Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 26, 2005, the Nominating and Governance Committee of the board of directors of The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. conducted its annual review of compensation for the board's non-management directors. The committee discussed a report prepared by its outside compensation consultant on director compensation practices among PNC's peer group members and Fortune 500 companies generally. Based in part on that report, the committee voted to increase the annual cash committee chairman's retainer for the chairman of the board's Audit Committee from $10,000 to $20,000, effective the second quarter of 2005. In making its decision, the committee also took into account the significant increase in the Audit Committee chairman's workload and responsibilities during recent years.

The committee made no other changes to the annual retainer and meeting fee schedules for non-management directors. These schedules as so revised are shown below.

Annual Retainer Schedule:

Retainer for each director	$ 40,000
Committee chairman's retainer, for each committee chaired:
Audit committee	$ 20,000
Each other committee	$ 10,000
Presiding director's retainer	$ 10,000

Meeting Fee Schedule:

Each board meeting, except quarterly telephonic dividend meetings	$ 1,500
Each quarterly telephonic dividend meeting	$ 750
For each of the first six meetings held annually by each committee or subcommittee on which the director serves	$ 1,500
For the seventh and each succeeding meeting held annually by each committee or subcommittee on which the director serves	$ 2,000

Non-management directors continue to be eligible to participate in the Directors Deferred Compensation Plan, to receive equity-based grants under the 1992 Director Share Incentive Plan, the 1997 Long-Term Incentive Award Plan, and the Outside Directors Deferred Stock Unit Plan, and to receive the other director benefits described in our proxy statement for the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders that was held on April 26, 2005.
