Explanatory Note

The proxy statement previously provided to shareholders of People's United Financial, Inc. in connection with the 2008 Annual Meeting includes tables showing the estimated value of payments and benefits that would have been paid to each of the five executive officers who are named in the proxy statement if their employment had terminated on December 31, 2007 for various specified reasons. We recently discovered that these tables, which appear on pages 42 through 45 of the proxy statement, inadvertently included some inaccurate information. The purpose of this filing is to correct these inaccuracies.

Corrected Tables

Tables revised to reflect corrected information for each of the named executive officers are presented on the following pages. The revised tables should be substituted for the corresponding tables appearing in the proxy statement.

Corrections have been made to the affected tables as follows:

for Mr. Klein, the value shown for restricted stock, the total value shown for equity-based compensation and the grand total shown for all forms of compensation in the columns headed "Death", "Disability", and "Retirement" have been corrected (page 42 of the proxy statement); for Mr. Sherringham, the total value shown for equity-based compensation and the grand total shown for all forms of compensation in the column headed "Change in Control" have been corrected, as has the grand total shown for all forms of compensation in the columns headed "Death" and "Disability" (page 43 of proxy statement); for Mr. D'Amore, the grand total shown for all forms of compensation in the column headed "Death" has been corrected, as has the total value shown for health and welfare, the total value shown for other benefits, and the grand total shown for all forms of compensation in the column headed "Change in Control" (page 43 of proxy statement); for Mr. Dreyer, the grand total shown for all forms of compensation in the column headed "Voluntary" has been corrected, as has the total value shown for health and welfare, the total value shown for other benefits, and the grand total shown for all forms of compensation in the column headed "Change in Control" (page 44 of proxy statement); and for Mr. Kosturko, the grand total shown for all forms of compensation in the column headed "Voluntary" has been corrected (page 45 of proxy statement).

Revised tables appear on the next four pages.
