PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors (Board) of Universal Insurance Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Company, we or us), of proxies to be voted at the 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (Annual Meeting) of the Company, to be held at the Omni Hilton Head Oceanfront Resort, 23 Ocean Lane, Hilton Head, South Carolina 29928, on Thursday, June 6, 2013 at 9:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time, and at any and all postponements or adjournments thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting.

A copy of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012, including financial statements audited by Blackman Kallick, LLP and Plante & Moran, PLLC, is included. This Proxy Statement, Notice of Annual Meeting, accompanying proxy card and Annual Report are first expected to be posted together to www.universalinsuranceholdings.com/SEC-Filing on or about April 24, 2013.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MEETING AND VOTING

1. What is a proxy?

It is your legal designation of another person to vote the stock you own. That other person is called a proxy. If you designate someone as your proxy in a written document, that document also is called a proxy or a proxy card. We have designated George R. De Heer as proxy for the Annual Meeting.

2. What is a proxy statement?

It is a document that Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) regulations require us to give you when we ask you to sign a proxy card designating George R. De Heer as proxy to vote on your behalf.

3. What is the difference between holding shares as a shareholder and as a beneficial shareholder?

If your shares are registered directly in your name with our registrar and transfer agent, Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, you are considered a shareholder of record with respect to those shares.

If your shares are held in a brokerage account or bank, you are considered the beneficial owner of those shares.

Table of Contents

4. How do I attend the meeting? What do I need to bring?

You need to bring a photo ID to gain admission.

If you are a beneficial owner, bring your most recent brokerage statement with you to the Annual Meeting. We can use that to verify your ownership of shares and admit you to the Annual Meeting; however, you will not be able to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting without a legal proxy, as described in response to question 5.

Please note that cameras and sound or video recording equipment will not be allowed in the meeting room.

5. How can I vote at the meeting if I am a beneficial owner?

You will need to ask your broker, bank or other intermediary to furnish you with a legal proxy. You will need to bring the legal proxy with you to the Annual Meeting and hand it in with a signed ballot that will be provided to you at the Annual Meeting. You will not be able to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting without a legal proxy.

Please note that if you request a legal proxy, any previously executed proxy will be revoked and your vote will not be counted unless you appear at the Annual Meeting and vote in person or legally appoint another proxy to vote on your behalf.

If you do not receive the legal proxy in time, you can follow the procedures described in the response to question 4 to gain admission to the Annual Meeting; however, you will not be able to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting.

6. What different methods can I use to vote?

By Written Proxy: All shareholders can vote by written proxy card. If you are a beneficial owner, you will receive a written proxy card or a voting instruction form from your broker, bank or other intermediary.

In Person: All shareholders of record may vote in person at the Annual Meeting. Beneficial owners may vote in person at the Annual Meeting if they have a legal proxy, as described in response to question 5.

7. What is the record date and what does it mean?

The record date for the Annual Meeting is April 17, 2013. The record date is established by the Board as required by the Delaware General Corporation Law and the Company's bylaws. Owners of record at the close of business on the record date are entitled to:

receive notice of the Annual Meeting; and vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the Annual Meeting.

Table of Contents8. What securities will be voted at the Annual Meeting?

The securities to be voted at the Annual Meeting consist of (i) shares of common stock of the Company, $0.01 par value per share (Common Stock), with each share entitling its record owner to one vote, (ii) shares of Series M Preferred Stock of the Company, $0.01 par value per share (Series M Preferred Stock), with each share entitling its record owner to one vote and (iii) shares of Series A Preferred Stock of the Company, $0.01 par value per share (Series A Preferred Stock), with each share entitling its record owner to one vote. The holders of Series M Preferred Stock, voting separately as a series, are entitled to elect two directors. The holders of 90% of the outstanding shares of Series M Preferred Stock have advised us that they currently do not intend to exercise their right to elect two directors at the Annual Meeting. While the holders of the Series M Preferred Stock have not submitted any director nominees for inclusion in this Proxy Statement, such holders retain the right to elect two directors at the Annual Meeting. The holders of Common Stock, Series M Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock, voting together as one class, are entitled to elect the remaining directors.

The table below sets forth the number and classes of Company stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Class of Voting Stock	Number of Record	Number of Shares	Amount of Votes Entitled to Be Cast as of the Record Date
	Holders as of the Record Date	Outstanding as of the Record Date
Common Stock	49	39,694,948	39,694,948
Series M Preferred Stock	4	87,740	87,740
Series A Preferred Stock	2	19,950	19,950

The Company had no other voting securities outstanding on the record date.

9. What shares are included on the proxy card?

Shareholders of Common Stock, Series A Preferred Stock and Series M Preferred Stock will receive one proxy card for all of the shares of Common Stock, Series A Preferred Stock and Series M Preferred Stock that they hold in certificate form and/or in book-entry form.

10. What constitutes a quorum at the Annual Meeting?

The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of the Series M Preferred Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting for those matters where a separate vote of the Series M Preferred Stock is required, and of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of the Common Stock, Series M Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting for those matters where the Common Stock, Series M Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock, voting together as a class, is required, is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. If a quorum is not present at the Annual Meeting, a majority of the shares so represented may vote to adjourn the Annual Meeting from time to time without further notice.

Table of Contents

11. What can I do if I change my mind after I vote my shares?

Shareholders can revoke a proxy prior to the completion of voting at the Annual Meeting by:

sending written notice to Stephen J. Donaghy, Secretary, Universal Insurance Holdings, Inc., 1110 West Commercial Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33309; delivering a later-dated proxy; or appearing at the Annual Meeting and giving the Secretary notice of your intention to vote in person (unless you are a beneficial owner without a legal proxy, as described in the response to question 5).

12. Are votes confidential? Who counts the votes?

We will continue our practice of holding the votes of all shareholders in confidence from directors, officers and employees except:

as necessary to meet applicable legal requirements and to assert or defend claims for or against the Company;

in the case of a contested proxy solicitation;

if a shareholder makes a written comment on the proxy card or otherwise communicates his or her vote to management; or to allow the independent inspector of the election to certify the results of the vote.

13. What votes can I cast for the proposals?

With respect to Proposal 1, you may either (i) vote in favor of all nominees; (ii) vote in favor of specific nominees; (iii) withhold your vote with respect to all nominees; or (iv) withhold your vote with respect to specific nominees;

With respect to Proposals 2, 3 and 4, you may vote For or Against, or Abstain from voting.

14. How many votes are needed for each proposal and how are the votes counted?

If a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting, the eight (8) nominees for election as directors who receive the greatest number of affirmative For votes at the meeting will be elected as directors (Item 1 on the Proxy Card).

The favorable vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal will be required:

FOR the approval of the amendment (Plan Amendment) to the Second Amended and Restated 2009 Omnibus Incentive Plan (Second Amended and Restated Plan) to add 3,000,000 shares of Common Stock to the reserve available for new awards (Item 2 on the Proxy Card);

FOR the approval of the material terms of the performance goals for performance bonuses in each of the employment agreements of the newly appointed President and Chief Executive Officer, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Chief Administrative Officer of the Company (Item 3 on the Proxy Card);

FOR the ratification of the appointment of Plante & Moran, PLLC as the independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year 2013 (Item 4 on the Proxy Card); and

FOR any other proposal that might properly come before the meeting.

