PROXY STATEMENT

FOR

2004 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD SEPTEMBER 15, 2004

August 23, 2004

These proxy materials are being furnished to stockholders of ADE Corporation, a Massachusetts corporation, in connection with the solicitation by ADE's Board of Directors of proxies to be voted at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Wednesday, September 15, 2004 at 10:00 a.m., Eastern time, at ADE's corporate headquarters, 80 Wilson Way, Westwood, Massachusetts, and at any adjournments thereof.

This proxy statement contains important information regarding the meeting, the proposals on which you are being asked to vote, information you may find useful in determining how to vote, and voting procedures.

We use a number of abbreviations in this proxy statement. The proxy materials are the notice of meeting, proxy statement and proxy card. We sometimes refer to ADE Corporation as ADE. References to fiscal year 2004 mean ADE's fiscal year that began on May 1, 2003 and ended on April 30, 2004. ADE's 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders is referred to as the meeting. The record date refers to August 2, 2004, the date on which you must have been an ADE stockholder in order to vote at the meeting.

The proxy materials are first being mailed or otherwise furnished to stockholders of ADE on or about August 23, 2004. The Annual Report to Stockholders for our 2004 fiscal year is being mailed to the stockholders with the proxy materials, but is not part of the proxy materials.

PROXY SOLICITATION

Proxies may be solicited by directors, officers and employees of ADE by mail, by telephone, in person or otherwise. They will receive no additional compensation for any solicitation efforts. In addition, ADE will request banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy materials to the beneficial owners of Common Stock and obtain voting instructions from the beneficial owners. ADE will reimburse those firms for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy materials and obtaining voting instructions.

VOTING PROCEDURES

As an ADE stockholder, you have a right to vote on certain business matters that affect ADE. Each proposal of which we are currently aware that will be presented at the meeting and upon which you are being asked to vote is discussed in this proxy statement. Each share of ADE Common Stock that you own entitles you to one vote. You may vote by mail or in person at the meeting. Beneficial owners may be able to give voting instructions to record holders via other methods, such as by telephone.

Your shares will be voted in accordance with your instructions. By signing and returning the proxy card in the enclosed prepaid and addressed envelope, you are enabling the individuals named on the proxy card, referred to as proxies, to vote your shares at the meeting in the manner you indicate. We encourage you to sign and return the proxy card even if you plan to attend the meeting. In this way, your shares will be voted if you are unable to attend the meeting. If you received more than one proxy card, that indicates your shares are held in more than one account. Please sign and return all proxy cards to be sure that all your shares are voted for you by the proxies.

If you plan to attend the meeting and vote in person, we will provide you with a ballot at the meeting. If your shares are registered directly in your name, you are considered the stockholder of record and you are entitled to vote in person at the meeting.

REVOKING YOUR PROXY

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the meeting. In order to do this, you must: (1) sign and return another proxy at a later date, OR (2) give written notice to the Clerk of ADE at or before the meeting at 80 Wilson Way, Westwood, MA 02090, OR (3) attend the meeting and vote in person. Any one of these actions will revoke an earlier proxy from you.

VOTING CONFIDENTIALITY

Proxies, ballots and voting tabulations are handled on a confidential basis to protect your voting privacy. Information will not be disclosed except as required by law.

VOTING SECURITIES

Holders of Common Stock of record on the books of ADE at the close of business on the record date, August 2, 2004, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting. On the record date, there were 14,031,578 shares of ADE's Common Stock issued and outstanding.

REQUIRED QUORUM; REQUIRED VOTES

A quorum, which is a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote as of the record date, must be present in order to hold the meeting and to conduct business. Shares are counted as being present at the meeting if their holder appears in person at the meeting or submits a properly executed proxy card.

The proxy card provides space for a stockholder to withhold voting for any or all nominees for the Board of Directors or to abstain from voting on any proposal if the stockholder chooses to do so. If you return a proxy card that withholds your vote from, or abstains from voting on, a proposal, your shares will be counted as present for the purpose of determining a quorum, but will not be counted in the vote on the proposal.

If your shares are held in the name of a broker and you do not return a proxy card, brokerage firms have authority to vote your non-voted shares on certain routine matters. The three proposals before the meeting should be treated as routine matters. Consequently, if you do not give a proxy to vote your shares, your brokerage firm may either leave your shares unvoted or may vote your shares on these routine matters. To the extent your brokerage firm returns a proxy card on your behalf, your shares will be counted as entitled to vote for the purpose of determining if a quorum is present.

