FAQ for SeeBeyond Employees, July 26, 2005

Transaction

1. What is the difference between the announcement date and the closing date of the transaction?

The announcement date is when Sun entered into a definitive agreement to acquire SeeBeyond. The closing date of the transaction will occur when Sun and SeeBeyond have secured regulatory and shareholder approvals and satisfied other closing conditions and SeeBeyond becomes a part of Sun Microsystems.

Health and Welfare Benefits

1. Where can I get information about Sun's benefits?

Sun will provide an in-person overview of the benefits for US-based employees. Details for the date, time and location of this meeting will be provided in a separate communication. A benefits overview is also available on Sun's public web site at http://www.sun.com/corp_emp/benefits.html.

Benefits: Other

1. How will this transaction affect the immigration process for those of us for whom SeeBeyond has put in the application for Green Card Status?

Sun will provide an in-person overview of the immigration process at the SeeBeyond Monrovia offices on July 29, 2005. Please contact Diane Erickson for details on the time and location.

2. Do Sun employees get a discount on purchasing Sun hardware?

Yes. Once Sun employees have an assigned employee number, they are eligible to purchase equipment with the employee discount.

IT and Systems

1. When will systems change?
2. How will systems be transitioned?
3. Will employees be offered training on new systems?
4. Will my e-mail address change?
5. Will my hardware (desktop or laptop computer) change?

A joint SeeBeyond and Sun IT Team is being developed to address these types of questions. An IT roadmap will be developed. As decisions are made, the IT team will communicate to the SeeBeyond employees.

Strategy and Products

1. Will Sun retain the SeeBeyond product? What will the product name be?

Yes. Sun will retain the SeeBeyond product. ICAN is an essential part of Sun's strategy for Java Enterprise System and SOA. The product naming has not yet been determined.

2. What is Sun's strategy to use/promote the ICAN suite?

Subject to the close of the acquisition, Sun plans to immediately begin selling the ICAN product suite as the Java Enterprise System Integration Suite. ICAN would be promoted as a part of the larger Java Enterprise System and as a specific suite within that offering as a part of Sun's Smarter Enterprise campaign for FY06.

Sun may also choose to use ICAN for internal Sun IT projects. Ultimately, the IT department would make decisions about specific use, but internal teams have expressed interest in this area.

3. Does Sun plan to invest additional resources towards future development of the ICAN product suite?

Yes. Integration is one of 12 Sun Growth Targets for the coming fiscal year. This means that Sun intends to focus on and invest in these growth targets to grow these businesses.

4. When will the name SeeBeyond go away and be replaced with Sun Microsystems?

The company name SeeBeyond will go away at the close of the transaction. The use of SeeBeyond as a product name is yet to be determined.

Other

1. Will I need to reapply for my job?

No. The terms of the sale include the transfer of employees to the new company at the close of the transaction.

2. Will there be any layoffs once the transaction is finalized?

We anticipate that the majority of employees will transfer employment at close. As the new organizational structure is finalized, it is possible that current roles and responsibilities could be modified. As with SeeBeyond, there are no guarantees of future employment.

3. After the transaction closes, will I be a Sun employee?

Yes. As of the close of the transaction, SeeBeyond employees will become employees of Sun Microsystems.

4. Will I need to relocate after the transaction close?

Employees will continue to work from current locations at the close of the transaction. The Monrovia site will remain unchanged and other sites may be evaluated as we proceed through the integration process.
