Item 1. Security and Issuer.

This Schedule 13D (Amendment No. 12) relates to shares of the common stock, par value $.01 per share (Common Stock) of Phoenix Footwear Group, Inc. (the Issuer) and amends and supplements Schedule 13D (Amendment No. 11) filed on December 8, 2010, by James R. Riedman and Riedman Corporation (together, the Reporting Persons). The Issuer s principal executive office is located at 5937 Darwin Court, Suite 109, Carlsbad, California 92008.

Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following description:

On July 21, 2011, the Issuer entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the Securities Purchase Agreement) with Greenwood Capital Limited Partnership and Greenwood Investors Limited Partnership (collectively, the Investors). The Investors are affiliates of and managed by Greenwood Investments, Inc. (Greenwood), their sole general partner. Steven Tannenbaum is the President of Greenwood (the Investors, Greenwood and Mr. Tannenbaum are referred to collectively herein as the Greenwood Parties). The Greenwood Parties were existing beneficial owners of in excess of 5% of the issued and outstanding common stock of the Issuer prior to the transaction. The Securities Purchase Agreement provided for the sale of $1,000,000 of subordinated secured 1% convertible promissory notes (the Notes) by the Issuer to the Investors. This summary of the Securities Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Securities Purchase Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 99.2, and incorporated by reference to this Item 4.

As required under the terms of the transaction, the board of directors approved the Amended and Restated By-Laws of the Issuer, effective as of July 19, 2011, to 1) eliminate the restriction on stockholders ability to act by written consent in lieu of a meeting with less than unanimous consent; 2) permit holders of at least 15% of the outstanding stock eligible to vote at a meeting to call a special meeting of stockholders; and 3) incorporate the reduction of the size of the board of directors from 7 to 4 directors made pursuant to the by-laws in a prior resolution of the board of directors. Previously, the Issuer s stockholders were expressly prohibited from acting by written consent, and special meetings were permitted to be called only by the Chairman of the board of directors, or an officer in his absence, or the board of directors.

The Reporting Persons entered into a Voting Agreement on July 21, 2011, with the Issuer and the Greenwood Parties (the Voting Agreement), pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement. The Voting Agreement requires the Reporting Persons to vote all of their beneficially owned securities in favor of the election of one person designated by the Greenwood Parties to the Issuer s board of directors. It also requires the Greenwood Parties to vote all of their beneficially owned securities in favor of the election of one person designated by the Reporting Persons to serve on the Issuer s board of directors. Further, the Voting Agreement requires the Greenwood Parties and the Reporting Persons to vote in favor of proposals to 1) increase the number of authorized shares of the Issuer s common stock from time to time to ensure that there will be sufficient shares of common stock available for conversion of all of the Notes at any time; 2) ensure that the size of the board of directors shall be set and remain at four directors until the Issuer s annual meeting of stockholders held in 2011 or 2012, on which date the size of the board shall be reduced and set and remain at three (3) directors; 3) amend the Issuer s certificate of incorporation so that the stockholders of the Issuer s shall have the ability to act by written consent in lieu of a meeting to fullest extent permissible under Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the Amendment); and 4) approve the Issuer s 2011 Long-Term Incentive Plan. The Greenwood Parties terminate as parties and cease to have any rights under the Voting Agreement at such time as Mr. Tannenbaum and his affiliates beneficially own fewer than ten percent (10%) of the shares of the Issuer s common stock outstanding. The Reporting Persons terminate as parties and cease to have any rights under the Voting Agreement at such time as Mr. Riedman and his affiliates beneficially own fewer than ten percent (10%) of the shares of the Issuer s common stock outstanding. This summary of the Voting Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Voting Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 99.3, and incorporated by reference to this Item 4.

Table of Contents

In addition to the sale of the Notes, and entry into the Voting Agreement the Securities Purchase Agreement also required that the parties enter into an Investors Agreement (the Investors Agreement), which provides among other things, registration rights, protective provisions, participation rights on new security issuances of the Issuer, and a standstill whereby the Reporting Persons and the Greenwood Parties agree not to acquire additional shares of the Issuer without director approval. Under the Investors Agreement the Issuer may not take certain actions without the approval of Greenwood, including but not limited to: increase or decrease its authorized capital stock, or authorize new classes or series of capital stock or securities convertible into common stock; amend its certificate of incorporation or by-laws; enter into a merger or sell all or substantially all of the properties or assets of the Issuer and its subsidiaries; dissolve; declare or pay any dividend; issue or obligate itself to issue any security, other than shares of common stock, except upon certain outstanding obligations; redeem any shares; increase or decrease the authorized size of the Board of Directors, except as expressly contemplated by the Voting Agreement; acquire all or any portion of any business or product line; enter into any material joint ventures, strategic alliances, or major partnerships; incur of any indebtedness outside the ordinary course of business other than under the Issuer s existing loan agreement with the Issuer s senior lenders, Gibraltar Business Capital, LLC, and Westran Industrial Loan Co. LLC; hire, terminate, or increase the compensation of James R. Riedman and any other person holding the position of chief executive of the Issuer; approve or authorize any transaction or series of related transactions outside the ordinary course of business involving $250,000 or more. This summary of the Investors Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Investors Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 99.4, and incorporated by reference to this Item 4.

As a result of entering into the Voting Agreement, the Reporting Persons and the Greenwood Parties may be deemed to be a group within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Act. The Reporting Persons expressly disclaim group status within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3), and the inclusion of shares of common stock referred to in this Schedule 13D attributable to the Greenwood Parties shall not be deemed to be an admission of group status for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Act or for any other purpose.