Each of the proposals listed below requires approval as set forth opposite such proposal:

Proposal

Vote Required for Approval

Edgar Filing: ADE CORP - Form DEF 14A

Proposal 1. Fix the size of the Board of Directors at five members.

Requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. For purposes of determining the number of votes cast, only those cast For or Against are included, and any abstentions will have the effect of a vote Against the proposal.

Proposal 2. Election of Directors.

Requires a plurality of the votes cast. For purposes of determining which nominees receive a plurality, only those cast For are included, and any votes for withholding authority will not count in making that determination.

Proposal 3. Ratification of the appointment of Pricewaterhouse Coopers LLP as our independent accountants for the fiscal year ending April 30, 2005.

Requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. For purposes of determining the number of votes cast, only those cast For or Against are included, and any abstentions will have the effect of a vote Against the proposal.

If you sign and return a proxy card, but do not indicate how you wish to vote with respect to a particular proposal, the shares represented on such proxy card will be voted FOR the proposal. Similarly, because the above proposals are considered routine matters, if your broker signs and returns a proxy card on your behalf, but does not indicate how the shares should be voted with respect to a particular proposal, the shares represented on such proxy card will be voted FOR the proposal.

VOTING RESULTS

Final voting results will be announced at the meeting and will be published in ADE's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the second quarter of fiscal year 2005, to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. After the report is filed, you may view it on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov and our website at www.ade.com. These websites are included as textual references only and the information on these websites is not incorporated by reference in this proxy statement.

PROPOSAL 1

SIZE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The By-Laws of ADE provide for a Board of Directors consisting of a number of Directors, not less than three nor more than nine, as may be fixed from time to time by the stockholders. At last year's Annual Meeting of Stockholders of ADE held September 17, 2003, the size of the Board was fixed at five and five directors were elected. The Board has proposed that the stockholders again fix the number of Directors constituting the full Board at five members.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR FIXING THE SIZE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AT FIVE MEMBERS. A MAJORITY OF THE VOTES CAST IN PERSON OR BY PROXY AT THE MEETING IS REQUIRED TO FIX THE SIZE OF THE BOARD.

PROPOSAL 2

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR

The Board has nominated Harris Clay, Landon T. Clay, H. Kimball Faulkner, Chris L. Koliopoulos and Kendall Wright, all of whom are currently serving as directors, to be elected at the meeting to serve on the Board until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until their respective successors are elected and qualified or upon their earlier death, resignation or removal. Each person nominated has consented to his nomination and to serve if elected.

Edgar Filing: ADE CORP - Form DEF 14A

Shares represented by proxies will be voted FOR the election of those nominees as Directors unless otherwise specified in the proxy. Shares may not be voted cumulatively. If any of the nominees for election to the Board should, for any reason not now anticipated, not be available to serve as such, shares represented by proxies will be voted for such other candidate as may be designated by the Board.

Set forth below is information with respect to each nominee for election to the Board of Directors at the meeting:

HARRIS CLAY, age 77, has been a director of ADE since 1970. He has been self-employed as a private investor during the past five years. Mr. Clay received an AB from Harvard College. Mr. Clay and Landon T. Clay are brothers.

LANDON T. CLAY, age 78, has been a director of ADE since 1970 and Chairman of the Board since 1979. From 1971 until 1997, he served as Chairman of Eaton Vance Corp., a mutual fund management and distribution company. Mr. Clay serves as Chairman of East Hill Management LLC, a registered investment advisor, which he founded in 1997. Mr. Clay received an AB from Harvard College. Mr. Clay and Harris Clay are brothers.

H. KIMBALL FAULKNER, age 73, has been a director of ADE since 1970 and has been retired for the past five years. He was formerly a self-employed small business consultant. Mr. Faulkner received an AB from Harvard College and an MBA from the University of Virginia.

CHRIS L. KOLIOPOULOS, age 51, was elected President and Chief Executive Officer in 2002 and has been a director of ADE since 1998. He is also President and a founder of Phase Shift Technology, Inc., now ADE Phase Shift, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of ADE, positions he has held since 1987. Dr. Koliopoulos received a BS from the University of Rochester and an MS and PhD from the University of Arizona.

KENDALL WRIGHT, age 78, has been a director of ADE since 1983 and has been a business, marketing and operations management consultant during the past five years, including to ADE. Mr. Wright received a BS from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR ELECTING THE NOMINEES TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS. A PLURALITY OF THE VOTES CAST IN PERSON OR BY PROXY AT THE MEETING IS REQUIRED TO ELECT EACH NOMINEE AS A DIRECTOR.

MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board held five meetings in fiscal year 2004. During fiscal year 2004, each director attended at least 75 percent of Board meetings and meetings of committees of the Board on which he serves. ADE's Board has determined that the following directors are independent under applicable NASDAQ rules and Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules and regulations: Harris Clay, Landon T. Clay and Messrs. Faulkner and Wright. The ADE Board has three standing committees: an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating Committee.

The Audit Committee consists of three members, Harris Clay and Messrs. Faulkner and Wright, each of whom is independent as defined by currently applicable NASDAQ and SEC rules. The Board has determined that Mr. Wright is an audit committee financial expert. This determination is based on Mr. Wright's extensive experience as a chief executive officer in both privately and publicly held companies, his experience as a chief financial officer of a private company and his work for a venture capital firm where he received extensive training in financial matters. The Audit Committee's primary function is to assist the Board of ADE in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing the financial reports and other financial information provided by ADE to any governmental body or the public; ADE's systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance and ethics that management and the Board have established; and ADE's auditing, accounting and financial reporting processes generally. The Audit Committee has sole authority for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the independent accountants, for considering their independence and effectiveness, and for approving the fees and other compensation to be paid to the independent accountants. The independent accountants report directly to the Audit Committee. There were four meetings of the Audit Committee during fiscal year 2004.

Edgar Filing: ADE CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Compensation Committee, composed of Landon T. Clay and Messrs. Faulkner and Wright, administers ADE's stock option and compensation plans and recommends to the full Board the amount, character and method of payment of compensation of all executive officers and certain other key employees and consultants of ADE. The Compensation Committee held five meetings during fiscal year 2004.

The Nominating Committee is composed of Harris Clay, Landon T. Clay and Dr. Koliopoulos. Harris Clay and Landon T. Clay are independent under applicable NASDAQ rules and Dr. Koliopoulos is not independent. The primary functions of the Nominating Committee are to assist the Board by identifying, evaluating and selecting highly-qualified candidates to serve as directors of ADE; serving as a focal point for communication between such candidates, the Board and ADE's management; making recommendations to the independent members of the Board for candidates for all directorships to be filled; identifying, evaluating and making recommendations to the Board of a set of ethics principles applicable to ADE; periodically reviewing and evaluating ADE's ethics policies and guidelines; and making other recommendations to the Board regarding affairs relating to the directors of ADE. The Board has adopted a charter for the Nominating Committee which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A, but which is not available on ADE's website. The Nominating Committee met once during fiscal year 2004.

Any ADE security holder who desires to communicate with our directors, individually or as a group, may do so by writing to the party for whom the communication is intended, care of the Clerk of ADE at 80 Wilson Way, Westwood, Massachusetts 02090. The Clerk will then deliver any communication to the appropriate party or parties.

SELECTION OF CANDIDATES FOR DIRECTORS AND SHAREHOLDER RECOMMENDATIONS

The Nominating Committee seeks individuals qualified to become members of the Board, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, and recommends director nominees for selection by a majority of the independent directors for nomination to fill expiring terms of directors at each annual meeting of stockholders. The Nominating Committee will also consider candidates for nominees as directors of ADE who are recommended by stockholders. To make a recommendation, a stockholder should write to the Nominating Committee c/o the Clerk of ADE, 80 Wilson Way, Westwood, MA 02090. However, the Nominating Committee is not obligated to accept such recommendations. In addition, under ADE's By-Laws, a stockholder has the right to make a nomination by sending written notice, by personal delivery or by mail, of such stockholder's intent to submit such nomination. The By-Laws require that such notice be sent within specified timeframes and that such notice contains certain information relating to the nominating stockholder and such stockholder's nominee or nominees. See "Stockholder Proposals for the 2005 Annual Meeting."

In the event that the Nominating Committee or the Board identifies the need to fill a vacancy or to propose that the stockholders expand the size of the Board and add a new member, the Nominating Committee will initiate a search process and informally keep the Board apprised of its progress. The Nominating Committee may seek input from members of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer and other management and, if desired, hire a search firm. The initial candidate or candidates, including anyone recommended by a stockholder, who satisfy the specific criteria for Board membership and otherwise qualify for membership on the Board will then be reviewed and evaluated by the Nominating Committee; the evaluation process for candidates recommended by stockholders is not different from candidates recommended by any other source.

