The net investment cost (including commissions, if any) of the shares of Class A Common Stock beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons is $3,281,644.10. The source of funds for this consideration was working capital of LILP and LILTD.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

The Reporting Persons acquired the shares of Class A Common Stock reported herein in the ordinary course of business for investment purposes. Notwithstanding the Company's recent filing of a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the federal bankruptcy laws, the Reporting Persons believe their investment has significant value and potential for increased value and intend to urge management and the board of directors to take steps to maximize shareholder value, including through plan of reorganization in the bankruptcy proceeding. The Reporting Persons have actively engaged and intend to continue to actively engage in discussions with the Company, its advisors, other stockholders, creditors and third parties regarding efforts to reorganize the Company and maximize shareholder value.

Prior to the bankruptcy, the Reporting Persons encouraged fundamental changes in the Company's corporate governance, such as the holding of an annual meeting and the election of two new Class A directors, in order to maximize shareholder value. The Reporting Persons believe that sound corporate governance practices impose a level of management and board accountability necessary to help insure that a good performance record is established and maintained, thereby increasing shareholder value.

A representative of the Reporting Persons has, on several occasions, discussed with the management of the Company the Reporting Persons' willingness to work with management to develop a strategy to maximize shareholder value, as well as the Reporting Persons' views regarding corporate governance issues.

On November 15, 2004, the Reporting Persons delivered a letter to the Company's Chief Administrative Officer, General Counsel and Secretary (a copy of which is attached to this filing as Exhibit 1), providing notice of their desire, among other things, to nominate two new Class A directors to the Company's Board of Directors.

On December 15, 2004, LILTD and LILP filed a complaint pursuant to Section 211(c) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (a copy of which is attached to this filing as Exhibit 2) requesting the Court of Chancery of Delaware, New Castle County (the Court) to order the Company (i) to hold an annual meeting of stockholders by no later than February 1, 2005, (ii) to elect directors at the annual meeting by written ballot pursuant to Section 211(e) of Delaware General Corporation Law and (iii) to grant LILTD and LILP such other relief as may be deemed appropriate by the Court.

On January 12, 2005, the Reporting Persons delivered a letter to the Company's Chief Executive Officer (a copy of which is attached to this filing as Exhibit 3), proposing to make an equity investment in the Company of at least $20 million or more, if necessary. On that same day, Mr. Pearlman had a phone conference with a representative of the Company and its financial advisor to discuss the proposed investment.

On January 14, 2005, the Company filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Georgia, located in Savannah (Case No. 05-40129).

The Reporting Persons may pursue any of a variety of alternatives available in order to maximize the value of their investment in the Company. Such alternatives could include, without limitation, (i) the proposition or sponsorship of a plan of reorganization in the pending bankruptcy case, (ii) the purchase of additional equity securities in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise, (iii) the acquisition of debt obligations or the making of loans to the Company, including participation in debtor-in-possession financing and (iv) the sale of all or a portion of the Class A Common Stock now owned or hereafter acquired by them. The Reporting Persons intend to contact and consult with other shareholders of the Company concerning the Company, its prospects, and any or all of the foregoing matters.

The Reporting Persons may also transfer shares to or from a Reporting Person to another Reporting Person.

The Reporting Persons reserve the right to change their plans or intentions and to take any and all actions that they may deem appropriate to maximize the value of their investment in the Company in light of their general investment policies, market conditions, subsequent developments affecting the Company and the general business and future prospects of the Company.

Except as set forth above, the Reporting Persons do not have any current intention, plan or proposal with respect to: (a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Company, or the disposition of securities of the Company; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of the Company, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Company; (f) any other material change in the Company's business or corporate structure; (g) changes in the Company's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Company by any person; (h) causing a class of securities of the Company to be delisted from a national securities exchange, if any, or cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (i) a class of equity securities of the Company becoming eligible for termination of a registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Act; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.
