Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 1, 2005, Williams-Sonoma, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Reimbursement Agreement with each of Bank of America, N.A., The Bank of New York and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the Banks). These agreements provide the Company with letter of credit facilities under which the Company can request the Banks to issue letters of credit on the Company s behalf in an aggregate amount up to $145,000,000. The Company can request the Banks to issue letters of credit up until the expiration of the agreements on July 1, 2006. The latest expiration for the letters of credit issued under the facilities is November 28, 2006. These new agreements replace the Company s existing letter of credit facilities in the aggregate amount of $125,000,000 that expired on July 2, 2005. The Company also has an unsecured revolving credit line with Bank of America, N.A., The Bank of New York and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., among others.

The letter of credit facilities contain certain restrictive loan covenants, including, among others, financial covenants requiring a maximum leverage ratio (funded debt adjusted for lease and rent expense to EBITDAR) and a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio, and covenants limiting the Company s ability to dispose of assets, make acquisitions, be acquired, incur indebtedness, grant liens, make investments, pay dividends, and repurchase stock. The Company s obligations under the letter of credit facilities are guaranteed by each of the Company s U.S. subsidiaries.

The letter of credit facilities contain events of default that include, among others, non-payment of reimbursement obligations, inaccuracy of representations and warranties, violation of covenants, bankruptcy and insolvency events, material judgments, cross defaults to certain other indebtedness and events constituting a change of control. The occurrence of an event of default could result in the acceleration of the Company s obligations under the letter of credit facilities, an obligation of the Company to deposit with the Banks as collateral an amount equal to all outstanding letters of credit, and an obligation of any or all of the Company s U.S. subsidiaries to pay the full amount of the Company s obligations under the letter of credit facilities.
