Item 8.01. Other Events.

On August 2, 2007, EMC Corporation ( EMC or the Company ) amended its internal guidelines to strengthen the stock ownership requirement for its executive officers. The amended stock ownership guidelines substantially increase the number of shares of EMC common stock that EMC executive officers are required to hold. Under the new guidelines, EMC's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer will be required to hold 500,000 unrestricted shares; EMC's Vice Chairman will be required to hold 200,000 unrestricted shares; EMC's Chief Financial Officer will be required to hold 150,000 unrestricted shares; and EMC's other executive officers will each be required to hold at least 100,000 unrestricted shares. The level of stock ownership required under the current guidelines is calculated as a multiple of an executive officer's base salary, and on average the amended guidelines will require EMC executives to hold nearly 50% more shares over the current stock ownership requirements. EMC executive officers will have three years to reach compliance with the new guidelines.

On August 10, 2007, EMC amended the Company's Insider Trading Policy to permit directors and executive officers to enter into pre-arranged stock trading plans in accordance with guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act ).

Certain directors and executive officers of EMC may adopt trading plans in accordance with Rule 10b5-1 and EMC's policies regarding stock transactions, as part of each individual's long-term strategy to gradually diversify their investments in a disciplined way and to allow them to spread their stock trades over an extended period of time. Any transactions under the plans will be disclosed publicly through Form 144 and/or Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Rule 10b5-1 permits individuals who are not aware of material, non-public information to establish pre-arranged plans to sell company stock under specified conditions and times. Using these plans, individuals can prudently and gradually diversify their investment portfolios over an extended period of time.

The information in this Form 8-K shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Exchange Act or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, regardless of any general incorporation language in such filing.
