A Beneficial Partnership

Strong geographic, business and cultural fit

Achieves longstanding strategic objective to enter attractive Southern Vermont market with residential, recreational and commercial ties to existing Berkshire and New York regions

Factory Point is a quality franchise with strong asset quality and performance metrics

Acquisition deal value is approximately $82 million funded with 80/20 mix of stock and cash

P/E metrics are favorable with 17.9x price to earnings and 13.4x price to earnings after 25% targeted cost saves

Transaction is expected to be accretive to EPS in 2008, with anticipated double digit medium term cash return on equity from planned revenue enhancements

Acquired earnings will provide surplus capital available for potential stock repurchases or other capital uses

Many Strategic Benefits

Expansion of branch network into area of higher per capita income growth than national median; aligns with long term targeted expansion into Southern Vermont

Generate revenue enhancements from acquisition coupled with product expansion in insurance, trust, and investment services, organic growth and de novo branching in the area

Gain market share from national and community bank competitors by taking advantage of position as only locally headquartered regional bank. Berkshire has a proven record of sustained diversified double-digit annual growth in similar markets.

Bring higher legal lending limit and larger suite of products and services to a high performing institution

Accretive to earnings through cost savings realization and contribution of existing strong banking team in Vermont