15. What if I do not specify a choice for a matter when returning a proxy?

Shareholders should specify their choice for each matter on the enclosed proxy card. If no specific instructions are given, proxies which are signed and returned will be voted:

FOR the election of all director nominees as set forth in this Proxy Statement;

FOR the approval of the Plan Amendment;

FOR the approval of the material terms of the performance goals for performance bonuses in each of the employment agreements of the newly appointed President and Chief Executive Officer, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Chief Administrative Officer of the Company; and

FOR the ratification of the appointment of Plante & Moran, PLLC as the independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year 2013.

16. What are abstentions and broker non-votes and how are they counted?

Abstentions and broker non-votes are included in determining whether a quorum is present. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner (i.e., a broker) does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that particular matter and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Abstentions and broker non-votes are not considered votes cast and thus do not have an effect on the outcome of the vote as to any of the items presented in this Proxy Statement. Under the rules of the NYSE MKT LLC (NYSE MKT), on which shares of our Common Stock are traded, Item 4 is considered a routine matter on which brokers will be permitted to vote in their discretion even if the beneficial owners do not provide voting instructions. However, Items 1, 2 and 3 are not considered routine matters under NYSE MKT rules, and brokers will not be permitted to vote on Items 1, 2 and 3 if the beneficial owners fail to provide voting instructions.

17. Who pays the cost in connection with the solicitation of proxies?

We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies in the enclosed form. Officers and regular employees of the Company may solicit proxies by a further mailing or personal conversations or via telephone or facsimile, provided that they do not receive compensation for doing so. We will, upon request, reimburse brokerage firms and others for their reasonable expenses in forwarding solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock.

Committees and Corporate Governance

Board Leadership Structure

Our bylaws provide that the roles of Board Chairman and Chief Executive Officer may be filled by the same or different individuals, which provides the Board the flexibility to determine whether these roles should be combined or separated based on the Company's circumstances and needs at any given time. Due to the resignation of Bradley I. Meier on February 22, 2013, the Board does not have a Chairman at this time.

Independence of Our Directors

SEC and NYSE MKT rules require that at least a majority of our directors be independent of the Company and management. The Board has determined that each of the following current directors is an independent director, as such term is defined by SEC and NYSE MKT rules: Michael A. Pietrangelo, Ozzie A. Schindler, Reed J. Slogoff and Joel M. Wilentz, M.D. The Board has also determined that our new director nominees, Scott P. Callahan and Darryl L. Lewis, will be independent directors should they be elected at the Annual Meeting. The Board does not have a lead independent director.

In addition, each of the Compensation Committee, Audit Committee and Nominating and Governance Committee is composed exclusively of non-employee directors that meet the relevant independence requirements established by the NYSE MKT.

The Board's Role in Risk Oversight

The Board is responsible for ensuring that material risks are identified and managed appropriately. The Board and its committees regularly review material operational, financial, compensation and compliance risks with senior management. As part of its responsibilities as set forth in its charter, the Audit Committee is responsible for discussing with management our Company policies and guidelines to govern the process by which risk assessment and risk management are undertaken by management, including guidelines and policies to identify major financial risk exposures, and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures. The Audit Committee also performs a central oversight role with respect to financial and compliance risks, and reports on its findings at each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board. The Compensation Committee considers risk in connection with its design of compensation programs for our executives. The Nominating and Governance Committee assists in managing risk by annually reviewing the composition of the Board and its committees, including with regard to director independence, by assessing the adequacy of our corporate governance policies and procedures and by making recommendations to the Board, as appropriate, regarding modifications to such policies and procedures. The Investment Committee considers risks related to the investment of the Company's securities portfolio and reviews the performance of the portfolio, compliance with applicable state investment codes and regulations and adherence to the Company's investment strategy. Each committee regularly reports to the Board. In addition, each year the Board reviews our reinsurance program by which we cede insurance risk to reinsurers.

We also discuss the transition of Sean P. Downes from Chief Operating Officer to Chief Executive Officer and the appointments of Jon W. Springer as Chief Operating Officer and Stephen J. The Compensation Committee oversees our compensation program for our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Administrative Officer. The Compensation Committee also provides guidance to the Chief Executive Officer regarding his recommendations for the compensation of all other executive officers. In making its decisions, the Compensation Committee takes into account, among other things, the Company's performance, shareholder alignment, individual employee performance and the Company's executive succession and retention needs.

Original Employment Agreements with the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer

The Company entered into employment agreements with Mr. Meier, as Chief Executive Officer, and Mr. Downes, as Chief Operating Officer, several years ago, which agreements have been amended from time to time (Original Employment Agreements). The Original Employment Agreements were effective through February 22, 2013. The Original Employment Agreements established the base salary and annual performance incentives applicable to each executive and provided the principal framework for the cash compensation paid to Messrs. Meier and Downes for 2012. The Original Employment Agreements are more fully described below at Employment Agreements and Potential Payments Upon Termination of Employment or Change in Control.

At the time the Company entered into the Original Employment Agreements with Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes, it was creating and developing internal capabilities for underwriting, claims processing, premium setting, investing and reinsurance placement. The Company has continued to improve and refine those processes and, over the past few years, has expanded the states in which it writes homeowners insurance policies. In addition, as the Company s operations expanded, Messrs. Meier and Downes assumed more diverse functions within the Company. During 2012, in our judgment, Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes were the individuals most responsible for continued development and implementation of our business strategy and were the individuals most responsible for our accomplishments.

Our rationale for entering into the Original Employment Agreements with Messrs. Meier and Downes and their continuation includes the following:

Recognizing that in 2012, Messrs. Meier and Downes were our two key employees, responsible for many major business functions, including investment of reserves, regulatory compliance in multiple states, the processes for developing the proprietary models and the methods for underwriting, claims, reinsurance and investment as well as development of the broker network in Florida and other states;

Recognizing the unique and deep institutional knowledge of Messrs. Meier and Downes and their respective contributions in internalizing the Company s operations, including marketing strategies, agent incentive and management, policy development, risk management, claims, reinsurance analysis, rating engine, investment analysis and broker relations which enabled, among other things, the rapid mobilization of marketing programs in newly licensed states;

Rewarding past and continued performance in the establishment and profitable growth of the insurance business by Messrs. Meier and Downes;

Recognizing that, entering into 2012, the continued growth of the Company was dependent on the services of Messrs. Meier and Downes in their respective capacities as Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer; and Differentiating compensation based on experience, responsibilities and performance levels among our executives.

As noted above, the Original Employment Agreements established the compensation framework for each of Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes for 2012.

2012 Compensation Based on the Original Employment Agreements

Base Salary

The Original Employment Agreements with each of Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes contemplated an annual base salary increase of 20% each year. In 2012, Mr. Meier agreed to limit his annual salary increases to 7.25% for 2012, 2013 and 2014, and Mr. Downes agreed to limit his annual salary increases to 7.25% for years after 2012. These provisions in the Original Employment Agreements formed the basis for the salary increases for 2012 for each of Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes reported in the Summary Compensation Table below.