In considering candidates to serve as directors, the Nominating Committee shall consider all factors it deems relevant, such as a candidate's personal integrity and sound judgment, business and professional skills and experience, familiarity with ADE's business and the semiconductor business generally, independence, possible conflicts of interest, diversity, the extent to which the candidate would fill a present need on the Board and concern for the long-term interests of the stockholders.

For its fiscal year 2004, ADE did not pay any third party to identify or to assist in the evaluation of any candidate for election to the Board. ADE did not receive any stockholder recommendations or nominations for the Board for election at the meeting, except the nominations made by the Board which includes members who are stockholders. All of the nominees for election at the meeting are current members of the Board.

Under ADE's By-Laws, a Board meeting is held immediately following the annual meeting. All of the Board members attended last year's annual meeting of shareholders. ADE maintains a policy of expecting directors' attendance at annual meetings.

The Compensation Committee is composed of Landon T. Clay, H. Kimball Faulkner and Kendall Wright, none of whom is an officer or employee of ADE and all of whom are independent under NASDAQ rules. ADE's Chief Executive Officer participates in discussions with the Compensation Committee regarding the compensation levels of executive officers other than himself.

ADE provides its executive officers with a compensation package consisting of a base salary, incentive compensation in the form of a cash bonus and equity-based incentive compensation in the form of stock options. The overall objectives of ADE's compensation policies are (1) to establish base salaries which are competitive with those payable by companies with which ADE competes in the marketplace and for the recruitment of executives, (2) to relate a part of the executive's compensation to his or hers and ADE's performance through cash bonuses when pre-established profitability and other operating targets are reached, and (3) to align management's interests with those of ADE's stockholders through the use of stock options at percentage levels appropriate for executive positions within ADE.

In setting compensation levels for fiscal year 2004, the Compensation Committee conducted a review of data from a number of independent surveys. The Compensation Committee also reviewed the compensation paid to executive officers at a selected peer group of semiconductor equipment companies (the Selected Peer Group Data).

BASE SALARIES

Base salaries for fiscal year 2004 for ADE's executive officers were set by the Compensation Committee based on the responsibilities of the position held and the experience and performance of the individual. The Compensation Committee reviewed the salaries of each of the executive officers of ADE, compensation practices at similar companies in the industry, individual and Company performance and individual responsibility levels and adjusted individual salaries for fiscal year 2004 based on these factors.

EXECUTIVE BONUSES

All executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, as well as all other full-time, regular employees of ADE participate in ADE's bonus pool, the total amount of which is determined by a fixed percentage of pre-tax profit in excess of a threshold corresponding to a targeted rate of return on invested capital. No bonuses will be paid under this plan in respect of fiscal year 2004 because the threshold targeted rate of return on invested capital was not reached in fiscal year 2004. However, the Board did pay certain bonuses outside of the plan in fiscal year 2004.

STOCK OPTIONS

The Compensation Committee also is responsible for administration of ADE's stock option and stock purchase plans and the granting of rights thereunder. Stock option grants are based on the Compensation Committee's subjective evaluation of each executive officer's performance and contribution to ADE, the executive officer's position and responsibilities and the executive officer's attitude and role as a leader. The Compensation Committee also considers, but does not weigh as heavily, each executive officer's potential for greater contribution to ADE in the future and length of service with ADE. Finally the Compensation Committee considers the executive stock ownership levels reported by executives included in the Selected Peer Group Data. Generally, stock options are granted with an exercise price equal to the market price of the Common Stock on the date of grant and vest quarterly over five years. This approach is designed to act as an incentive for the creation of stockholder value and management stability over the long term, since the full benefit of the compensation package cannot be realized unless and until stock price appreciation occurs over a number of years.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION

Dr. Koliopoulos' fiscal year 2004 base salary was $310,915. Dr. Koliopoulos received a cash bonus of $55,000 in respect of fiscal year 2003.

INTERNAL REVENUE CODE LIMITATION ON DEDUCTIBILITY OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, enacted in 1993, generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation over $1 million paid during any year to ADE's chief executive officer and other Named Executives. Qualified performance-based compensation is not included in the $1 million limit. The Compensation Committee believes that all of ADE's stock option plans qualify as performance-based compensation plans.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

COMPOSITION

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") is composed of three independent directors, as defined by currently applicable NASDAQ rules, and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee charter is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B. The members of the Audit Committee are Harris Clay and Messrs. Faulkner and Wright.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The responsibilities of the Audit Committee include:

serving as an independent and objective party to monitor ADE's financial reporting process and internal control system;

reviewing and appraising the audit efforts of ADE's independent accountants and, if at any time ADE has an auditing department, such auditing department;

providing an open avenue of communication among the independent accountants, financial and senior management, the internal auditing department (if any), and the Board; and preparing the report required by Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations to be included in ADE's annual proxy statement.

