Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 26, 2006, the U.S. District Court issued an Order authorizing the 2006 cash retention payment program by Armstrong World Industries, Inc. (Company) for certain senior-level employees and managers, including the Company's Senior Vice President and General Counsel, John N. Rigas. Mr. Rigas is eligible to receive a cash retention payment equal to 100% of his current annualized base salary ($382,000). No other executive officers are participating in this program.

A copy of the U.S. District Court's January 26, 2006 Order to this effect and a copy of the Company's related Motion for an Order Authorizing and Approving Continued Cash Retention Program for Key Employees are filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report. The program's objective is to retain key employees vital to the Company's current and future success as it works to emerge from its Chapter 11 bankruptcy reorganization. Under the terms of the program, the participating employees are eligible for a cash retention payment equal to a percentage of their current annualized base salary. A grant letter in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 is being provided to Mr. Rigas and other participants in this program.