Incentive Bonus Compensation

The Original Employment Agreements entitle each of Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes to receive an annual incentive performance bonus equal to a specified percentage of the Company's pre-tax income. The Original Employment Agreements use pre-tax income because pre-tax income reflects the synthesis of the elements necessary to successfully operate and grow the Company's business and is a measure commonly used by investors to evaluate our operational success. The annual cash incentives paid to Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes for 2012 were $2,229,494 and $1,709,621, respectively.

Long-Term Equity Incentive Compensation

The Compensation Committee does not use a specific formula to calculate the number of options or restricted shares that it awards to executives nor does it explicitly set future award levels or opportunities on the basis of what the executives earned from prior awards. While the Compensation Committee takes past awards into account, it does not base future awards solely in view of those past awards. In determining the specific amounts to be granted to each employee, the Compensation Committee will consider factors such as the executive's position, his or her contribution to the Company's performance, and the overall package of cash and equity compensation for the executive.

Table of Contents

The Compensation Committee did not award any long-term incentive compensation to Mr. Meier or to Mr. De Heer for 2012. In 2012, the Compensation Committee awarded Mr. Downes two long-term incentive grants under the Second Amended and Restated Plan: a restricted stock grant in August 2012 covering 650,000 shares of Common Stock, and an option grant in September 2012 covering 500,000 shares of Common Stock. These grants are reported in the Summary Compensation Table below. These grants were intended to provide Mr. Downes with a greater equity ownership in the Company and, in part, to replace the 20% automatic increases in his base compensation contemplated by his Original Employment Agreement.

Perquisites and Fringe Benefits

Our executive officers receive health and welfare benefits, such as group medical, group life and long-term disability coverage. We provided an automobile allowance of $7,500 per annum to each of Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes during 2012. We believe that our executives should be able to provide for their retirement needs from the total annual compensation they earn based on the Company's performance. Accordingly, other than an employer matching contribution to the accounts of certain Named Executive Officers under the Company's 401(k) Plan (as defined herein), which is the same matching contribution rate that the Company provides all eligible full-time employees, the Company does not offer executives any qualified or nonqualified pension plans, supplemental executive retirement plans, deferred compensation plans or other forms of compensation for retirement.

The Compensation Committee set overall compensation for Messrs. Meier and Downes for 2012 based upon the framework established by each executive's Original Employment Agreement and, therefore, did not utilize comparator groups or bench-marking data in making compensation decisions for these executives. During 2012, the Compensation Committee did not retain the services of a compensation consultant.

New Employment Agreements with the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Administrative Officer Effective February 22, 2013, Mr. Meier resigned from his positions as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company to pursue opportunities outside the residential homeowners' insurance industry. Also effective February 22, 2013, the Board appointed Mr. Downes as Chief Executive Officer of the Company, Mr. Springer as Chief Operating Officer of the Company and Mr. Donaghy as Chief Administrative Officer of the Company. Mr. Downes has been employed in an executive capacity by the Company or its insurance affiliates since 2003 and had been the Company's Senior Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and a director since 2005. Mr. Springer had been Executive Vice President of Blue Atlantic Reinsurance Corporation since 2008 and from 2006 through 2008 was the Executive Vice President of Universal Risk Advisors, Inc., each a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Mr. Donaghy served as Executive Vice President of the Company since October 2006 and since November 2009 served as the Company's Chief Information Officer.

Effective February 22, 2013, the Company entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Mr. Downes (Downes New Employment Agreement) which provides for continuity in leadership and leadership transition and forms the framework for his compensation with the Company through 2015. Effective February 22, 2013, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Springer (Springer Employment Agreement) which provides the framework for his compensation through the end of 2014. Each of the Downes New Employment Agreement and the Springer Employment Agreement was filed in its entirety with the SEC as an exhibit to the Company's Form 8-K, dated as of February 22, 2013. Effective February 22, 2013, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Donaghy (Donaghy Employment Agreement) which provides the framework for his compensation through the end of 2014. The Donaghy Employment Agreement was filed in its entirety with the SEC as an exhibit to the Company's Form 8-K, dated as of March 21, 2013. The Downes New Employment Agreement, Springer Employment Agreement and Donaghy Employment Agreement are collectively referred to in this Proxy Statement as the New Employment Agreements.

In negotiating the New Employment Agreements, the Compensation Committee was guided by the following principles and limitations:

Content of Each Executive's Prior Employment Agreements. The principles underlying each executive's prior employment agreement with the Company formed the basis for the New Employment Agreements, as the Compensation Committee was mindful of each executive's critical importance to the ongoing success of our business and the rights and entitlements of each executive under his prior employment agreement.

Limited Term. Given the continuing evolution of our business and the changing roles of Messrs. Downes, Springer and Donaghy in helping the Company to achieve its goals, the Committee wanted to enter into only fixed-term contracts (three years for Mr. Downes; two years for Messrs. Springer and Donaghy) that did not obligate the Company to pay severance in the event of non-renewal of the contract at the expiration of the term.

Pay for Performance. The New Employment Agreements contemplate that a substantial portion of each executive's compensation is performance based either in the form of annual incentives based on pre-tax income or after-tax profit or through long-term restricted stock grants whose value to the executive is directly tied to share price. The New Employment Agreements also limit annual salary increases to 7.25%.

Double-Trigger Change in Control Protections. The Compensation Committee required that the New Employment Agreements provide for severance protections in the context of a change in control only if the executive's employment is terminated following the change in control. This is a substantial change from the Original Employment Agreement with Mr. Downes. The New Employment Agreements also continue the Compensation Committee's past practice of not providing tax gross-ups.

Advisory Votes on Compensation

The Board recognizes the fundamental interest that our shareholders have in the compensation of our executive officers. At the 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, our shareholders approved, on an advisory basis, the compensation of our Named Executive Officers (a say-on-pay proposal) as disclosed in the proxy statement for such meeting. Our shareholders approved the say-on-pay proposal by the affirmative vote of 80% of the shares cast on that proposal. The Compensation Committee believes that this affirms our shareholders' support of the Company's approach to executive compensation, and did not change its approach in fiscal year 2012. The Compensation Committee will continue to consider the outcome of the Company's say-on-pay proposals when making future compensation decisions for our executive officers.

Also at the 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, our shareholders had the opportunity to cast an advisory vote (a say-on-frequency proposal) on how often the Company should include a say-on-pay proposal in its proxy statement. Based on our shareholders' vote on the say-on-frequency proposal, the Board determined that we will hold shareholder say-on-pay advisory votes on executive compensation once every three years, with the next say-on-pay advisory vote to be held at the 2014 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Tax Considerations

Under Section 162(m) of the Code, the federal income tax deductibility of compensation paid to our executive officers may be limited to the extent that it exceeds $1.0 million in any one (1) year. The Company can deduct compensation in excess of that amount if it qualifies as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m). For the performance bonuses of Messrs. Downes, Springer and Donaghy, as set forth in the New Employment Agreements, to qualify as performance-based compensation, the performance-based formulas used to determine them must be approved by our shareholders, which approval is requested pursuant to Proposal 3 contained in this Proxy Statement. We reserve the right to pay compensation that is not deductible. A substantial portion of the compensation paid or awarded to Messrs. Meier and Downes in 2012 and under the Downes New Employment Agreement is not deductible by operation of Section 162(m). For 2012, the Company paid approximately $1.7 million in compensation to Mr. Meier and approximately $1.2 million in compensation to Mr. Downes under their respective Original Employment Agreements that was not deductible by operation of Section 162(m) of the Code.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K with management and, based on such review and discussions, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Proxy Statement.

