NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the 13 Weeks and 26 Weeks Ended March 28, 2010

(unaudited)

Note 1: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Financial Statement Preparation

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements as of March 28, 2010, and for the 13-week and 26-week periods ended March 28, 2010 and March 29, 2009, have been prepared by Starbucks Corporation under the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ( SEC ). In the opinion of management, the financial information for the 13-week and 26-week periods ended March 28, 2010 and March 29, 2009 reflect all adjustments and accruals, which are of a normal recurring nature, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods. In this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q ( 10-Q ) Starbucks Corporation is referred to as Starbucks, the Company, we, us or our .

The financial information as of September 27, 2009 is derived from our audited consolidated financial statements and notes for the fiscal year ended September 27, 2009 ( fiscal 2009 ), included in Item 8 in the Fiscal 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K (the 10-K ). The information included in this 10-Q should be read in conjunction with the footnotes and management s discussion and analysis of the financial statements in the 10-K.

The results of operations for the 13-week and 26-week periods ended March 28, 2010 are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations that may be achieved for the entire fiscal year ending October 3, 2010 ( fiscal 2010 ). Additionally, our 2010 fiscal year will include 53 weeks, with the 53rd week falling in the fourth fiscal quarter.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In 2007, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ( FASB ) issued authoritative guidance on accounting and reporting for noncontrolling interests in subsidiaries. The guidance clarifies that a noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary should be accounted for as a component of equity separate from the parent company s equity. We adopted the new guidance relating to noncontrolling interests beginning September 28, 2009 on a prospective basis, except for the presentation and disclosure requirements, which were applied retrospectively.

In June 2009, the FASB issued authoritative guidance on the consolidation of variable interest entities ( VIE ), which will be effective for our first fiscal quarter of 2011. The new guidance requires a qualitative approach to identify a controlling financial interest in a VIE, and requires ongoing assessment of whether an entity is a VIE and whether an interest in a VIE makes the holder the primary beneficiary of the VIE. We are evaluating the impact that adoption may have on our consolidated financial statements.

Note 2: Restructuring Charges

In the second quarter of fiscal 2010, we closed 13 International stores and 2 US stores as a part of Starbucks store portfolio rationalization which began in fiscal 2008. A total of 909 stores globally have been closed as a part of this effort. We expect to complete the remaining closures by the end of the current fiscal year, and will recognize the associated lease exit costs concurrently with the actual closures. Nearly all of the remaining closures are in the International segment.

(1) Non-cash charges and credits for lease exit and other related costs primarily represent deferred rent balances recognized as expense credits at the cease-use date.

Note 3: Acquisitions

In the first quarter of fiscal 2010, on September 30, 2009, we acquired 100% ownership of our business in France, converting it from a 50% joint venture with Sigla S.A. (Grupo Vips) of Spain to a Company-operated market. We simultaneously sold our 50% ownership interests in the Spain and Portugal markets to Grupo Vips, converting them to licensed markets.

Note 4: Derivative Financial Instruments*Cash Flow Hedges

Net derivative losses of $8.1 million and $3.9 million, net of taxes, are included in accumulated other comprehensive income as of March 28, 2010 and September 27, 2009, respectively, related to cash flow hedges. Of the net derivative losses accumulated as of March 28, 2010, $2.6 million pertain to hedging instruments that will be dedesignated within 12 months and will also continue to experience fair value changes before affecting earnings. Ineffectiveness from hedges that were discontinued in the first and second quarters of fiscal year 2010 and 2009 was insignificant. Outstanding contracts will expire within 30 months.

Net Investment Hedges

Net derivative losses of $18.6 million and $19.8 million, net of taxes, are included in accumulated other comprehensive income as of March 28, 2010 and September 27, 2009, respectively, related to net investment derivative hedges. Outstanding contracts will expire within 35 months.

Other Derivatives

To mitigate the translation risk of certain balance sheet items, we enter into certain foreign currency forward contracts that are not designated as hedging instruments. These contracts are recorded at fair value, with the changes in fair value recognized in net interest income and other on the consolidated statements of earnings. Gains and losses from these instruments are largely offset by the financial impact of translating foreign currency denominated payables and receivables, which are also recognized in net interest income and other.

We also enter into certain swap and futures contracts that are not designated as hedging instruments to mitigate the price uncertainty of a portion of our future purchases of dairy products and diesel fuel. These contracts are recorded at fair value, with the changes in fair value recognized in net interest income and other on the consolidated statement of earnings.

