Major Holders of Class A Voting Shares and Class B Multiple Voting Shares

The following table sets forth, as of May 31, 2009, information regarding the beneficial ownership of the voting securities of the Company by each person or entity that beneficially owns an aggregate of 5% or more of the Company's outstanding Class A voting shares and/or Class B multiple voting shares. Unless otherwise indicated in the table, each of the individuals named below has sole voting and investment power with respect to the voting shares beneficially owned by them. The calculation of the percentage of outstanding shares is based on 3,672,407 Class A voting shares and 7,717,970 Class B multiple voting shares outstanding on May 31, 2009, adjusted, where appropriate, for shares of stock beneficially owned but not yet issued.

Beneficial ownership is determined under the rules of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Under these rules, beneficial ownership includes any of the Class A voting shares or Class B multiple voting shares, as the case maybe, as to which the individual or entity has sole or shared voting power or investment power and includes any shares as to which the individual or entity has the right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days through the exercise of any warrant, stock option or other right. The inclusion in this Circular of such voting shares, however, does not constitute an admission that the named individual is a direct or indirect beneficial owner of such voting shares. The voting shares that a person has the right to acquire within 60 days of May 31, 2009 are deemed outstanding for the purpose of calculating the percentage ownership of such person, but are not deemed outstanding for the purposes of calculating the percentage owned by any other person listed.

PROPOSAL 1:

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's articles of incorporation stipulate that the Board of Directors shall consist of a minimum of three directors and a maximum of 15 directors, and that a director's term of office is from the date of the meeting at which he or she is elected or appointed until the next annual shareholders' meeting following his or her election or appointment, or until such time as his or her successors are otherwise elected or appointed. The Company's Board of Directors currently consists of 10 persons, nine of whom are being proposed by management as nominees for re-election as directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders of the Company or until their successors are otherwise elected or appointed.

Except where the authority to vote in favour of the directors is withheld, the persons whose names are printed on the form of proxy intend to vote FOR the election of each of the 9 nominees whose names are set forth in the following table. While the Company has no reason to believe that any of the management nominees for re-election as a director will be unable or unwilling to serve if elected, if any of the nominees is for any reason unavailable to serve as a director, proxies received in favor of the management nominees will be voted for another nominee in the discretion of the persons named in the form of proxy unless the shareholder has specified in the proxy that his shares are to be withheld from voting on the election of directors. For transactions, relationships or arrangements that were considered by the Board of Directors in determining whether each director was independent, please see "Related Party Transactions" in this Circular below.

Director Compensation

During fiscal year 2009, each director who was not an employee of the Company or any of its affiliates received an annual fee of $25,000 for serving on the Company's Board of Directors and $1,500 for each Board meeting attended in person. The chairperson of each of the audit committee, compensation committee and corporate governance committee received an additional annual fee of $10,000, $8,000 and $5,000, respectively. The chairperson of a special independent committee of directors is entitled to receive $10,000 for his or her services and the other members of the committee are each entitled to receive $5,000 for their service on such committee. All directors were reimbursed for reasonable travel expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their duties as directors. Each director who is not an employee of the Company is entitled to receive a grant of 1,000 stock appreciation rights on April 1 of each year. The Company's Board of Directors waived the grant of the $1,000 stock appreciation rights for this year.

Meeting Participation and Board Communication

During fiscal year 2009, the Company's Board of Directors held a total of eight board meetings and 29 committee meetings. During such period, eight of the eleven directors attended 100% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and three directors attended 88% of the board meetings.

The Company has a formal policy regarding director attendance at its meetings. Directors are encouraged to attend the annual shareholders meeting, all meetings of the Board of Directors and all committee meetings of which they are a member. If necessary, directors can attend meetings via teleconference.