Employment Agreements and Potential Payments Upon Termination of Employment or Change in Control

The following summaries describe the Original Employment Agreements between the Company and Messrs. Meier and Downes and the employment agreement between the Company and Mr. De Heer and set forth potential amounts payable to each Named Executive Officer upon termination of employment or a change in control under such agreements.

Employment Agreement with Mr. Meier

The Company's Original Employment Agreement with Mr. Meier is dated as of August 11, 1999. The Company and Mr. Meier have amended Mr. Meier's Original Employment Agreement, with the most recent amendment effective as of August 23, 2012 (the employment agreement and the amendments are collectively referred to as the Meier Original Employment Agreement). Under the terms of the Meier Original Employment Agreement, Mr. Meier served as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Meier received a base salary of $2,144,169 in 2012, and he was entitled to a 7.25% increase in base salary each year beginning in 2012. Additionally, pursuant to the Meier Original Employment Agreement, Mr. Meier was entitled to an annual performance bonus equal to 3% of the pretax income of the Company up to $5 million, and 4% of the pretax income of the Company in excess of $5 million; provided, however, that any such bonus was contingent upon our shareholders approving such bonus formula, which they have done.

Mr. Meier was also eligible to receive health and welfare benefits, such as group medical, group life and long-term disability coverage. The Meier Original Employment Agreement contained noncompete, nonsolicitation and confidentiality provisions.

In the event that the Company terminated the Meier Original Employment Agreement, the Company was obligated to pay Mr. Meier 24 months' total compensation. In addition, in the event of a change in control of the Company, the Company was obligated to pay Mr. Meier an amount equal to 48 months' base salary, plus two (2) times any bonus paid for the preceding fiscal year, including any taxes resulting from such payment in accordance with applicable U.S. tax laws. Further, in the event of a change in control, all options held by Mr. Meier would vest and become immediately exercisable. However, if it was determined by an independent accounting firm that any of the amounts payable to Mr. Meier upon a change in control would be subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, then the value of the payments which constitute parachute payments would have been reduced to an amount equal to 2.99 times Mr. Meier's base amount, as those terms are defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code. Generally, the base amount equals the average of the taxable compensation paid during the preceding five taxable years. For purposes of the Meier Original Employment Agreement, a change in control would have been deemed to occur if, at any time, substantially all the assets of the Company were sold or transferred by sale, merger or otherwise, or if any person became the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 50% or more of the combined voting power of the then-existing outstanding securities of the Company.

If Mr. Meier died during the term of his employment, the Company would have been obligated to pay to his estate compensation which would otherwise be payable to Mr. Meier for the shorter of (i) three (3) years from the date of his death, or (ii) through the termination date of his employment agreement. If Mr. Meier became disabled during the term of his employment for a consecutive period of 365 days, the Company would have been entitled to terminate the officership held. In the event of such termination, Mr. Meier would have remained an employee of the Company and received 70% of his compensation and all of his fringe benefits.

The Meier Original Employment Agreement provided that such agreement would expire on December 31, 2012 but automatically renew each year thereafter unless the Company or Mr. Meier provided written notice that the agreement was being terminated 60 days in advance of the anniversary date of the Meier Original Employment Agreement.

On February 22, 2013, Mr. Meier resigned as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. No severance or other payments were paid to Mr. Meier in connection with his resignation. However, the Company entered into the Adviser Agreement described in Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions pursuant to which Mr. Meier provides advisory and consulting services to the successor Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Downes, and to the Board and its committees. Under the Adviser Agreement, Mr. Meier will receive a base salary of $575,000 and will also be entitled to health and welfare benefits, an automobile allowance and a mobile phone allowance. In addition, Mr. Meier will receive payment of his accrued vacation time in two installments, but will not accrue any additional vacation time in his new role. The Adviser Agreement includes nondisparagement, noncompete, nonsolicitation and confidentiality provisions and other customary terms. Pursuant to the Adviser Agreement, Mr. Meier will not seek or have access to material nonpublic information not otherwise known to him as of February 22, 2013. The Adviser Agreement expires on December 31, 2015, unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms.

Employment Agreement with Mr. Downes

The Company's Original Employment Agreement with Mr. Downes is dated as of January 1, 2005, and provided that Mr. Downes would serve as the Company's Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. The Company and Mr. Downes amended the agreement, with the most recent amendment dated August 23, 2012 (the employment agreement and the amendments are collectively referred to as the Downes Original Employment Agreement). Mr. Downes received a base salary of $1,702,011 in 2012, and he was entitled to a 7.25% increase in base salary on January 1, 2013 and 2014. Additionally, pursuant to the Downes Original Employment Agreement, Mr. Downes was entitled to an annual performance bonus equal to 3% of the pre-tax income of the Company, provided, however, that any such bonus was contingent upon our shareholders approving such bonus formula, which they have done. Under the Downes Original Employment Agreement, the Company had the option to grant Mr. Downes options or warrants to purchase Common Stock.

Mr. Downes was also eligible to receive health and welfare benefits, such as group medical, group life and long-term disability coverage. The Downes Original Employment Agreement contained noncompete, nonsolicitation and confidentiality provisions.

In the event of a change in control of the Company, the Company was obligated to pay Mr. Downes an amount equal to 48 months' base salary, plus an amount equal to two (2) times any bonuses paid for the preceding fiscal year. However, if it was determined by an independent accounting firm that any of the amounts payable to Mr. Downes upon a change in control would be subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, then the value of the payments which constitute parachute payments would have been reduced to an amount equal to 2.99 times Mr. Downes' base amount, as those terms are defined under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code. Generally, the base amount equals the average of the taxable compensation paid during the preceding five taxable years. Further, in the event of a change in control, all options held by Mr. Downes would vest and become immediately exercisable. For purposes of the Downes Original Employment Agreement, a change in control would have been deemed to occur if, at any time, substantially all the assets of the Company were sold or transferred by sale, merger or otherwise, or if any person became the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 50% or more of the combined voting power of the then-existing outstanding securities of the Company.

If Mr. Downes died during the term of his employment, the Company would have been obligated to pay to his estate compensation which would otherwise be payable to Mr. Downes for the shorter of (i) one (1) year from the date of his death, or (ii) through the termination date of his employment agreement. If Mr. Downes became disabled during the term of his employment for a consecutive period of 90 days, the Company would have had the option to terminate the officership held. In the event of such termination, Mr. Downes would have remained an employee of the Company and received 50% of his compensation and all of his fringe benefits for a period ending on the next December 31st or 270 days, whichever was longer.

