TELECOM ARGENTINA S.A.

Summary of the resolutions passed by the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting held on November 30, 2010

All resolutions of the Meeting were approved by a majority of the computable votes, after deducting the voluntary abstentions from the calculation basis.

The resolutions approved upon consideration of each of the items of the Agenda are the following:

1°) Appointment of two shareholders to approve and sign the Minutes.

The delegation to the Chairman of the Meeting to appoint two shareholders to approve and sign the Minutes of the Meeting was approved. Mr. Franco Alfredo Pablo Livini, representative of Nortel Inversora S.A., and Mr. Fernando Ledesma Padilla, representative of JP Morgan Chase Bank, National Association Buenos Aires Branch, Depositary Bank of the American Depositary Receipts of the Company, were appointed for this matter.

2°) Amendment of Article Ten of the Corporate Bylaws, so as to: (i) increase the maximum number of members of the Board of Directors from nine to eleven; (ii) increase the term of office of the directors to three fiscal years; (iii) eliminate the option to elect two Vice-Chairmen; and (iv) clarify that, if there is any tie in a vote at a Board of Directors meeting, where the Vice-Chairman replaces the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman shall NOT have the Chairman's power to cast two votes. Appointment of the persons charged with applying for approval and registration of the amendment to the Bylaws.

The amendment of Article Ten of the Corporate Bylaws was approved as the Board of Directors proposed (see attached) and the persons charged with applying for approval and registration of the amendment were designated.

The meeting was attended by Mrs. Maria Inés Pont Lezica on behalf of the Comisión Nacional de Valores and Mr. Alejandro Romano on behalf of the Buenos Aires Stock Exchange.

Article Ten of the Company's Bylaws approved at the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting held on November 30, 2010:

Section 10: The Company is managed and administered by a Board of Directors consisting of such number of members as determined at the shareholders' meeting, which must be no less than three and no more than eleven. Such members hold office for the term of three fiscal years. At the shareholders' meeting, the shareholders must designate the same or a lesser number of alternate members for the same term in order to fill any vacant member position which may arise, following the order or method indicated at the meeting, notwithstanding the provisions of section 11 hereof. At their first meeting, directors shall designate a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman. The Vice-Chairman shall replace the Chairman in case of the latter's absence or inability to act as such. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held once every three months and at any time the Board of Directors so decides. The meetings of the Board of Directors must be called with no less than twelve-calendar days' notice to deal with ordinary matters and upon no less than three-calendar days' notice for urgent matters. For such purpose, the Chairman, or Vice-Chairman in case the Vice-Chairman is replacing the Chairman, shall give notice to members of the Board at their special domiciles by certified mail, acknowledgment of receipt requested, or by any other effective means, including by telex. Such notice must state the date, time and place of the meeting as well as the agenda thereof. Prior notice for such meetings shall not be necessary if all of the members of the Board of Directors are present. The Board of Directors can only hold a meeting if a majority of its members, who shall constitute a quorum, are in attendance and may pass resolutions by a plurality vote of those members present. In case of a tie vote, the Chairman shall have two votes. If there is a tie in a vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors, where the Vice-Chairman replaces the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman shall not have two votes. The Board of Directors may also hold meetings with its members attending via video or teleconference, in which case both physical and remote attendance shall be considered for the purpose of establishing a quorum. The minutes of these meetings shall be prepared and signed by the attending directors and members of the supervisory committee within five (5) days from the date the meeting is held. The members of the Supervisory Committee must expressly indicate in the minutes the names of those directors participating remotely and the legitimacy of the decisions made during the meeting. The minutes shall also include the statements of those directors physically present as well as of those made by remote attendees and the votes cast thereby in respect of each resolution adopted. The Shareholders' Meeting shall determine the compensation of the Board of Directors. Under the terms of section 270 of Law 19,550, the Board of Directors may designate the General Manager (CEO) as well as special managers (special executive officers) who are not required to be Company Directors .
