Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 13, 2005, BioMarin Pharmaceutical Inc. (the Company) entered into a Development, License and Commercialization Agreement with Ares Trading S.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of Serono S.A. (Serono), for the further development and commercialization of two BioMarin product candidates, Phenoptin (sapropterin hydrochloride) and Phenylase (phenylalanine ammonia lyase). Pursuant to the agreement, Serono has acquired exclusive rights to market the products in all territories outside the United States and Japan. The Company retains exclusive rights to market the products in the United States.

Serono will make an upfront payment of $25 million to the Company, and will make additional milestone payments of up to $232 million based on the successful development and registration of both products in multiple indications, of which $45 million are associated specifically with Phenoptin in connection with the treatment of phenylketonuria. In addition, Serono will pay BioMarin undisclosed royalties on its net sales of the products. The companies will share equally all development costs following successful completion of Phase 2 trials for each product candidate in each indication.

The Company's press release issued on May 16, 2005 related to this transaction is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

As a result of the appointment by the Company's board of directors of Jean-Jacques Bienaimé as the Company's Chief Executive Officer, effective as of May 16, 2005, Louis Drapeau and Jeffrey H. Cooper (who since August 2004 served as the Company's Acting Chief Executive Officer and Acting Chief Financial Officer, respectively) resumed their positions as Senior Vice President Finance, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary and Vice President, Controller, respectively.