The Downes Original Employment Agreement provided that such agreement would expire on December 31, 2013 unless extended in writing by the Company.

On February 22, 2013, Mr. Downes succeeded Mr. Meier as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. In connection with the succession, the Company entered into the Downes New Employment Agreement which supersedes the Downes Original Employment Agreement. Under the Downes New Employment Agreement, Mr. Downes will receive an annual base salary of $2,000,000, which will increase by 7.25% on each of January 1, 2014 and January 1, 2015 over the rate then in effect. Mr. Downes will also receive an annual performance bonus of 3% of the Company's pre-tax income up to $5,000,000 and 4% of the Company's pre-tax income over $5,000,000, subject to the Company's shareholders approving the material terms of the performance goals for such bonus pursuant to Proposal 3. Should the Company's shareholders fail to approve the material terms of the performance goals for such bonus, Mr. Downes will receive an annual performance bonus equal to 3% of the Company's pre-tax income, as provided in Mr. Downes' Original Employment Agreement. Mr. Downes will also receive a total of 1,500,000 restricted shares of Common Stock in three separate grants. The shares will vest over a period of three years, with 500,000 of the shares also subject to the achievement of performance-based vesting standards. Mr. Downes' receipt of such shares is subject to his continued employment through the applicable vesting date.

Mr. Downes is also entitled to receive the health and welfare benefits to which he was entitled under the Downes Original Employment Agreement.

In the event of a change in control of the Company during the term of the Downes New Employment Agreement, and Mr. Downes is involuntarily terminated without cause or resigns for good reason within 24 months after such change in control, the Company will be obligated to pay Mr. Downes a lump sum cash amount equal to 48 months' base salary, plus two (2) times any bonuses paid for the preceding fiscal year. Such amounts are subject to adjustment pursuant to certain sections of the Code. Further, in the event of a change in control, all options held by Mr. Downes vest and become immediately exercisable.

The Downes New Employment Agreement contains noncompete, nonsolicitation and confidentiality provisions. The Downes New Employment Agreement is effective through December 31, 2015, unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms.

Employment Agreement with Mr. De Heer

The Company's employment agreement with Mr. De Heer is dated as of September 30, 2010, and provides that Mr. De Heer will serve as the Company's Chief Financial Officer and Principal Accounting Officer ("De Heer Employment Agreement"). Mr. De Heer received a base salary of $300,000 in 2012. Additionally, pursuant to the De Heer Employment Agreement, Mr. De Heer is entitled to an annual performance bonus as determined by the Company in its sole discretion.

Mr. De Heer is eligible to participate in the benefit plans generally available to Company employees in similar positions and in the Company's equity incentive plans at the Company's sole discretion.

The De Heer Employment Agreement contains nondisparagement, noncompete, nonsolicitation and confidentiality provisions. The De Heer Employment Agreement expires on September 30, 2013 but it automatically renews each year thereafter unless the Company or Mr. De Heer provide written notice that the agreement is being terminated 60 days in advance of the anniversary date of the De Heer Employment Agreement.

The following table presents the potential payments to which the Chief Executive Officer, Bradley I. Meier, and the Chief Operating Officer, Sean P. Downes, would be entitled under their Original Employment Agreements and to which the Chief Financial Officer, George R. De Heer, would be entitled under his employment agreement and assumes that the triggering event took place on December 31, 2012.

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENT TO SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED 2009

OMNIBUS INCENTIVE PLAN (PROPOSAL 2)

We currently maintain the Second Amended and Restated Plan. As of the record date for the Annual Meeting, there were 485,000 shares available for new grants under the Second Amended and Restated Plan. The Board believes that the use of equity-based compensation is a vital factor in attracting and retaining effective and valuable personnel who contribute to our growth and success and in establishing a direct link between the financial interests of such individuals and our shareholders. The Compensation Committee reviewed the Second Amended and Restated Plan to determine whether it remains a flexible and effective source of incentive compensation in terms of the number of shares of stock available for awards and in terms of its design, as well as whether it generally conforms with best practices in today's business environment.

Based on its review, the Compensation Committee recommended that the Second Amended and Restated Plan be amended to add 3,000,000 shares of Common Stock to the reserve available for new awards. The text of the Plan Amendment is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

The Board has approved, and recommends that our shareholders approve, the Plan Amendment as described herein. Other than as described above, the Second Amended and Restated Plan, as amended by the Plan Amendment, provides the same substantive terms and provisions as the Second Amended and Restated Plan. Shareholder approval of the Plan Amendment is required to meet the listing requirements of the NYSE MKT. If the Plan Amendment is not approved by the shareholders, the Second Amended and Restated Plan as approved in 2012 will remain in effect according to its terms.

The material features of the Second Amended and Restated Plan, as amended by the Plan Amendment (Plan), are summarized below. The summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Second Amended and Restated Plan, which is available at <http://www.sec.gov/Archives/edgar/data/891166/000119312512195978/d321025ddef14a.htm> as an attachment to the Company's 2012 proxy statement, and the Plan Amendment, which is attached hereto as Appendix A.

Administration

The Plan will be administered by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee has the authority, within the limits of the express provisions of the Plan, to interpret the provisions of the Plan, to establish and modify its administrative rules, to determine the individuals to whom awards will be granted, and to determine the nature, amount and terms of such awards and the objectives and conditions for earning such awards. The Compensation Committee may delegate its authority under the Plan to another committee of the Board or a subcommittee, or to such other party or parties, including officers of the Company, as the Compensation Committee deems appropriate.

Types of Awards

Awards under the Plan may include incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, stock appreciation rights (SARs), restricted shares of Common Stock, restricted stock units, performance share or unit awards, other stock-based awards and cash-based incentive awards.

Stock Options. The Compensation Committee may grant to a participant options to purchase Common Stock that qualify as incentive stock options for purposes of Section 422 of the Code (incentive stock options), options that do not qualify as incentive stock options (non-qualified stock options) or a combination thereof. The terms and conditions of stock option grants, including the quantity, price, vesting periods, and other conditions on exercise, will be determined by the Compensation Committee.

The exercise price for stock options will be determined by the Compensation Committee in its discretion; provided, however, that in no event may the exercise price be less than 100% of the fair market value of one share of the Common Stock on the date when the stock option is granted. Additionally, in the case of incentive stock options granted to a holder of more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company on the date of grant, the exercise price may not be less than 110% of the fair market value of one share of Common Stock on the date the stock option is granted. On April 17, 2013, the market price per share of the Common Stock was $5.20 based on the closing price of the Common Stock on the NYSE MKT on such date.

Incentive stock options must be exercised within a period fixed by the Compensation Committee that may not exceed ten years from the date of grant, except that in the case of incentive stock options granted to a holder of more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company on the date of grant, the exercise period may not exceed five (5) years. The Plan provides for earlier termination of stock options upon the participant's termination of service, unless extended by the Compensation Committee, but in no event may the options be exercised after the scheduled expiration date of the options.

