Item 8.01 Other Events

On July 31, 2006, C&F Financial Corporation issued a news release stating that there will be a delay in the announcement of the Company's second quarter earnings.

The Company recently uncovered evidence suggesting that two former employees of C&F Mortgage Corporation, the mortgage subsidiary of C&F Bank, acting together, embezzled funds from C&F Mortgage Corporation in the amount of approximately $2.2 million. Upon making a preliminary determination of the possible impropriety, management notified the Company's audit committee. Under the supervision of the audit committee, management and the Company's general counsel, external and internal auditors and outside counsel are undertaking a full and complete investigation of the matter. The Company has notified its insurance company and the appropriate authorities of the potential loss. Based upon a review of its insurance coverage by management and outside counsel and discussions with representatives of the insurance company, the Company believes there is sufficient coverage under its insurance policy to recoup potential losses less a $75,000 deductible. Accordingly, the Company currently believes there will be no changes to net income reported in its historical financial statements and will record a charge to income for the deductible in its second quarter financial statements.

The Company expects to release its second quarter financial results within approximately two weeks.

A copy of the Company's news release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference into this Item 8.01.