The Company also has a formal policy regarding communications with the Board of Directors. Shareholders may communicate with the Board of Directors by writing to the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer by mail addressed to such person at 1240 Phillips Square, Montreal, Québec, Canada, H3B 3H4, by an email sent to such person at tandruskevich@birksandmayors.com, or by fax sent to such person at (514) 397-2577. Shareholders should include their contact information in the communication. The President and Chief Executive Officer is responsible for ensuring that any such communication is delivered to the Board of Directors or to a specified director, as the case may be.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors is supported by committees, which are working groups that analyze issues and provide recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding their respective areas of focus. The executive officers interact periodically with the committees to address management issues. The following are the four main existing committees of the Board of Directors, as well as the reports of certain of those committees. The Board of Directors may from time to time also create special committees of the Board as needed.

Audit Committee. The Company has a separately-designated standing audit committee established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"). The audit committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The audit committee reviews the scope and results of the annual audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements conducted by its independent auditors, the scope of other services provided by its independent auditors, proposed changes in its financial accounting standards and principles, and its policies and procedures with respect to its internal accounting, auditing and financial controls. The audit committee also examines and considers other matters relating to the Company's financial affairs and accounting methods, including selection and retention of its independent auditors. During fiscal year 2009, the audit committee held seven meetings and all members of the audit committee attended all of the Audit Committee meetings during such period. During fiscal year 2009, the audit committee was comprised of Alain Benedetti (Chair), Emily Berlin and Ann Spector Lief, each of whom was financially literate and an independent, non-employee director of the Company. Effective May 31, 2009, Alain Benedetti resigned from the Company's Board of Directors and as a member and chair of the audit committee. On June 3, 2009, the Board of Directors appointed Louis L. Roquet a member and the chair of the audit committee. The Company has determined that Louis Roquet is financially sophisticated and has waived the requirement for the present time under the audit committee's charter that at least one member of the audit committee be designated as an "audit committee financial expert", as this term is defined under SEC rules. Neither the SEC nor the NYSE Amex requires the Company to designate an "audit committee financial expert" and the Company has not determined that any of its current directors would qualify as such. A copy of the audit committee charter is available on the Company's website at www.birksandmayors.com.

Audit Committee Report. The audit committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements for fiscal year 2009, with management and with the independent auditors, including matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, "Communication with Audit Committees," as amended.

The audit committee has reviewed the independent auditors' fees for audit and non-audit services for fiscal year 2009. The aggregate fees and expenses billed by KPMG LLP for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements included in its Annual Report on Form 20-F for fiscal year 2009 was approximately $535,000.

The audit committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by the applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent registered public accounting firm's communications with the audit committee concerning independence, and has discussed with the independent auditors their independence.

Based on its review of the audited financial statements and the various discussions noted above, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for fiscal year 2009, filed with the SEC on July 6, 2009 (the Annual Report).

The foregoing has been furnished by the audit committee, namely:

Compensation Committee. The Company has a standing compensation committee. The compensation committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The purpose of the compensation committee is to recommend to the Board of Directors executive compensation, including base salaries, bonuses and long-term incentive awards for the Chief Executive Officer and certain other executive officers of the Company. Certain decisions regarding compensation of certain executive officers are reviewed by the compensation committee. During fiscal year 2009, the compensation committee held five meetings and all members attended all of the meetings during that period. During fiscal year 2009, the compensation committee was comprised of Shirley Dawe (Chair), Alain Benedetti, Ann Spector Loeff and Peter O'Brien, each of whom was an independent, non-employee director of the Company. Effective May 31, 2009, Alain Benedetti resigned from the Company's Board of Directors and from its compensation committee. A copy of the compensation committee charter is available on the Company's website at www.birksandmayors.com.

The compensation committee reviews whether both the compensation and benefits programs provided for the executive officers is generally competitive with similar organizations within the luxury jewelry and retail industry. In determining the compensation of certain of the Company's executive officers, the committee takes into account all factors that it considers relevant, including business conditions in general and the Company's performance during the year in light of such conditions, the market compensation for executives of similar background and experience, and the performance of the specific executive officer under consideration and the business area of the Company for which such executive officer is responsible. Regarding the Chief Executive Officer's compensation, the committee considers many of the same factors looked at for the other executive officers. Some of the key company performance measures are sales, gross profit, earnings before tax, cash flow, return on equity, new product development initiatives and other key strategic and financial objectives as outlined in the Company's profit and strategic plans.