At the Compensation Committee's discretion, payment of the exercise price for shares of Common Stock on the exercise of stock options may be made in cash, shares of Common Stock held by the participant or in any other form of consideration acceptable to the Compensation Committee (including one or more forms of cashless or net exercise).

Stock Appreciation Rights. The Compensation Committee may grant to a participant an award of SARs, which entitles the participant to receive, upon its exercise, a payment equal to (i) the excess of the fair market value of a share of Common Stock on the exercise date over the SAR exercise price, times (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock with respect to which the SAR is exercised.

The exercise price for a SAR will be determined by the Compensation Committee in its discretion, but may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of one share of Common Stock on the date when the SAR is granted. Upon exercise of a SAR, payment may be made in cash, shares of the Common Stock or a combination of cash and shares.

Restricted Shares and Restricted Units. The Compensation Committee may award to a participant shares of Common Stock subject to specified restrictions (restricted shares). Restricted shares are subject to forfeiture if the participant does not meet certain conditions such as continued employment over a specified forfeiture period and/or the attainment of specified performance targets over the forfeiture period.

The Compensation Committee also may award to a participant units representing the right to receive shares of Common Stock in the future subject to the achievement of one or more goals relating to the completion of service by the participant and/or the achievement of performance or other objectives (restricted units). The terms and conditions of restricted share and restricted unit awards are determined by the Compensation Committee.

For participants who are subject to Section 162(m) of the Code, the performance targets described in the preceding two paragraphs may be established by the Compensation Committee, in its discretion, based on one or more of the following performance goals:

Operating income

Operating profit (earnings from continuing operations before interest and taxes)

Earnings per share

Share price

Net income

Income before taxes

Pre-tax net income

Return on investment

Return on a specified investment

Table of Contents

Economic value added (the amount, if any, by which net operating profit after-tax exceeds a reference cost of capital)

Policy count

Number of states in which our Company operates

Quantifiable, objective measures of individual performance relevant to the particular individual's job responsibilities

The performance goals may be measured with respect to the Company or any one or more of its subsidiaries, divisions or affiliates, either in absolute terms, as compared to another company or companies or an index established or designated by the Compensation Committee, or subject to such objective adjustment factors established by the Compensation Committee at the time the award is granted. The above terms will have the same meaning as in our financial statements, or if the terms are not used in our financial statements, as applied pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles, or as used in the industry, as applicable.

Performance Awards. The Compensation Committee may grant performance awards to participants under such terms and conditions as the Compensation Committee deems appropriate. A performance award entitles a participant to receive a payment from the Company, the amount of which is based upon the attainment of predetermined performance targets over a specified award period. Performance awards may be paid in cash, shares of Common Stock or a combination thereof, as determined by the Compensation Committee.

Award periods will be established at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. The performance targets will also be determined by the Compensation Committee. With respect to participants subject to Section 162(m) of the Code, the applicable performance targets will be established, in the Compensation Committee's discretion, based on one or more of the performance goals described under the section titled "Restricted Shares and Restricted Units" above. To the extent that a participant is not subject to Section 162(m) of the Code, when circumstances occur that cause predetermined performance targets to be an inappropriate measure of achievement, the Compensation Committee, at its discretion, may adjust the performance targets or the amount or value of the performance award.

Other Stock-Based Awards. The Compensation Committee may grant equity-based or equity-related awards, referred to as "other stock-based awards," other than options, SARs, restricted shares, restricted units, or performance awards. The terms and conditions of each other stock-based award will be determined by the Compensation Committee.

Payment under any other stock-based awards will be made in Common Stock or cash, as determined by the Compensation Committee.

Table of Contents

Cash-Based Awards. The Compensation Committee may grant cash-based incentive compensation awards, which would include performance-based annual cash incentive compensation to be paid to covered employees subject to Section 162(m) of the Code. The terms and conditions of each cash-based award will be determined by the Compensation Committee. The following material terms will be applicable to performance-based cash awards granted to covered executives subject to Section 162(m):

The class of persons covered consists of those senior executives of the Company who are from time to time determined by the Compensation Committee to be subject to Section 162(m) of the Code (covered employees).

The targets for annual incentive payments to covered employees will consist only of one or more of the performance goals discussed under the section titled Restricted Shares and Restricted Units above. Use of any other target will require ratification by the shareholders if failure to obtain such approval would jeopardize tax deductibility of future incentive payments. Such performance targets will be established by the Compensation Committee on a timely basis to ensure that the targets are considered preestablished for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Code.

In administering the incentive program and determining incentive awards, the Compensation Committee will not have the flexibility to pay a covered employee more than the incentive amount indicated by his or her attainment of the performance target under the applicable payment schedule. The Compensation Committee will have the flexibility, based on its business judgment, to reduce this amount.

The Compensation Committee may require that a portion of any amount payable in respect of an award be deferred for a period specified at the time the award is granted. The Compensation Committee may also allow a participant to elect to defer amounts payable in respect of an award.

The cash incentive compensation feature of the Plan does not preclude the Board or the Compensation Committee from approving other incentive compensation arrangements for covered employees.

Dividend Equivalents. The Compensation Committee may provide for the payment of dividends or dividend equivalents with respect to any shares of Common Stock subject to an award under the Plan.

Eligibility and Limitation on Awards

The Compensation Committee may grant awards to any employee, director, consultant or other person providing services to the Company or its affiliates. It is presently contemplated that approximately 280 persons will be eligible to receive awards.

Table of Contents

The maximum awards that can be granted under the Plan to a single participant in any calendar year will be subject to the following limits:

650,000 shares of Common Stock in the form of options or SARs;

650,000 shares of Common Stock in the form of restricted stock, restricted stock units, performance awards or other stock-based awards denominated in shares; and $10,000,000 in the form of other stock-based awards not denominated in shares and cash-based incentive awards.

Awards Granted under the Plan

The future amounts that will be received by participants under the Plan are not determinable. The stock awards granted to our Named Executive Officers under the Second Amended and Restated Plan and outstanding as of December 31, 2012 are set forth in the Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End Table found under Executive Compensation. As of April 17, 2013, (i) our Named Executive Officers as a group (three officers) held outstanding stock options for 3,075,000 shares and restricted stock grants for 1,100,000 shares, (ii) our current executive officers as a group (four officers) held outstanding stock options for 2,530,000 shares and restricted stock grants for 1,450,000 shares, (iii) our non-employee directors as a group (four directors) held outstanding stock options for 690,000 shares, (iv) our director nominees as a group (eight nominees) held outstanding stock options for 3,115,000 shares and restricted stock grants for 1,350,000 shares and (v) all of our employees other than our executive officers and directors (10 employees) held outstanding stock options for 1,145,000 shares.

Shares Subject to the Plan

An aggregate of 10,200,000 shares of Common Stock have been reserved for issuance under the Plan and 3,485,000 shares of Common Stock are available for awards under the Plan. The shares to be offered under the Plan shall be authorized and unissued Common Stock or issued Common Stock that has been reacquired by the Company.