The following table presents the effect of derivative instruments on the consolidated statement of earnings for the 13-week and 26-week periods ended (in millions):

Assets and Liabilities Measured at Fair Value on a Nonrecurring Basis (in millions)

Effective September 28, 2009, we adopted new fair value measurement guidance for all nonfinancial assets and liabilities recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a nonrecurring basis. These assets and liabilities include items such as property, plant and equipment, goodwill and other intangible assets that are measured at fair value resulting from impairment, if deemed necessary.

Edgar Filing: STARBUCKS CORP - Form 10-Q

Starbucks measures certain financial assets, including equity and cost method investments, at fair value on a nonrecurring basis. These assets are recognized at fair value when they are determined to be other-than-temporarily impaired.

During the 13 and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, we recognized fair market value adjustments with a charge to earnings to assets measured at fair value (Level 3) on a non-recurring basis, as follows:

	13 Weeks Ended			26 Weeks Ended
	Carrying Value before adjustment	Fair value adjustment	Carrying value after adjustment	Carrying Value before adjustment	Fair value adjustment	Carrying value after adjustment
Property, plant and equipment (1)	$ 2.6	$ (2.3)	$ 0.3	$ 16.5	$ (13.4)	$ 3.1
Equity and cost investments (2)	$ 0.0	$ 0.0	$ 0.0	$ 9.6	$ (7.5)	$ 2.1

(1) The fair value was determined using a discounted cash flow model based on future store revenues and operating costs, using internal projections. The resulting impairment charge was included in store operating expenses.

(2) The fair value was determined using standard valuation techniques, including discounted cash flows, comparable transactions, and comparable company analyses. The resulting impairment charge was included in other operating expenses.

Fair Value of Other Financial Instruments

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents approximates fair value because of the short-term nature of those instruments. The estimated fair value of the $550 million of 6.25% Senior Notes was approximately $599 million and $591 million as of March 28, 2010 and September 27, 2009, respectively.

As of March 28, 2010, we had committed to purchasing green coffee totaling $105 million under fixed-price contracts and an estimated $219 million under price-to-be-fixed contracts. Price-to-be-fixed contracts are green coffee purchase commitments whereby the quality, quantity, delivery period, and other negotiated terms are agreed upon, but the date at which the base C coffee commodity price component will be fixed has not yet been established. For these types of contracts, either the buyer (Starbucks) or the seller has the option to select a date on which to fix the base C coffee commodity price prior to the delivery date. Until prices are fixed, we estimate the total cost of these purchase commitments. We believe, based on relationships established with our suppliers in the past, the risk of non-delivery on these purchase commitments is remote.

Legal Proceedings

On June 30, 2005, three individuals, Erik Lords, Hon Yeung, and Donald Brown filed a lawsuit in Orange County Superior Court, California. The lawsuit alleged that we violated the California Labor Code section 432.8 by asking job applicants to disclose at the time of application convictions for marijuana related offenses more than two years old. The California Court of Appeal issued a ruling on December 10, 2008 instructing the trial judge to enter summary judgment against plaintiffs and the California Supreme Court has rejected the plaintiffs appeal. The plaintiffs have moved to amend the complaint to add new plaintiffs. We have opposed this effort and are asking for final dismissal of the case.

Starbucks is party to various other legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of business, but is not currently a party to any legal proceeding that management believes would have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position or results of operations.

General

Our fiscal year ends on the Sunday closest to September 30. All references to store counts, including data for new store openings, are reported net of store closures, unless otherwise noted. Our 2010 fiscal year includes 53 weeks, with the 53rd week falling in the fourth fiscal quarter, while fiscal 2009 included 52 weeks.

Overview

Starbucks results for the second quarter and first half of fiscal 2010 demonstrate the success of our efforts over the last two years to transform Starbucks business and to position the Company for sustained, profitable growth into the future. Strong comparable stores sales growth (7% for the second quarter and 6% for the first 6 months), combined with a more efficient operating structure drove increased sales leverage and resulted in significantly higher operating margins and net earnings. Of note, US traffic increased by 3% in the second quarter. The operational improvements we implemented throughout fiscal 2009 have driven reduced product costs and store waste as well as in-store labor savings, concurrent with improved customer satisfaction scores.

