Welcoming Monday's statement from the UNI Confederation of Trade Unions, Mr Neil Roden, Group Director of Human Resources for RBS, confirmed that he would be contacting UNI on behalf of Fortis, RBS and Santander (collectively, the Banks) to seek a meeting.

We welcome the Trade Unions' positive engagement in the process and would hope to maintain a constructive dialogue with them at all times. We understand the demands that they are making and will work with them as closely as possible to ensure that our proposals are understood clearly.

Mr Michel Deboeck, Chief Human Resources Officer for Fortis, added, We have very constructive working relationships with unions and works councils and I am confident of our track record in building opportunities for people as our business interests grow.

For his part, Mr José Luis Gómez Alciturri, Head of Human Resources for Santander, commented on the constructive communication currently being held with the employee representative organisations. I believe it is especially important to maintain a cooperative framework and appropriate dialogue with all social partners in working to create profitable businesses within a stable environment for employees.

In connection with the proposed offer for ABN AMRO, RBS expects to file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) a Registration Statement on Form F-4, which will constitute a prospectus, and the Banks expect to file with the SEC a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO and other relevant materials. INVESTORS ARE URGED TO READ ANY DOCUMENTS REGARDING THE PROPOSED OFFER IF AND WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE, BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION. Investors will be able to obtain a copy of such documents, without charge, at the SEC's website (<http://www.sec.gov>) once such documents are filed with the SEC. Copies of such documents may also be obtained from each Bank, without charge, once they are filed with the SEC.

Forward-Looking Statements

This announcement includes certain forward-looking statements. These statements are based on the current expectations of the Banks and are naturally subject to uncertainty and changes in certain circumstances. Forward-looking statements include any statements related to the benefits or synergies resulting from a transaction with ABN AMRO and, without limitation, statements typically containing words such as intends, expects, anticipates, targets, plans, estimates and words of similar import. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, the presence of a competitive offer for ABN AMRO, satisfaction of any pre-conditions or conditions to the proposed offer, including the receipt of required regulatory and anti-trust approvals, the successful completion of the offer or any subsequent compulsory acquisition procedure, the anticipated benefits of the proposed offer (including anticipated synergies) not being realized, the separation and integration of ABN AMRO and its assets among the Banks and the integration of such businesses and assets by the Banks being materially delayed or more costly or difficult than expected, as well as additional factors, such as changes in economic conditions, changes in the regulatory environment, fluctuations in interest and exchange rates, the outcome of litigation and government actions. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. None of the Banks undertake any obligation to update publicly or revise forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except to the extent legally required.

Any offer made in or into the United States will only be made by the Banks and/or RFS Holdings directly or by a dealer-manager that is registered with the SEC.