Management is responsible for ADE's financial reporting process, including its internal control over financial reporting, and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. ADE's independent accountants are responsible for auditing those financial statements and expressing an opinion that our audited financial statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and review these processes.

In this context, the Audit Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent accountants. Management represented to the Audit Committee that ADE's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent accountants.

DISCUSSIONS WITH MANAGEMENT AND INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent accountants the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, "Communication with Audit Committees." The independent accountants have provided the Audit Committee the letter and written disclosures required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committee." The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent accountants, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the independence of their firm under the foregoing standards. In addition, the independent accountants have delivered various reports to the Audit Committee regarding, among other things, ADE's critical accounting policies.

SUMMARY

Based upon (1) the Audit Committee's discussions with management and the independent accountants, (2) the Audit Committee's review of the representations of management, and (3) the report of the independent accountants to the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in ADE's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2004, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 14, 2004.

NO INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE

In ADE's filings with the SEC, information is sometimes incorporated by reference. Based on SEC regulations, the preceding Report of the Audit Committee and Stock Performance Graph specifically are not incorporated by reference into any other filings with the SEC.

APPROVAL OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The Audit Committee has appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PricewaterhouseCoopers) as ADE's independent accountants for the fiscal year ending April 30, 2005 and seeks stockholder ratification of the appointment. PricewaterhouseCoopers has served as ADE's independent accountants since 1973. Representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers will be present at the meeting to respond to questions and will be given the opportunity to make a statement should they desire to do so.

Audit Fees

The fees for services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers to ADE in the last two fiscal years were as follows:

Type of Fees	FY 2003	FY 2004
Audit Fees	$ 294,000	$ 290,000
Audit-Related Fees	19,000	10,000
Tax Fees	28,000	32,000
Total Fees	$ 341,000	$ 332,000

In the above table, audit fees are fees ADE paid PricewaterhouseCoopers for professional services for the audit of ADE's consolidated financial statements included in ADE's annual report on Form 10-K and reviews of financial statements included in ADE's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, or for services that are normally provided by the independent accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements; audit-related fees are fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of ADE's financial statements and included fees for audits of ADE's employee benefit plans, statutory audits of certain of ADE's foreign subsidiaries, and consulting on specific accounting matters; and tax fees are fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers for tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning. The Audit Committee has reviewed the fees paid to the independent accountants as part of its review of the independent accountants' independence and concluded that such fees and the services provided are compatible with PricewaterhouseCoopers independence.

Services Provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers

The Audit Committee recognizes the importance of maintaining the independence and objective viewpoint of the independent accountants. The Audit Committee also recognizes that the independent accountants possess a unique knowledge of ADE, and can provide necessary and valuable services to ADE in addition to the annual audit. The Audit Committee currently has no pre-approval policies or procedures for independent accountants' services, as it specifically pre-approves each of the services to be rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers in advance of performance including the fees and terms thereof. The Audit Committee may delegate approval authority to one or more designated members of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will not delegate the Audit Committee's responsibilities to approve services performed by the independent accountants to management.

Since May 6, 2003, the date when SEC rules relating to approval of services by independent accountants became effective, all services for which ADE engaged the independent accountants were pre-approved by the Audit Committee. The total fees paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers for services are set forth in the table above.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS LLP AS ADE'S INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 2005. A MAJORITY OF THE VOTES CAST IN PERSON OR BY PROXY AT THE MEETING IS REQUIRED FOR SUCH APPROVAL. IF THE APPOINTMENT IS NOT SO RATIFIED, THE BOARD WILL CONSIDER SELECTING OTHER INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS.

CODE OF ETHICS

ADE has adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to all of our directors, officers and employees, including ADE's principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer, controller or any person performing similar functions. This Code of Ethics is designed to comply with the NASDAQ rules related to codes of conduct. A copy of our Code of Ethics is attached as Exhibit 14.1 to our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2004.

HOUSEHOLDING OF ANNUAL MEETING MATERIALS