While the reinvigorated US business has been the primary driver of Starbucks improved consolidated financial results, our International business improved in the second quarter, primarily as a result of significant comparable store sales growth and the effect of operational improvements. We are now even more focused on applying the valuable lessons learned in the US to all of our International operations, positioning us to capitalize on the large expansion opportunities that exist abroad. Our Global Consumer Products business represents another important growth opportunity for us as we accelerate both product innovation and distribution. We are aggressively pursuing the opportunities beyond our more traditional store experience to offer consumers new coffee products in multiple forms and across new categories, formats and channels. Examples include the ongoing expansion of our successful Starbucks VIA® Ready Brew ( VIA ), and the growth of Seattle's Best Coffee in multiple channels.

Starbucks continues to generate strong operating cash flows, which provide us the financial flexibility to continue disciplined investment and spending in both our core business and on innovation and new growth platforms, while also returning cash to shareholders. We generated $958 million of operating cash flow for the first half of fiscal 2010 and finished the period with $1.3 billion in cash and short-term investments and no short-term debt. We recently initiated our first ever cash dividend, and have increased the number of shares authorized for repurchase under our stock repurchase program to approximately 21 million shares.

For the full fiscal year 2010, we expect mid-single-digit revenue growth over the comparable 52-week period driven by mid-single digit comparable store sales growth and high-single-digit revenue growth with the inclusion of the 53rd week. We plan to open about 300 net new stores, which will primarily be licensed stores, with approximately 100 stores in the US and approximately 200 stores in international markets.

Given our current revenue expectations, combined with the year-over-year impact of the operational improvements implemented throughout fiscal 2009 and lower restructuring charges, we expect significant improvement in our consolidated operating margin in fiscal 2010 compared to the prior year. For the International business, we expect meaningful improvement in operating margin compared to fiscal 2009, while at the same time investing to capture the significant long term growth opportunities available to Starbucks. We continue to expect the CPG segment margin of approximately 35% for fiscal 2010.

We expect cash flow from operations to be at least $1.5 billion in fiscal 2010 and capital expenditures to be approximately $500 million. While future dividends will be subject to Board of Directors approval, we are targeting a dividend payout ratio of approximately 35% to 40% of net income.

Results of Operations for the 13 Weeks and 26 Weeks Ended March 28, 2010 and March 29, 2009 (in millions)*Financial Highlights for the Second Quarter of Fiscal 2010 Consolidated

Consolidated operating income was $340 million for the second quarter of fiscal 2010 compared to $41 million in the prior year period, and the operating margin improved to 13.4% compared with 1.8% in the prior year quarter. Lower restructuring charges in the second quarter of fiscal 2010 compared to the prior year resulted in approximately 620 basis points of the increase in operating margin. The operating margin expansion was also driven by the operational efficiencies and cost reduction initiatives implemented throughout fiscal 2009, along with an increase in comparable store sales of 7% compared to the prior year, which created significant sales leverage.

EPS for the second quarter of fiscal 2010 was $0.28, compared to $0.03 in the prior year period, driven primarily by operational improvements made in the business and comparable store sales growth. Restructuring charges impacted EPS by approximately $0.01 in the second quarter of fiscal 2010 and by approximately $0.13 in the second quarter of fiscal 2009.

Cash flow from operations increased to $958 million for the first half of fiscal 2010, compared to $715 million produced for the first half of fiscal 2009, while capital expenditures declined to $184 million from $237 million for the prior year period.

Net revenues for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010 increased $201 million and $309 million, respectively, compared to the corresponding periods of fiscal 2009, driven by increases in Company-operated retail operations.

We derived 84% of total net revenues from our Company-operated retail stores during the first half of fiscal 2010 with the US segment contributing approximately 79% of total retail revenues. For the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010, the increase in consolidated net revenues was driven by a 7%, or $140 million, increase in comparable retail store sales. The increase in comparable store sales was due to a 4% increase in the average value per transaction (contributing approximately $77 million) and a 3% increase in number of transactions (contributing approximately $63 million). Also contributing to the increase in total revenues was the favorable impact of foreign currency translation, primarily due to stronger Canadian and UK currencies, partially offset by a smaller store base. For the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, consolidated net revenues increased over the prior year period driven by a 6%, or $229 million, increase in comparable retail store sales. The increase in comparable sales was due to a 4% increase in the average value per transaction (contributing approximately $152 million) and a 2% increase in number of transactions (contributing approximately $77 million). Also contributing to the increase in total net revenues for the first half of the year was the favorable impact of foreign currency translation, primarily due to stronger Canadian and UK currencies, partially offset by a smaller store base.