The committee believes that the cash bonus portion of the executive officers' compensation, or the variable compensation component, should vary according to the executive officer's level of responsibility, their capacity to add shareholder value and individual performance and be based upon the Company's overall financial performance. The committee believes that this portion of the executive officer's compensation is critical in order to ensure that such executive officer's interests are aligned with the interests of the Company's shareholders. At the present time, the bonus targets for executive officers range from 40% to 100% of their respective base annual salary. For example, all executive management bonuses (other than the CEO's, a description of which is provided in the Annual Report) are paid out at 75% of target if 100% of the annual planned adjusted earnings before taxes is achieved and a maximum of 110% of target if 135% of the annual planned adjusted earnings before taxes is achieved.

Executive officers may, from time to time, be granted options to purchase the Company's Class A voting shares or other equity or non-equity based incentive awards.

The compensation committee has the authority to obtain the advice and seek assistance from internal and external legal, accounting and other advisors.

Corporate Governance Committee. The Company has a standing corporate governance committee, which has also assumed the functions of the Corporation's former nominating committee, the whole in accordance with the SEC rules and NYSE Amex listing standards on nominating committees. The corporate governance committee is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Company's corporate governance policies. The corporate governance committee is also responsible for the oversight and review of all related party transactions and for nominating potential nominees to the Board of Directors. During fiscal year 2009, the corporate governance committee held six meetings and all members of the corporate governance committee attended all of the committee meetings during such period. The Company's corporate governance committee is comprised of three directors and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. Emily Berlin (Chair), Peter O'Brien and Louis L. Roquet, each of whom is an independent, as defined by the NYSE Amex listing standards on nominating committees, non-employee director of the Company, currently constitute the corporate governance committee.

The Company's policy with regard to the consideration of any director candidates recommended by a shareholder is that it will consider such candidates and evaluate such candidates by the same process as candidates identified by the corporate governance committee. The Company has adopted a policy requiring that a director nominee, whether such candidate was recommended by the corporate governance committee or a shareholder, should possess, at least, integrity and commitment to service on the board. In addition to those minimum qualifications, the corporate governance committee will consider the following qualities or skills, which the Board as a whole should possess: business judgment, financial literacy, public company experience, accounting and finance experience, industry knowledge, diversity and the ability to provide strategic insight and direction. A detailed discussion of each of these attributes can be found in the corporate governance committee charter, which is available on the Company's website at www.birksandmayors.com.

The corporate governance committee shall identify director nominee candidates from any appropriate source including shareholder recommendations. To submit a nominee to be considered by the committee and possibly placed on the proxy statement, a shareholder must submit the nominee's resume and other contact information to the committee at the Company's principal executive office, 1240 Phillips Square, Montreal, Canada, H3B 3H4, not less than 90 calendar days before the date the Company's proxy statement is released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting.

Executive Committee. The Company has a standing executive committee. The executive committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The purpose of the executive committee is to provide a simplified review and approval process in between Board of Directors' meetings for certain corporate actions. The intent of the executive committee is to facilitate the Company's efficient operation with guidance and direction from the Board of Directors. The goal is to provide a mechanism that can assist in the Company's operations, including but not limited to, monitoring the implementation of policies, strategies and programs. In addition, the executive committee's mandate is to assist the Board with respect to the development, continuing assessment and execution of the Company's strategic plan. The executive committee is comprised of at least three members of the Board of Directors. Vacancies on the committee are filled by majority vote of the Board of Directors at the next meeting of the Board of Directors following the occurrence of the vacancy. The current members of the executive committee are Filippo Recami (Chair), Dr. Lorenzo Rossi di Montelera, Thomas A. Andruskevich, Elizabeth Eveillard and Margherita Oberti. For fiscal year 2009, the executive committee held seven meetings. Four of the five members of the executive committee attended 100% of the executive committee meetings during such period and one member attended 86% of the meetings.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During fiscal year 2009, Shirley Dawe (Chair), Alain Benedetti, Ann Spector Lieff and Peter O'Brien served as members of the Company's compensation committee. None of the members of the compensation committee served as an officer or employee of the Company during fiscal year 2009 and there were no material transactions between the Company and any of the members of the compensation committee during fiscal year 2009.

