Item 1.02 Termination of Material Definitive Agreement.

ICO Global Communications (Holdings) Limited (the Company) and Eagle River, Inc. (ERI) mutually agreed to terminate the Advisory Services Agreement that was entered into on November 11, 2005 (the Advisory Services Agreement). The termination is effective as of July 11, 2011.

The termination of the Advisory Services Agreement relieves the Company of the obligation to pay ERI an annual advisory fee of $500,000, which the Company has historically paid in quarterly installments on the first day of each calendar quarter through issuance to ERI of Class A Common stock. The termination also relieves the Company of the obligation to reimburse ERI for expenses incurred following the date of termination in connection with the performance of the Advisory Services Agreement. The Company was not required to make any payments to ERI as a result of the termination of the Advisory Services Agreement.

ERI is the Company's controlling stockholder with an economic interest, based on Common Stock outstanding as of December 31, 2010, of approximately 33.6% and a voting interest, based on Common Stock outstanding as of December 31, 2010, of approximately 65.8%.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

The Company hired Robert Mechaley commencing on July 5, 2011 (the Effective Date) to serve as its chief scientist. The Company has agreed to pay Mr. Mechaley an annual base salary of $300,000. He will also be eligible for a bonus targeted at 50% of his base salary. In addition, Mr. Mechaley will be granted options to purchase 350,000 shares of the Company's Class A common stock at the market price of such stock at the close of business on July 15, 2011. These options will vest and become exercisable over a four-year period, beginning with the Effective Date, in accordance with the standard vesting provisions of the Company's stock incentive plan. The Company also issued to Mr. Mechaley 350,000 shares of restricted Class A Common Stock, twenty-five percent (25%) of which will vest on the occurrence of each of the following four events: (i) when the Company's trailing 12-month net income reaches $50 million; (ii) when the Company's trailing 12-month net income reaches $100 million; (iii) when the average closing share price of the Company's Class A Common Stock for any 20 consecutive trading days is $4.50 or higher; and (iv) when the average closing share price of the Company's Class A Common Stock for any 20 consecutive trading days is $6.00 or higher (collectively, the Performance Vesting Conditions).

In connection with Mr. Mechaley's employment, the Board appointed Mr. Mechaley as a vice president, with the title chief scientist.

From 2001 through early 2011, Mr. Mechaley was a partner in ERI. In 2003, he co-founded Clearwire Corporation, where he served as chief technology officer and later vice-chairman through 2008. Prior to his work for Clearwire, he was chief scientist at AT&T Wireless from 1992 through 1996.

The Company hired Mark Fanning to serve as its chief people officer as of the Effective Date. The Company has agreed to pay Mr. Fanning an annual base salary of $250,000. He will also be eligible for a bonus targeted at 50% of his base salary. In addition, Mr. Fanning will be granted options to purchase 150,000 shares of the Company's Class A common stock at the market price of such stock at the close of business on July 15, 2011. These options will vest and become exercisable over a four-year period, beginning with the Effective Date, in accordance with the standard vesting provisions of the Company's stock incentive plan. The Company also issued to Mr. Fanning 150,000 shares of restricted Class A Common Stock, subject to the Performance Vesting Conditions.

In connection with his employment, the Board appointed Mr. Fanning as a vice president, with the title chief people officer.

From 2007 through 2009, Mr. Fanning served as Vice President of People Development for Clearwire Corporation. From 1999 to 2005 he served as Vice-President of People Development with Nextel Partners. Prior to his work with Nextel Partners, he served as Director and later Vice-President of People Development for AT&T Wireless and McCaw Cellular.

The Company hired Timothy Dozois as an employee to serve as corporate counsel and corporate secretary as of the Effective Date. The Company has agreed to pay Mr. Dozois an annual base salary of $250,000. He will also be eligible for a bonus targeted at 33% of his base salary. In addition, Mr. Dozois will be granted options to purchase 150,000 shares of the Company's Class A common stock at the market price of such stock at the close of business on July 15, 2011. These options will vest and become exercisable over a four-year period, beginning June 17, 2011, in accordance with the standard vesting provisions of the Company's stock incentive plan. The Company also issued to Mr. Dozois 150,000 shares of restricted Class A Common Stock, subject to the Performance Vesting Conditions.

In connection with Mr. Dozois' employment, the Company terminated its engagement agreement with Zupancic Rathbone Law Group, Inc. (ZR), the law firm through which Mr. Dozois provided services to the Company prior to his employment by the Company. The Company was not required to make any payments to ZR as a result of the termination.

The Company amended and restated its employment agreement with Benjamin G. Wolff as of July 11, 2011 in connection with Mr. Wolff's resignation from ERI and its affiliates and his agreement to devote full time services to the Company. The Company increased Mr. Wolff's annual base salary to $750,000. He also remains eligible for a bonus targeted at 100% of his base salary. In addition, Mr. Wolff will be granted options to purchase 950,000 shares of the Company's Class A common stock at the market price of such stock at the close of business on July 15, 2011. These options will vest and become exercisable over a four-year period, beginning June 17, 2011, in accordance with the standard vesting provisions of the Company's stock incentive plan. The Company also issued to Mr. Wolff 950,000 shares of restricted Class A Common Stock, subject to the Performance Vesting Conditions.

The Company amended and restated its employment agreement with R. Gerard Salemmé as of July 11, 2011 in connection with Mr. Salemmé's resignation from ERI and its affiliates and his agreement to devote full time services to the Company. The Company increased Mr. Salemmé's annual base salary to $400,000. He will also be eligible for a bonus targeted at 100% of his base salary. In addition, Mr. Salemmé will be granted options to purchase 700,000 shares of the Company's Class A common stock at the market price of such stock at the close of business on July 15, 2011. These options will vest and become exercisable over a four-year period, beginning June 17, 2011, in accordance with the standard vesting provisions of the Company's stock incentive plan. The Company also issued to Mr. Salemmé 700,000 shares of restricted Class A Common Stock, subject to the Performance Vesting Conditions.
