Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 14, 2013, Whirlpool Corporation, Whirlpool S.A., Whirlpool's Brazilian subsidiary (collectively "Whirlpool"), and Jose A. Drummond, Executive Vice President and President, Whirlpool Europe, Middle East and Africa, entered into a Business Confidentiality, Non Competition and Other Covenants Agreement (the "Agreement").

Under the Agreement, Mr. Drummond will resign from his position as an executive officer of Whirlpool Corporation, on May 1, 2013 and will continue to serve as President of the Board of Whirlpool, S.A., until December 30, 2013 (the "Transition Period"). The Agreement calls for continuation of his monthly base salary of 127,692 reais (approximately U.S. $65,050) and benefits through the Transition Period. Mr. Drummond will not be eligible for any incentive compensation for the 2013 performance period and at the end of the Transition Period, he will forfeit his invested stock options, restricted stock units, and performance cash awards.

Under the Agreement, Mr. Drummond agrees, among other things, to refrain from (a) engaging in any activity which may be in conflict with Whirlpool's interests, including the manufacturing, distribution, sales, import, export and rendering of services related to products of the same type as Whirlpool products, and (b) soliciting any employee or representative of Whirlpool, or otherwise interfering in any business relationship of Whirlpool, through April 30, 2015. He further agrees to release Whirlpool, its subsidiaries and affiliates from all claims arising out of or related to his relationship with Whirlpool. In consideration for these commitments, Mr. Drummond will receive a lump sum cash payment of 2,170,764 reais, equivalent to seventeen months of base salary, (approximately U.S. $1,110,000). In addition, for a period of up to twelve months following the Transition Period or until he commences employment with another employer, whichever occurs first, Mr. Drummond will remain eligible for continuation of medical, dental and life insurance benefits.

Under Brazilian law and the terms of his existing employment agreement, Mr. Drummond is entitled to severance compensation and benefits, consisting of (a) a statutory payment of 471,042 reais (approximately U.S. $240,000) (b) a contribution of 546,184 reais (approximately U.S. $278,000), to Fundo de Garantia do Tempo De Servico, a government severance indemnity fund, on behalf of Mr. Drummond; and (c) a lump sum cash payment of 1,660,000 reais equivalent to thirteen months of base salary (approximately U.S. $850,000). Mr. Drummond will continue to be entitled to tax services and tax equalization payments related to his European assignment pursuant to the terms of his expatriate arrangement.

The above description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to a translation of the Agreement filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1, which is incorporated herein by reference.