With respect to awards made under the Plan, shares of Common Stock underlying awards that are forfeited or canceled (as a result, for example, of the lapse of an option or a forfeiture of restricted stock), as well as any shares surrendered to or withheld by the Company in payment or satisfaction of the exercise price of a stock option or tax withholding obligation with respect to an award, will be available for additional grants under the Plan. Shares issued with respect to awards assumed by the Company in connection with acquisitions do not count against the total number of shares available for new awards under the Plan.

Anti-Dilution Protection

In the event of any corporate event or transaction that results in a change in our capital structure, including a change resulting from a stock dividend or stock split, or combination or reclassification of shares, the Compensation Committee is empowered to make such equitable adjustments with respect to awards or any provisions of the Plan as it deems necessary and appropriate, including, if necessary, any adjustments in the maximum number of shares of Common Stock subject to the Plan, the number of shares of Common Stock subject to and the exercise price of an outstanding award, or the maximum number of shares that may be subject to one or more awards granted to any one

Amendment and Termination

The Board may, at any time, amend the Plan, provided that no such action by the Board may be taken (i) without the affirmative approval of our shareholders if so required by applicable law or the rules of any stock exchange which lists the Common Stock or our voting securities, or (ii) that adversely affects any rights or obligations with respect to any awards theretofore made under the Plan without the consent of the recipient. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an outstanding option or SAR may not be (i) amended to reduce its exercise price or (ii) terminated and replaced with a substitute award if the effect of such termination and substitution is to reduce the exercise price, without the approval of our shareholders. The Board shall have the right and the power to terminate the Plan at any time; provided that no such termination adversely affects the rights of a participant of an award granted under the Plan. No awards may be made under the Plan after the tenth (10th) anniversary of its effective date. Certain provisions of the Plan relating to performance-based awards under Section 162(m) of the Code will expire on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the effective date.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The federal income tax consequences of the issuance and exercise of awards under the Plan are as described below. The following information is only a summary of the tax consequences of the awards, and participants should consult with their own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences inherent in the ownership or exercise of the awards, and the ownership and disposition of any underlying securities.

Incentive Stock Options. A participant who is granted an incentive stock option will not recognize any taxable income for federal income tax purposes either on the grant or exercise of the incentive stock option. If the participant disposes of the shares purchased pursuant to the incentive stock option more than two (2) years after the date of grant and more than one (1) year after the exercise of the option (required statutory holding period), (i) the participant will recognize long-term capital gain or loss, as the case may be, equal to the difference between the selling price and the option price; and (ii) the Company will not be entitled to a deduction with respect to the shares of stock so issued. If the holding period requirements are not met, any gain realized upon disposition will be taxed as ordinary income to the extent of the excess of the lesser of (i) the excess of the fair market value of the shares at the time of exercise over the option price, and (ii) the gain on the sale. Also in that case, the Company will be entitled to a deduction in the year of disposition in an amount equal to the ordinary income recognized by the participant. Any additional gain will be taxed as short-term or long-term capital gain depending upon the holding period for the stock. A sale for less than the option price results in a capital loss.

The excess of the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise over the option price is, however, includable in the option holder's income for alternative minimum tax purposes.

Nonqualified Stock Options. A participant who is granted a nonqualified stock option under the Plan will not recognize any income for federal income tax purposes on the grant of the option. Generally, on the exercise of the option, the participant will recognize taxable ordinary income equal to the excess of the fair market value of the shares on the exercise date over the option price for the shares. The Company generally will be entitled to a deduction on the date of exercise in an amount equal to the ordinary income recognized by the participant. Upon disposition of the shares purchased pursuant to the stock option, the participant will recognize long-term or short-term capital gain or loss, as the case may be, equal to the difference between the amount realized on such disposition and the basis for such shares, which basis includes the amount previously recognized by the participant as ordinary income.

Stock Appreciation Rights. A participant who is granted SARs will normally not recognize any taxable income on the receipt of the SARs. Upon the exercise of a SAR, (i) the participant will recognize ordinary income equal to the amount received (increase in the fair market value of each share of Common Stock from the date of grant of the SAR to the date of exercise); and (ii) the Company will be entitled to a deduction on the date of exercise in an amount equal to the ordinary income recognized by the participant.

Restricted Shares. A participant will not be taxed on the date of an award of restricted shares, but will be taxed at ordinary income rates on the fair market value of any restricted shares as of the date that the restrictions lapse, unless the participant, within 30 days after transfer of such restricted shares to the participant, elects under Section 83(b) of the Code to include in income the fair market value of the restricted shares as of the date of such transfer. The Company will be entitled to a corresponding deduction. Any disposition of shares after restrictions lapse will be subject to the regular rules governing long-term and short-term capital gains and losses, with the basis for this purpose equal to the fair market value of the shares at the end of the restricted period (or on the date of the transfer of the restricted shares, if the employee elects to be taxed on the fair market value upon such transfer). To the extent dividends are payable during the restricted period under the applicable award agreement, any such dividends will be taxable to the participant at ordinary income tax rates and will be deductible by the Company unless the participant has elected to be taxed on the fair market value of the restricted shares upon transfer, in which case they will thereafter be taxable to the employee as dividends and will not be deductible by the Company.

Restricted Units. A participant will normally not recognize taxable income upon an award of restricted units, and the Company will not be entitled to a deduction until the lapse of the applicable restrictions. Upon the lapse of the restrictions and the issuance of the earned shares, the participant will recognize ordinary taxable income in an amount equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock received and the Company will be entitled to a deduction in the same amount.

Performance Awards, Other Stock-Based Awards and Cash-Based Awards. Normally, a participant will not recognize taxable income upon the grant of performance awards, other stock-based awards and cash-based awards. Subsequently, when the conditions and requirements of the grants have been satisfied and the payment determined, any cash received and the fair market value of any Common Stock received will constitute ordinary income to the participant. The Company also will then be entitled to a deduction in the same amount.

Tax Deductibility of Certain Performance-Based Awards under the Plan. Section 162(m) of the Code limits the deductibility for federal income tax purposes of certain compensation paid to any covered employee in excess of $1 million. For purposes of Section 162(m), the term covered employee includes our Named Executive Officers. Certain compensation, including compensation paid based on the achievement of pre-established performance goals, is excluded from this deduction limit if the material terms under which the compensation is to be paid, including the performance goals to be used, are approved by our shareholders.

Recovery of Compensation in Connection with Financial Restatements

If the Board determines that the Company is required to restate its financial statements due to material noncompliance with any financial reporting requirement under the law, whether such noncompliance is the result of misconduct or other circumstances, a participant shall be required to reimburse the Company for any amounts earned or payable with respect to an award to the extent required by and otherwise in accordance with applicable law and any Company policies adopted or implemented by the Board or the Compensation Committee from time to time.

THE BOARD UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE PLAN AMENDMENT.

APPROVAL OF MATERIAL TERMS OF PERFORMANCE GOALS FOR PERFORMANCE BONUSES

(PROPOSAL 3)

The Company believes that linking the compensation of key employees to corporate performance increases employee motivation to improve shareholder value. Thus, the employee's reward is directly related to the Company's success. The purposes of performance-based bonuses for key employees are to motivate the employees to improve shareholder value by linking a portion of cash compensation to the Company's financial performance, reward key employees for improving the Company's financial performance and help attract and retain key employees.

