Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The validity of the Common Stock to be registered hereby will be passed upon for the Company by Todd Walker, the Company's Executive Vice President, General Counsel, and Secretary. As of the date hereof, Mr. Walker beneficially owns 59,140 shares of Common Stock, which includes 55,000 shares of Common Stock issuable within 60 days of the date hereof upon the exercise of stock options.

Item 6. Indemnification of Officers and Directors

Our Amended and Restated Certificate of Formation and Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by the Texas Business Organizations Code (the TBOC), as it may be amended from time to time, and any other applicable law, no director of AMERISAFE, Inc. shall be personally liable to the Company or its shareholders for any act or omission occurring in the performance of the director's duties as a director.

Under Section 8.101 of the TBOC, subject to the procedures and limitations stated therein, we may indemnify a director or officer (a governing person) who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding because the governing person is or was a governing person of the Company or serving in such capacity with respect to another entity at the Company's request, against judgments, court costs, penalties, excise and similar taxes, fines, settlements, and reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred by the governing person in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the governing person seeking indemnification:

reasonably believed, when acting in his or her official capacity, that his or her conduct was in the best interests of the Company, and, when not acting in such capacity, believed that his or her conduct was not opposed to the best interests of the Company; and in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

We are required by Section 8.051 of the TBOC to indemnify a governing person against reasonable expenses actually incurred by the governing person in connection with a proceeding in which the governing person is a named defendant or respondent because the governing person is or was in that position if the governing person has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of the proceeding. The TBOC prohibits us from indemnifying a governing person in respect of a proceeding in which the person is found liable to us or on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received by the governing person, other than reasonable expenses actually incurred by the governing person in connection with the proceeding; provided, that the TBOC further prohibits us from indemnifying a governing person in respect of any such proceeding in which the person is found liable for willful or intentional misconduct in the performance of the governing person's duties, breach of the governing person's duty of loyalty to the Company, or an act or omission not committed in good faith that constitutes a breach of duty owed by the governing person to the Company.

Under Section 8.052 of the TBOC, a court of competent jurisdiction may order us to indemnify a governing person to the extent the court determines that the governing person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances; however, if the governing person is found liable to us or is found liable on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received by the governing person, the indemnification will be limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the governing person in connection with the proceeding.