During fiscal year 2009, none of the Company's executive officers served as a member of the Board of Directors of any other entity that has one or more of its executive officers serving as a member of the Company's compensation committee. During fiscal year 2009, none of the Company's executive officers served as a member of the compensation committee, or any committee performing an equivalent function, of any other entity that has one or more of its executive officers serving as a member of the Company's Board of Directors.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers and D&O Insurance

Under the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "CBCA"), a company may not, by contract, resolution or by-law, limit the liability of its directors for breaches of their fiduciary duties. However, a company may indemnify a director or officer, a former director or officer or a person who acts or acted at the company's request as a director or officer of an entity of which the company is or was a shareholder or creditor, and his or her heirs and legal representatives, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by him or her because of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he or she is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the company or the entity, if:

that person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the company; and in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, that person had reasonable grounds for believing that his or her conduct was lawful.

These individuals are entitled to indemnity from the company if the person was substantially successful on the merits of his or her defense of the action or proceeding and fulfilled the conditions set out above. A company may, with the approval of a court, also indemnify that person regarding an action by or on behalf of the company or entity to procure a judgment in its favor, to which the person is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the company or entity, if he or she fulfills the conditions set out above.

The Company's amended by-laws provide for indemnification of directors and officers to the fullest extent authorized by the CBCA. The CBCA does not expressly provide for advance payment of an indemnified person's expenses. However, such advance payment is permitted provided that the individual must repay the money received if it does not fulfill the conditions set out above.

The Company maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance covering liability, including defense costs, of its directors and officers and other employees (as defined in the policy), arising out of a wrongful act committed while performing their duties in such capacity, provided they acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company. The current limit of insurance is $15,000,000 for each loss and $15,000,000 for each policy period. An annual premium of $120,100 was paid by the Company in its last completed financial year with respect to the period from April 1, 2009 to April 1, 2010. Claims payable to the Company are subject to a retention of $250,000 per occurrence applicable to indemnifiable loss only.

Thomas A. Andruskevich

Thomas A. Andruskevich is employed by the Company, as well as by its subsidiary Mayors. Accordingly, the Company has two employment agreements with Mr. Andruskevich, one of which is through Birks and one of which is through Mayors. On April 28, 2008, the employment agreements were amended, restated and renewed for a three-year period and expire on March 31, 2011.

Pursuant to his employment agreement with Birks, the Company may terminate Mr. Andruskevich's employment with just and sufficient cause for such termination. If the Company desires not to renew the agreement, the Company must provide Mr. Andruskevich with notice twelve months prior to the end of the term of the agreement which expires on March 31, 2011. If the Company wishes not to renew the agreement and Mr. Andruskevich is unable to find suitable employment after March 31, 2011, the Company must compensate Mr. Andruskevich for an additional period of up to twelve months by continuing to pay him a base salary, a monthly bonus calculated by taking the average bonus for the three prior fiscal years and dividing by 12, all benefits, plus a lump sum cash payment, if not already paid by Mayors, of $39,000 for disability and life insurance. If the Company terminates the agreement without cause or Mr. Andruskevich resigns for good reason, Mr. Andruskevich is entitled to the base salary which shall have accrued to the date of such termination, any accrued but unpaid vacation pay, performance bonus earned in connection with each year ending prior to the date of such termination, benefits, as well as a pro rata portion of the average annual bonus for the three prior fiscal years, plus a lump sum cash payment, if not already paid by Mayors, of $39,000 for disability and life insurance. In the event Mr. Andruskevich's employment terminates as a result of his death, for cause, as a result of disability or due to his resignation without good reasons, he will receive his base salary through the date of termination or resignation, as well as a pro rata amount for any cash bonus payable to him. The agreement prohibits Mr. Andruskevich from competing with the Company in its business for or on behalf of any entity whose operations are located primarily in Canada in the States of Florida or Georgia or any state or foreign country in which Birks receives at least 10% of its revenues at such time (i) during his employment, (ii) during the period immediately following a termination of employment during which or in respect to which Mr. Andruskevich continues to receive payments or has received a lump sum payment or (iii) in the event of Mr. Andruskevich's voluntary departure, during the twelve month period immediately following the date of his departure. During the non-compete period, Mr. Andruskevich also agrees not to solicit any of the Company's senior executives.

