NEW CENTURY FINANCIAL CORPORATION ANNOUNCES DECISION TO CONVERT TO A REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST

New Century Announces First Quarter 2004 Loan Production of $8.4 Billion

Irvine, Calif., April 5, 2004, New Century Financial Corporation (Nasdaq: NCEN), one of the nation's largest mortgage finance companies, announced today that, after careful review, its Board of Directors voted in favor of converting the company to a Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT), subject to final Board approval of relevant legal, accounting and financial matters and shareholder approval.

New Century's management and Board of Directors weighed the merits of both a REIT restructuring and maintaining its current corporate structure. The decision to convert to a REIT was based on several factors, including the potential for increased shareholder return, tax efficiency and ability to achieve growth objectives. New Century is finalizing the structural issues relating to the REIT conversion and exploring various financing alternatives, in consultation with its financial and legal advisors.

Our company is committed to delivering performance, growth and long-term shareholder return," said Robert K. Cole, chairman and chief executive officer. "We believe that by converting to a REIT we will be in a better position to achieve our long-term growth objectives and continue to increase shareholder value.
