Gary s Greeting

Happy New Year!

Every year, many of us come up with New Year s resolutions. Even if you don t, you have to admit, it s always exciting to make plans for the future. That is especially so if one has past successes to build upon. That s exactly where we find Southwest Airlines as we contemplate a very exciting 2011: our 40th anniversary. While we have many new things planned for 2011, our much anticipated acquisition of AirTran Airways, which was announced on September 27, tops the list. For the latest news on the transaction, please visit our web site, lowfaresfarther.com.

We re excited because this acquisition creates significant growth opportunities for both airlines in an environment where growth has been painfully absent. However, thanks to lower costs and fares, growth is possible, pure and simple.

Of course, this means more jobs and career opportunities for our combined Employee groups as a whole. Growth offers Customers more low-fare destinations as we extend our network and diversify into new markets, including significant opportunities to and from Atlanta, the busiest airport in the United States and the largest domestic market we do not serve, as well as Washington, D.C., via Ronald Reagan National Airport. The acquisition also allows us to expand our presence in key markets like New York LaGuardia, Boston Logan, Baltimore/Washington, and Milwaukee. It presents us with the opportunity to grow our service to many smaller domestic cities that we don t serve today and, in many cases, are not well-served by other airlines. Plus, it provides access to key near-international leisure markets in the Caribbean and Mexico. The acquisition allows us to better respond to the economic and competitive challenges of our industry and fits perfectly within our strategy for our fifth decade of service. Finally, this deal has the potential to boost profits and financial returns on capital.

This isn t a done deal just yet because closing is subject to the approval of AirTran stockholders, receipt of certain regulatory clearances, and fulfillment of customary closing conditions (see page 22 for details). You can be assured, though, it tops our list of resolutions for the New Year: To get this deal closed!

So, on behalf of the entire Southwest Family, we wish you a very happy and prosperous New Year!

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These include statements relating to Southwest's expectations with respect to the acquisition of AirTran. These forward-looking statements are based on Southwest's current intent, expectations, and projections and are not guarantees of future performance. These statements involve risks, uncertainties, assumptions, and other factors that are difficult to predict and that could cause actual results to vary materially from those expressed in or indicated by them. Factors include, among others, the possibility that the transaction is delayed or does not close, including due to the inability of Southwest and AirTran to obtain all approvals necessary or the failure of other closing conditions.

Southwest cautions that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. Additional information concerning these and other risks is contained in Southwest's and AirTran's most recently filed Annual Reports on Form 10-K, subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, recent Current Reports on Form 8-K, and other SEC filings. Southwest undertakes no obligation to publicly update any of these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date hereof.