We derived 16% of total net revenues from channels outside the Company-operated retail stores, collectively known as specialty operations. For the first half of fiscal 2010, specialty revenues were higher due to strong product sales to licensees and the launch of VIA in the CPG segment.

Cost of sales including occupancy costs as a percentage of total revenues decreased 270 basis points for the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010 driven by supply chain efficiencies which contributed to lower food costs (approximately 90 basis points) and lower beverage and paper packaging product costs (approximately 70 basis points). Lower occupancy costs as a percentage of total net revenues contributed 70 basis points of the decrease primarily due to sales leverage. Cost of sales including occupancy costs as a percentage of total revenues decreased 330 basis points for the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010 driven by supply chain efficiencies which contributed to lower food costs (approximately 110 basis points) and lower beverage and paper packaging product costs (approximately 70 basis points). Lower occupancy costs as a percentage of total net revenues contributed 50 basis points of the decrease primarily due to sales leverage.

Store operating expenses as a percent of related retail revenues decreased 290 and 340 basis points for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, respectively. For the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010, the majority of these expense decreases were driven by increased sales leverage, the closure of underperforming Company-operated stores, increased labor productivity, and lower benefits-related expenses. As a result, total salaries and benefits decreased by approximately 220 basis points. Also contributing to the improvement were lower asset impairments (approximately 40 basis points). For the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, the majority of these expense decreases were driven by increased sales leverage, the closure of underperforming Company-operated stores, increased labor productivity, and lower benefits-related expenses. As a result, total salaries and benefits decreased by approximately 250 basis points. Also contributing to the improvement were prior year costs for the Company's North America leadership conference held in New Orleans in October 2008 (approximately 70 basis points).

Partially offsetting these improvements were higher general and administrative expenses which was driven by higher performance-based compensation expenses.

Operating margin increased 1,160 basis points and 1,000 basis points for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, respectively, compared to the prior year periods primarily due to lower restructuring charges, lower cost of sales including occupancy costs and lower store operating expenses as a percentage of total net revenues as described above.

Net interest income and other for the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010 was relatively flat compared to the prior year. Net interest income and other for the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010 increased $33 million over the prior year period, of which approximately $21 million was due to fluctuations in unrealized holding gains on our trading securities portfolio, which approximates a portion of our liability under the Management Deferred Compensation Plan ( MDCP ). Gains recorded here are offset by charges to general and administrative expenses as the MDCP liability increases with improved investment performance. Also contributing to the increase was the impact of an accounting gain recorded in the first quarter of fiscal 2010 related to our acquisition of a controlling interest in our previous joint venture operations in France. In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the carrying value of the previously held joint venture interest was adjusted to fair value upon the acquisition of the controlling interest.

Interest expense decreased for both the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010 due to the Company having no short-term borrowings outstanding in the first half of fiscal 2010.

The effective tax rates for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010 were higher than in the comparable prior year periods primarily due to the current year increase in the level of pretax earnings, which reduces the impact on the effective tax rate of certain tax benefits. We currently estimate that our effective tax rate for fiscal year 2010 will be in the range of 34% to 35%, with quarterly variations.

Total US net revenues increased 5% and 3% for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, respectively, driven by higher retail revenues from Company-operated stores. Company-operated retail revenues increased due to higher comparable store sales partially offset by the net closure of 299 underperforming Company-operated stores over the last 12 months. For the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010, the increase in comparable store sales was 7%, or $114 million, and was comprised of a 3% increase in the number of transactions (contributing approximately $41 million) and a 5% increase in the average value per transaction (contributing approximately $73 million). For the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, the increase in comparable store sales was 6%, or $186 million, and was comprised of a 1% increase in the number of transactions (contributing approximately $37 million) and a 5% increase in the average value per transaction (contributing approximately $149 million). Average value per transaction in both periods increased due to changes in our pricing structure, incremental VIA sales, and other factors.

