officer and a note due from a former officer. The note due from officer amounts to $343,528 at December 31, 2002. The note is collateralized by shares of the Company's common stock held by the officer and bears an interest rate of 6.55% per annum payable upon maturity of the note. The note due from officer matures on December 31, 2003. The note due from a former officer amounts to $212,371 at December 31, 2002. The note is collateralized by shares of the Company's common stock held by the former officer and bears an interest rate of 6.55% per annum payable upon maturity of the note. The note due from a former officer matured on January 29, 2003. The note was repaid in full on the maturity date.

(9) Customer Concentrations

The Company had revenues from two customers in 2002 that accounted for 45% of the Company's revenue totaling approximately $6,821,000. Accounts receivable from these customers totaled approximately $803,000 at December 31, 2002.

(10) Subsequent Events

On February 4, 2003, the Company repurchased 1,600,000 shares of common stock from a former officer at the fair market value of the stock on that date, $0.26.

UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Following are the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Magnet Communications, Inc. and Subsidiary ( Magnet ) as of September 30, 2003 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002. These condensed consolidated financial statements were prepared using Magnet's historical presentation and do not reflect any reclassifications required to conform to the condensed consolidated financial statement presentation of Digital Insight. The primary difference between the historical financial statement presentation of Magnet and Digital Insight is the classification of certain costs on the condensed consolidated statements of operations as operating expenses by Magnet that are classified as cost of sales by Digital Insight.

These condensed consolidated financial statements were prepared by the management of Magnet, are unaudited, and include all adjustments necessary for a fair statement of the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented on a stand alone basis. However, these results are not necessarily indicative of results for any other interim period or the full year. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been omitted or condensed in accordance with the quarterly reporting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

(1) Description of Business and Method of Presentation

(a) Description of Business

Magnet Communications, Inc. (Magnet) is a leading provider of online cash management and business banking solutions to large and mid-tier financial institutions. These financial institutions use Magnet's products to offer sophisticated banking and cash management services through the Internet to their business clients. Magnet offers these solutions through an in-house licensing option or through an outsourced hosted solution. Both solutions are supported by a range of professional services to facilitate the implementation, systems integration and product customization for each financial institution.

(b) Method of presentation

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002 have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) and the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements in accordance with GAAP have been omitted or condensed in accordance with quarterly reporting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). Independent accountants have not audited these consolidated financial statements. The consolidated financial statements include all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) which are, in the opinion of Magnet's management, necessary for a fair statement of the consolidated financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows for such periods. However, these results are not necessarily indicative of results for any other interim period or for the full year.

Magnet's management believes that the disclosures included in the accompanying interim consolidated financial statements and footnotes are adequate to make the information not misleading, but should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included elsewhere in this Form 8-K/A.

(2) Subsequent Event

On November 25, 2003 Magnet was acquired by and became a wholly owned subsidiary of Digital Insight Corporation, an Internet banking service provider headquartered in Calabasas, California pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated October 23, 2003. As a result of the merger, all of the outstanding shares of common stock of Magnet were converted into an aggregate of $33.5 million in cash and 1.45 million shares of Digital Insight common stock with a fair value of approximately $28.5 million. The proceeds were allocated to the preferred shareholders in accordance with the liquidation provision of Magnet's Fifth Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation.

Under the terms of the Magnet's bonus plan, Magnet was obligated to pay several executive officers and designated executives change-in-control bonus payments upon closing of the acquisition equal to an aggregate of approximately 10% of the purchase price consideration.

INTRODUCTION TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

On November 25, 2003, Digital Insight Corporation (the Company) completed its acquisition of all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Magnet Communications, Inc. (Magnet) in a forward triangular merger pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated October 23, 2003 among the Company, Mureau Acquisitions LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and Magnet. Magnet was a privately held company based in Atlanta, Georgia that provides online cash management and business banking solutions to large and mid-size financial institutions.

Digital Insight paid $33.5 million and issued 1.45 million shares of its common stock with a fair value of approximately $28.5 million to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Magnet. The fair value of the common stock issued was based on the average trading price of the Company's common stock for four days before, four days after and including the public announcement date.

The acquisition will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. The purchase price will be allocated to the estimated fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The estimated fair value of the tangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed approximated the historical cost basis and the preliminary purchase price allocation assuming the acquisition was consummated on September 30, 2003 indicates identifiable intangible assets of $12.1 million and estimated goodwill of approximately $49.0 million. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, goodwill is not amortized but rather is periodically evaluated for impairment on at least an annual basis and intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful lives.

The following unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet assumes that the acquisition of Magnet was consummated as of September 30, 2003. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and the year ended December 31, 2002 give effect to the acquisition as if it had occurred on January 1, 2002. Unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information is based on a preliminary purchase price allocation that is subject to change pending the completion of the final purchase price allocation. This allocation is subject to finalization of the actual fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on information at the acquisition date. The impact of these changes may have a material effect on the estimated purchase price allocation.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information is for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the results that would have occurred if the acquisition had occurred as of the beginning of the periods presented and should not be construed as being representative of future consolidated operating results or financial position. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the nine months ended September 30, 2003, and Magnet's financial statements and notes thereto, included elsewhere in this current Report on Form 8-K/A.
