Table of ContentsTrend Micro Announces Revision of Forecasts of Consolidated Financial Results for the First Quarter of Fiscal Year Ending December 31, 2004

Tokyo, Japan April 16, 2004 Trend Micro (TSE: 4704; Nasdaq: TMIC), a leader in network antivirus and Internet content security software and services, today announced that the forecast of financial results for the first quarter of the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004, is revised as set forth below.

1. Revision of forecast of financial results for the first quarter of FY2004
(January 1, 2004 to March 31, 2004)

(in millions of yen)

	Net Sales	Operating Income	Net Income
Forecast previously published(A)	12,200	3,600	2,100
Revision made(B)	13,621	5,140	3,141
Amount of increase(B - A)	1,421	1,540	1,041
Ratio of increase or decrease	12%	43%	50%

2. Reason for Revision

The company has decided to revise its forecasts because it is expected that net sales will deviate by more than 10% and operating income and net income will deviate by more than 30% from the previous forecasts, respectively. This deviation is due to an increase in demand for antivirus products caused by outbreaks of several potent viruses such as NETSKY .

The company will disclose the details of its results for the first quarter of fiscal year ending December 31, 2004, on the day of its financial results announcement, April 20th, 2004.

Notice Regarding Forward Looking Statements

Trend Micro Reports Record First Quarter Revenue

Net sales up 25% YoY and operating income rises 74% in 1Q2004

Tokyo, Japan April 20, 2004 Trend Micro, Inc. (TSE: 4704, NASDAQ: TMIC), a leader in network antivirus and Internet content security software and services, today announced earnings results for the first quarter 2004.

Trend Micro posted consolidated net sales of 13.6 billion Yen (or US $126 million, based on an exchange rate of 108 JPY = 1USD), operating income of 5.1 billion Yen (or US $48 million) and net income of 3.1 billion Yen (or US $29 million) for the first quarter 2004. These figures reflect gains of 25% in net sales, 74% in operating income and 81% in net income compared with the same period a year ago.

All regions worldwide experienced growth compared to the same quarter in 2003, most notably in the Europe, US, and Japan. Enterprise products represented 78% and consumer products represented 22% of net sales respectively.

This quarter, we introduced new and innovative solutions such as Trend Micro Network VirusWall, that continue to deliver on the promises of our Enterprise Protection Strategy. We have also gained traction in our small and medium business product lines introduced late last year, commented Steve Chang, CEO and co-founder of Trend Micro, Inc. Our core product lines continue to be healthy, and provide a solid foundation upon which we will continue to create new solutions for our customers that will fuel our growth in the future.

Based on information currently available to the company, consolidated net sales for the second quarter ending June 30, 2004 is expected to be 13.5 billion Yen (or US $125 million). Operating income and net income are expected to be 4.5 billion Yen (or US $42 million) and 2.7 billion Yen (or US $25 million), respectively.

First Quarter Business Highlights

- During the first quarter, Trend Micro introduced several new products and services as the latest phase of Trend Micro Enterprise Protection Strategy, the company's industry-unique comprehensive approach to outbreak management. These included Trend Micro Network VirusWall 1200, an outbreak prevention appliance that works at the network layer; enhanced capabilities in Trend Micro Control Manage 3.0; and Trend Micro Vulnerability Assessment which allows administrators to identify and isolate vulnerable or infected machines to preserve the integrity of the network.
- Network VirusWall 1200 was awarded the Best of VARVision Award and VAR Best Product award in the hardware division at the System Builder Summit & VARVision event in Dallas, Texas. Network VirusWall, which was premiered at DEMO 2004, also garnered Trend Micro a DEMOgod award for presentation during the exclusive technology show. Spam Prevention Solution was named Datamation's anti-spam Product of the Year by the publication's Reader's Choice selection process.

<Note> In order for the warrants to be granted or transferred to the directors and certain employees of the Company and the directors and certain employees of an affiliated company, the Company issued unsecured bonds with detachable warrants. Under pre-revised section 341-8-4 of the Japanese Commercial Code, the redemption and retirement of these bonds are restricted when the total amount of the bonds is less than the total amount of the issue price of the stocks from unexecuted warrants. To reduce interest costs, the Company repurchased some of the issued bonds after warrants were detached. Based on the above reason, the Company intends to hold the treasury bonds until they can be retired legally which is substantially the same as redemption. Thus, bonds and treasury bonds (10,000 millions of yen as of March 31, 2004 and 10,000 millions of yen as of December 31, 2003 respectively) are disclosed in net amount in the balance sheet.

2 nd Qtr	13,500	4,500	2,650

(Note) Since the business environment surrounding Trend Micro Group tends to fluctuate in the short run, it is difficult to make the highly reliable projection figures on a yearly basis. We, therefore, decided to announce the earnings on a quarterly basis in the fiscal year ending in December 2004 as well as earnings projection of the succeeding quarter.

If we found through our calculation conducted from time to time that the net sales fluctuate from the most recent quarterly projection by more than 10%, or operating income or net income fluctuates by more than 30%, we will announce the revision of the earnings projection.