Cost of sales including occupancy costs as a percentage of total revenues decreased by 320 basis points for the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010 over the comparable prior year quarter. The decrease was primarily driven by supply chain efficiencies which contributed to lower food costs (approximately 100 basis points) and lower beverage and paper packaging product costs (approximately 90 basis points). Lower occupancy costs as a percentage of total net revenues contributed 90 basis points of the decrease primarily due to increased sales leverage. Cost of sales including occupancy costs as a percentage of total revenues decreased by 400 basis points for the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010 over the comparable prior year period. The decrease was primarily driven by supply chain efficiencies which contributed to lower food costs (approximately 120 basis points) and lower beverage and paper packaging product costs (approximately 90 basis points). Lower occupancy costs as a percentage of total net revenues contributed 70 basis of the decrease points primarily due to sales leverage.

Store operating expenses as a percentage of related retail revenues decreased 350 and 370 basis points for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, respectively. For the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010, the improvement was primarily driven by lower store operating expenses resulting from increased sales leverage, the closure of underperforming Company-operated stores, and increased labor productivity. Also contributing to the decline in store operating expenses as a percentage of net revenues were lower benefits-related expenses. As a result, total salaries and benefits decreased by approximately 250 basis points. Also contributing to the improvement were lower asset impairments (approximately 50 basis points). For the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, the majority of the expense decrease was driven by increased sales leverage, the closure of underperforming Company-operated stores, increased labor productivity, and lower benefits-related expenses. As a result, total salaries and benefits decreased by approximately 290 basis points. Also contributing to the improvement were prior year costs for the Company's North America leadership conference held in New Orleans in October 2008 (approximately 70 basis points).

Operating margin expanded 1,350 basis points and 1,250 basis points for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, respectively, driven by lower restructuring charges, lower store operating expenses and lower cost of sales including occupancy costs as a percentage of total US net revenues. Restructuring charges decreased $106 million and $152 million for the 13 weeks and 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, respectively, due to a smaller number of closures of underperforming stores in the current year as we completed almost all of our US store rationalization efforts by the end of fiscal 2009.

by foreign currency fluctuations (approximately $45 million), primarily the strengthening of the Canadian and British currencies relative to the US dollar. Also contributing to the increase for the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010 was a 7%, or $27 million, increase in comparable store sales and the effect of consolidating previous joint venture operations in France. The increase in comparable store sales was driven by a 6% increase in the number of transactions (contributing approximately $23 million), with the Canada and UK markets driving approximately three quarters of the total increase in comparable store sales.

For the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, Company-operated retail revenue increased 23%, driven by foreign currency fluctuations (approximately $82 million), primarily the strengthening of the Canadian and British currencies relative to the US dollar. Also contributing to the increase was the effect of consolidating previous joint venture operations in France and a 5% increase in comparable store sales. The increase in comparable store sales contributed $43 million and consisted entirely of an increase in the number of transactions, with the Canada and UK markets driving the large majority of the improvement.

Cost of sales including occupancy costs as a percentage of total net revenues decreased 250 basis points for the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010, due to lower food costs (approximately 110 basis points) and lower occupancy costs as a percentage of total net revenues (approximately 100 basis points) driven by sales leverage. For the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, cost of sales including occupancy costs as a percentage of total net revenues decreased by 290 basis points, due to lower food costs (approximately 100 basis points) and lower occupancy costs as a percentage of total net revenues (approximately 80 basis points) driven by sales leverage.

For the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010, restructuring costs were lower by $8 million, or 210 basis points, due to reduced lease exit and related costs and asset impairments. For the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, restructuring costs were relatively flat compared to the prior year.

Store operating expenses were flat at 38% of retail revenues for both the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010 and March 29, 2009. For the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, store operating expenses as a percentage of related retail revenues decreased 190 basis points with nearly all of the decrease due to the effects of sales leverage, which contributed to lower asset impairments (approximately 120 basis points) and lower salaries and benefits (approximately 70 basis points).

Operating margin expanded 630 basis points for the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010, primarily driven by lower cost of sales including occupancy costs and lower restructuring charges as a percentage of total net revenues. Higher income from equity investees contributed 130 basis points to the margin increase, due to the improved operating results of several of our largest joint-venture markets. Operating margin expanded 550 basis points for the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, primarily driven by lower cost of sales including occupancy costs and lower store operating expenses as a percentage of total net revenues.

Net revenues increased 4% and operating margin expanded 110 basis points for the second quarter of fiscal 2010. Both the net revenues and operating income increases were primarily due to the launch of VIA in the CPG channel, and to higher foodservice sales related to the launch of Seattle's Best Coffee® in Subway® locations throughout the US. Net revenues and operating margin were relatively flat for the first half of fiscal 2010.