Pursuant to his employment agreement with Mayors, if Mayors wishes not to renew the agreement, it must provide Mr. Andruskevich with notice twelve months prior to the end of the term of the agreement. If Mayors wishes not to renew the agreement and Mr. Andruskevich is unable to find suitable employment after March 31, 2011, Mayors must compensate Mr. Andruskevich for an additional period of up to twelve months by continuing to pay him a base salary, a monthly bonus calculated by taking the average bonus for the three prior fiscal years and dividing by 12, all benefits, plus a lump sum cash payment of $39,000 for disability and life insurance.

If Mayors terminates the agreement without cause or Mr. Andruskevich resigns for good reasons, Mr. Andruskevich is entitled to the base salary which shall have accrued to the date of such termination, any accrued but unpaid vacation pay, performance bonus earned in connection with each year ending prior to the date of such termination, benefits as well as a pro rata portion of the average annual bonus for the three prior fiscal years, plus a lump sum cash payment of $39,000 for disability and life insurance. Additionally, Mayors will pay Mr. Andruskevich his base salary and a pro rata annual bonus for the greater of one (1) year or the unexpired portion of the term in a lump sum and be entitled to benefits and the Company will continue to pay his base salary and the said average annual bonus payable on a monthly basis for an additional period of up to twelve months should Mr. Andruskevich be unable to find another suitable employment position. If Mr. Andruskevich's employment is terminated without cause or if he resigns for good reason within the two year period following a change of control, Mr. Andruskevich will receive his annual base salary, annual bonus and financial planning, health, and dental benefits for the greater of two years or the unexpired portion of the term plus one year, and Mr. Andruskevich will also be entitled to certain bonus compensation and a lump sum cash payment of $39,000 for disability and life insurance as well as a gross-up amount that on an after-tax basis equals the excise tax that would be imposed on the foregoing amounts. If Mr. Andruskevich's employment terminates as a result of his death, for cause, as a result of disability or due to his resignation without good reasons, he will receive his base salary through the date of termination or resignation, as well as a pro rata amount for any cash bonus payable to him.

The agreement prohibits Mr. Andruskevich from competing with Mayors in certain markets for or on behalf of any entity whose operations are located primarily in Canada, in the State of Florida or Georgia or any state or foreign country in which Mayors receives at least 10% of its revenues at such time (i) during his employment, (ii) during the period immediately following a termination of employment up to a maximum period of twelve months during which or in respect to which Mr. Andruskevich continues to receive payments or has received a lump sum payment or (iii) in the event of Mr. Andruskevich's voluntary departure, during the twelve month period immediately following the date of his departure, and to solicit Mayors' senior executives.

In the event Mr. Keifer's employment is terminated without cause or if he resigns for good reason, he will receive his annual base salary, financial planning, health, and dental benefits, and automobile allowance for six months following the date of his resignation or termination. Mr. Keifer is also entitled to a pro rata amount of any bonus compensation payable to him for that year. Incentive PlansCompany's Long-Term Incentive Plan

