Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition

Publix Super Markets, Inc. (the Company) is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 25, 2011 within the prescribed time period because, in response to an open comment from the SEC Division of Corporation Finance staff, the Company is evaluating whether the fair value of the shares of common stock held by the Company's Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) should be classified in temporary equity rather than permanent equity in its condensed consolidated balance sheet. Because of the expected length of time it will take the Company to complete its evaluation of this matter and appropriately communicate with the SEC Division of Corporation Finance staff, the Company has determined it will not be able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 25, 2011 within the five-day extension period provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Consequently, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is unable to complete its review of the interim financial statements to be included in the Form 10-Q.

The Company believes it is important to issue to its stockholders the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements with accompanying notes and management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations for the three and six months ended June 25, 2011 as attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. In the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets, the Company has classified the fair value of the shares of common stock held by the Company's ESOP currently redeemable under a 15-month put option as temporary equity; however, the ultimate accounting for temporary and permanent equity could be affected by the resolution of the SEC comment applicable to this matter. The Company will file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 25, 2011 as soon as reasonably practicable after the above matter is resolved.

The foregoing information, including Exhibit 99.1, is being furnished under Item 2.02 and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is not incorporated by reference into any filing of the Company, whether made before or after the date hereof, regardless of any general incorporation language in such filing.