Unallocated corporate operating loss decreased for the 13 weeks ended March 28, 2010 primarily due to $30 million of restructuring charges in the second quarter of fiscal 2009 and no related expense in the current year, partially offset by a $22 million increase in general and administrative expenses. Nearly half of the increase in general and administrative expenses was due to higher performance-based compensation in fiscal 2010. Unallocated corporate operating loss was relatively flat for the 26 weeks ended March 28, 2010, with a $49 million decrease in restructuring expenses being offset by an $53 million increase in general and administrative expenses. Approximately one third of the increase in general and administrative expenses was driven by market value appreciation of the liability balances in the MDCP, as discussed above, and about one quarter was due to higher performance-based compensation in fiscal 2010.

Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources

Starbucks existing cash and short-term investments were $1.3 billion and $666 million as of March 28, 2010 and September 27, 2009, respectively.

We actively manage our cash and short-term investments in order to internally fund operating needs, make scheduled interest and principal payments on our borrowings and fund our dividend payments. For the first half of fiscal 2010, we did not have any short-term borrowings under our credit facility or commercial paper program.

Included in the cash and short-term investment balances are the following:

A portfolio of unrestricted trading securities, designed to hedge our liability under the MDCP. The value of this portfolio was $50 million and $45 million as of March 28, 2010 and September 27, 2009, respectively. The increase was primarily driven by increases in market values of the underlying equity funds.

Unrestricted cash and short-term securities held within our wholly owned captive insurance company to fund claim payouts. The value of these holdings was approximately $23 million and $12 million as of March 28, 2010 and September 27, 2009, respectively. As of March 28, 2010, we had $428 million invested in available-for-sale securities. Included in available-for-sale securities were $51 million of auction rate securities ( ARS ), compared with $56 million of ARS held as of September 27, 2009. While the ongoing auction failures will limit the liquidity of these ARS investments for some period of time, we do not believe the auction failures will materially impact our ability to fund our working capital needs, capital expenditures or other business requirements.

Credit rating agencies currently rate our borrowings as follows:

Description	Standard & Poor's	Moody's
Short-term debt	A-2	P-3
Senior unsecured long-term debt	BBB	Baa3
Outlook	Positive	Positive

In March 2010, Standard & Poor's revised and upgraded its outlook on Starbucks credit rating to positive from stable primarily due to the Company's improved operating performance in the first quarter of fiscal 2010 and Standard & Poor's expectation of continued improvement during the remainder of fiscal 2010. The rating agency affirmed the BBB corporate credit rating and A-2 short term rating. Moody's Investor Service affirmed the Baa3 senior unsecured rating and P-3 short-term debt rating in April 2010. In addition, Moody's changed Starbucks outlook to positive from stable primarily due to the revitalization and cost savings initiatives undertaken by the Company.

Our credit facility contains provisions requiring us to maintain compliance with certain covenants, including a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio. As of March 28, 2010 and September 27, 2009, we were in compliance with each of these covenants. The $550 million of 10-year 6.25% Senior Notes also require us to maintain compliance with certain covenants, including limits on future liens and sale and leaseback transactions on certain material properties. As of March 28, 2010 and September 27, 2009, we were in compliance with each of these covenants.

We expect to use our cash and short-term investments, including any potential future borrowings under the credit facility and commercial paper program to invest in our core businesses, including new product innovations, as well as other new business opportunities related to our core businesses. Other than normal operating expenses, approximately one half of cash requirements for the remainder of fiscal 2010 are expected to consist primarily of systems and technology investments in stores and the support infrastructure, one third for capital expenditures for the remodeling and refurbishment of, and equipment upgrades for, existing Company-operated retail stores, and the remaining primarily on new Company-operated stores. Total capital expenditures are expected to be approximately $500 million for fiscal 2010. We believe that cash flow generated from operations and existing cash and short-term investments should be sufficient to finance capital requirements for our core businesses for the foreseeable future. Significant new joint ventures, acquisitions and/or other new business opportunities may require additional outside funding.