In 2006, the Board of Directors adopted the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "LTIP"), and same was approved by the Company's shareholders on September 8, 2006. Further to the LTIP, the Company's directors and officers, as well as the Company's employees and consultants (or the employees and consultants of any of the Company's subsidiaries) may from time-to-time be granted various types of compensation awards. The LTIP provides for the grant of incentive stock options that qualify under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and non-statutory options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock awards, restricted stock units and performance unit or share awards, as such terms are defined in the LTIP. A total of 900,000 of the Company's Class A voting shares are reserved for issuance under the LTIP. In no event can the Company issue Class A voting shares or awards requiring the Company to issue Class A voting shares under the LTIP, if such issuance, when combined with the Class A voting shares issuable under any of the Company's other equity incentive award plans and all other Class A voting shares issuable under the LTIP would exceed 1,304,025 Class A voting shares, unless the issuance of such shares or awards in excess of this limit is approved by the shareholders. This limit does not restrict however, the Company's ability to issue awards under the LTIP that are payable other than in shares, including cash-settlement stock appreciation rights. As of May 31, 2009, the only awards outstanding under the LTIP were 31,640 cash-based stock appreciation rights.

Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan

In 2006, the Board of Directors adopted the Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "ESPP"), which was approved by the Company's shareholders on September 8, 2006. Pursuant to the ESPP, eligible employees, which do not include the Company's executives, may from time to time be given the opportunity to purchase Class A voting shares from the Company at 85% of their fair market value through regular payroll deductions. A total of 100,000 of the Company's Class A voting shares are reserved for issuance under the ESPP. As of May 31, 2009, 99,995 Class A voting shares had been issued under the ESPP and no additional shares will be issued under this plan.

Executive Management Long-Term Cash Incentive Plan

In 2007, the Board of Directors approved the Executive Management Long-Term Cash Incentive Plan, effective April 1, 2007 (the "LTCIP"). The purpose of the LTCIP is to encourage certain senior executives to reach goals that not only achieve the Company's short-term performance objectives but also align the Company's goals with the creation of long-term shareholder value. The plan consists of the following three components: (i) a target incentive compensation percentage; (ii) a payout percentage of the target compensation determined by the achievement of predetermined performance measures in accordance with a matrix; and (iii) a performance evaluation cycle comprised of three-year intervals with the first cycle being the period of three years ending March 28, 2009 and the second cycle being the period of three years ending March 27, 2010. The average sales growth rate and average return on equity of the Company during this three year period will determine whether and to what extent any payout under this plan will be. The achievement level will then be applied against a targeted compensation amount for each member of senior management covered in the plan. The first two cycles were approved by the Board of Directors. The Company did not meet the targeted performance requirements under the first cycle and does not expect to meet the requirements of the second cycle and, accordingly, no payout is expected to be made. With respect to each subsequent cycle, the goals and the matrix are subject to the approval of the Company's Board of Directors. To be eligible, an executive officer must be employed through the completion of the cycle and at the date of the payment. Payments under this plan will be made following the approval by the Company's Board of Directors of the audited financial statements for the last fiscal year of the cycle.

Birks' Employee Stock Option Plan

Effective May 1, 1997, Birks adopted an Employee Stock Option Plan (the "Birks ESOP") designed to attract and retain the services of selected employees or non-employee directors of Birks or its affiliates who are in a position to make a material contribution to the successful operation of its business. The Birks ESOP was amended as of June 20, 2000. Effective as of November 15, 2005, no further awards will be granted under the Birks ESOP. However, the Birks ESOP will remain in effect until the outstanding awards thereunder terminate or expire by their terms. Mayors' Long-Term Incentive Plan

Effective as of November 15, 2005, no further awards will be granted under the Mayors LTIP. However, the Mayors LTIP will remain in effect until the outstanding awards thereunder terminate or expire by their terms. As of May 31, 2009, there were 113,034 Class A voting shares underlying options granted under the Mayors LTIP.

Mayors' 1991 Stock Option Plan

Mayors also adopted a stock option plan in 1991, in order to make option awards to key employees and directors. Effective as of November 15, 2005, no further awards will be granted under this plan. However, this plan will remain in effect until the outstanding awards thereunder terminate or expire by their terms. As of May 31, 2009, there were 278,527 Class A voting shares underlying options granted under this plan.

Those individuals include Mr. Andruskevich (131,209 warrants), Mr. Keifer (43,737 warrants), and others. The rights to receive these warrants were contingent upon fulfillment of certain time based employment vesting requirements at Birks. Such warrants have an exercise price of $3.34 per share.