Edgar Filing: STARBUCKS CORP - Form 10-Q

In March 2010, Starbucks declared a cash dividend to shareholders. This first ever quarterly dividend was paid on April 23, 2010, to shareholders of record on the close of business on April 7, 2010. The dividend paid was $0.10 per share for a total payout of $75 million. While future dividends will be subject to Board of Directors approval, we are initially targeting a dividend payout ratio of approximately 35% to 40% of net income. The Company's Board of Directors has also authorized the repurchase of an additional 15 million shares of our common stock, bringing the total authorized amount to approximately 21 million shares. We did not repurchase any shares during the second quarter of fiscal 2010 under our share repurchase authorizations.

We may use our available cash resources to make proportionate capital contributions to our equity method and cost method investees. Any decisions to increase ownership interest in our equity method investees or licensed operations will be driven by valuation and fit with our ownership strategy and are likely to be infrequent.

Cash provided by operating activities increased by $243 million to $958 million for the first half of fiscal 2010 compared to the corresponding period of fiscal 2009. The increase was primarily due to higher net earnings for the period. Cash used by investing activities for the first half of fiscal 2010 totaled $530 million as we invested a portion of our available cash balances in government and investment grade corporate securities. Capital additions to property, plant and equipment totaled $184 million, primarily from remodeling and renovating existing Company-operated retail stores, opening new retail stores, and investment in information technology systems.

Cash provided by financing activities for the first half of fiscal 2010 totaled $69 million. As of March 28, 2010, a total of $15 million in letters of credit were outstanding under our revolving credit facility, leaving $985 million of capacity available under the $1 billion combined commercial paper program and revolving credit facility.

Contractual Obligations

There have been no material changes during the period covered by this 10-Q, outside of the ordinary course of our business, to the contractual obligations specified in the table of contractual obligations included in the section Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations included in the 10-K.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Our off-balance sheet arrangements relate to certain guarantees and are detailed in Note 14 in this 10-Q.

Commodity Prices, Availability and General Risk Conditions

Commodity price risk represents our primary market risk, generated by our purchases of green coffee and dairy products, among other items. We purchase, roast and sell high quality whole bean arabica coffee and related products and risk arises from the price volatility of green coffee. In addition to coffee, we also purchase significant amounts of dairy products to support the needs of our Company-operated retail stores. The price and availability of these commodities directly impact our results of operations and can be expected to impact future results of operations. For additional details see Product Supply in Item 1, as well as Risk Factors in Item 1A of the 10-K.

Seasonality and Quarterly Results

Our business is subject to seasonal fluctuations, including fluctuations resulting from the holiday season. Our cash flows from operations are considerably higher in the first fiscal quarter than the remainder of the year. This is largely driven by cash received as Starbucks Cards are purchased and loaded during the holiday season. Since revenues from the Starbucks Card are recognized upon redemption and not when purchased, seasonal fluctuations on the consolidated statements of earnings are much less pronounced. Quarterly results are affected by the timing of the opening of new stores and the closing of existing stores. For these reasons, results for any quarter are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be achieved for the full fiscal year.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

See Note 1 in this 10-Q.

Item 3. *Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

There has been no material change in the commodity price risk, foreign currency exchange risk, equity security price risk, or interest rate risk discussed in Item 7A of the 10-K.

Item 4.     *Controls and Procedures

The Company maintains disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that material information required to be disclosed in our periodic reports filed or submitted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Our disclosure controls and procedures are also designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports we file or submit under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to Starbucks management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

During the second quarter Starbucks carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including the principal executive officer and the principal financial officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act. Based upon that evaluation, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective, as of the end of the period covered by this report (March 28, 2010).

During the second quarter of fiscal 2010, there were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act) that materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect internal control over financial reporting.

The certifications required by Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 are filed as exhibits 31.1 and 31.2, respectively, to this 10-Q.

PART II   OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1.     *Legal Proceedings

See discussion of Legal Proceedings in Note 14 of this 10-Q.

Item 1A.    *Risk Factors

There have been no material changes to the risk factors previously disclosed in the 10-K.

Item 2.     *Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

Starbucks did not repurchase any shares during the second quarter of fiscal 2010. As of the end of the quarter, the maximum number of shares that may yet be purchased under our stock repurchase plans was 21,272,128 shares. The Board of Directors initially authorized the repurchase of 25 million shares of common stock (publicly announced on May 3, 2007) and later authorized additional repurchases of up to five million additional shares (publicly announced on January 30, 2008) and fifteen million shares (publicly announced March 24, 2010). These authorizations have no expiration date.