The Company is seeking shareholder approval of the material terms of the performance goals under which annual performance-based bonuses are to be paid to three of its newly appointed key employees, Sean P. Downes, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, Jon W. Springer, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, and Stephen J. Donaghy, Chief Administrative Officer of the Company. The material terms of the performance goals related to these bonus arrangements are set forth in each of the respective officer's employment agreements. The following summary of these bonus arrangements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of the arrangements contained in the employment agreements of Messrs. Downes, Springer and Donaghy which are attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix B, Appendix C and Appendix D, respectively.

Under the Downes New Employment Agreement, Mr. Downes is entitled to receive an annual performance bonus (Downes Performance Bonus) equal to 3% of the Company's pre-tax income up to $5 million, and 4% of the Company's pre-tax income over $5 million. The bonus is computed as of December 31 for each fiscal year and must be paid by March 15 of the year following the year in which it is earned. The Compensation Committee unanimously approved the formula used to calculate the Downes Performance Bonus and all of the disinterested directors of the Board approved the formula used to calculate the Downes Performance Bonus. The New Benefits Table below sets forth the amount of the Downes Performance Bonus determined as if the Downes New Employment Agreement was in effect during the most recent completed fiscal year of the Company. Mr. Downes' right to receive the Downes Performance Bonus is contingent upon shareholder approval of the use of the Company's pre-tax income as the performance goal applicable to the Downes Performance Bonus. Accordingly, the Company hereby seeks approval of the use of the Company's pre-tax income as the performance goal applicable to the Downes Performance Bonus for the fiscal years beginning in 2013 and thereafter during the term of the Downes New Employment Agreement. Should our shareholders fail to approve the formula used to determine the Downes Performance Bonus, the bonus formula set forth in Mr. Downes' Original Employment Agreement shall continue to apply in lieu of the formula set forth above.

Under the Springer Employment Agreement, Mr. Springer is entitled to receive an annual performance bonus (Springer Performance Bonus) equal to 2.5% of the pre-tax profits of the Company. The bonus is computed as of December 31 for each fiscal year and must be paid by March 15 of the year following the year in which it is earned. The Board and Compensation Committee unanimously approved the formula used to calculate the Springer Performance Bonus. The New Benefits Table below sets forth the amount of the Springer Performance Bonus determined as if the Springer Employment Agreement was in effect during the most recent completed fiscal year of the Company. Mr. Springer's right to receive the Springer Performance Bonus is contingent upon shareholder approval of the use of the Company's pre-tax income as the performance goal applicable to the Springer Performance Bonus. Accordingly, the Company hereby seeks approval of the use of the Company's pre-tax income as the performance goal applicable to the Springer Performance Bonus for the fiscal years beginning in 2013 and thereafter during the term of the Springer Employment Agreement. Should our shareholders fail to approve the bonus formula used to determine the Springer Performance Bonus, Mr. Springer will not be entitled to receive such bonus.

Under the Donaghy Employment Agreement, Mr. Donaghy is entitled to receive an annual performance bonus (Donaghy Performance Bonus) of 1.5% of the Company's annual after-tax profit. The bonus is computed as of December 31 of each fiscal year and must be paid by March 15 of the year following the year in which it is earned. The Board and Compensation Committee unanimously approved the formula used to calculate the Donaghy Performance Bonus. The New Benefits Table below sets forth the amount of the Donaghy Performance Bonus determined as if the Donaghy Employment Agreement was in effect during the most recent completed fiscal year of the Company. Mr. Donaghy's right to receive the Donaghy Performance Bonus is contingent upon shareholder approval of the use of the Company's after-tax profit as the performance goal applicable to the Donaghy Performance Bonus. Accordingly, the Company hereby seeks approval of the use of the Company's after-tax profit as the performance goal applicable to the Donaghy Performance Bonus for the fiscal years beginning in 2013 and thereafter during the term of the Donaghy Employment Agreement. Should our shareholders fail to approve the bonus formula used to determine the Donaghy Performance Bonus, Mr. Donaghy will not be entitled to receive such bonus.

Upon completion of each fiscal year, the Compensation Committee will certify in writing prior to payment of the Downes Performance Bonus, Springer Performance Bonus and Donaghy Performance Bonus that the applicable performance objective has been attained and the bonus is payable. With respect to Compensation Committee certification, approved minutes of the meeting in which the certification is made will be treated as written certification.

The Company and Messrs. Downes, Springer and Donaghy, as the case may be, may agree to amend or terminate the bonus arrangement at any time by entering into a written amendment or modification of the applicable employment agreement. In addition, the Company reserves the right to adopt such other bonus or incentive compensation plans or arrangements as deemed appropriate and in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

Under Section 162(m) of the Code, the federal income tax deductibility of compensation paid to Messrs. Downes, Springer and Donaghy may be limited to the extent that it exceeds $1.0 million in any one year. The Company can deduct compensation in excess of that amount if it qualifies as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m). For the Downes Performance Bonus, Springer Performance Bonus and Donaghy Performance Bonus to qualify as performance-based compensation, the performance-based formulas used to determine them must be approved by the Company's shareholders. The Downes Performance Bonus, Springer Performance Bonus and Donaghy Performance Bonus are intended to permit the Company to pay incentive compensation which qualifies as performance-based compensation, thereby permitting the Company to receive a federal income tax deduction for the payment of this incentive compensation.

The following table sets forth the total amounts that would be payable with respect to the Downes Performance Bonus, Springer Performance Bonus and Donaghy Performance Bonus for fiscal year 2012, as if the Downes New Employment Agreement, Springer Employment Agreement and Donaghy Employment Agreement were in effect during fiscal year 2012:

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Company is engaged in the insurance and financial services industry; and

WHEREAS, Executive currently serves as Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) has determined that Executive should become the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company; and

WHEREAS, the Company and Executive are parties to an Employment Agreement, January 1, 2005, as amended (the Prior Agreement) and now desire to amend and restate the terms of the Prior Agreement to acknowledge Executive's new positions and compensation with the Company and to provide for the continued employment of Executive on the terms set forth in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Board has approved the employment of Executive upon the terms and conditions set forth herein by a resolution issued by it, and have authorized the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

NOW, therefore, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein, including the continuation of Executive's employment, and for other good and valuable consideration, the Company and Executive agree as follows:

1. EMPLOYMENT

The Company hereby employs Executive as its President and Chief Executive Officer. Executive hereby accepts such employment and agrees to perform the services and duties specified herein or as assigned to him from time to time by the Board.

2. TERM

Subject to the terms and conditions herein, the term of the employment of Executive under this Agreement (Term) is effective as of February 22, 2013 (the Effective Date) and shall terminate on December 31, 2015, unless extended in accordance with this section or by written instrument executed by the Company after review and approval of such extension by the Board (Expiration Date), so that at the Expiration Date of this Agreement there shall be no automatic extension of the Term of employment under this Agreement.

3. DISABILITY

If, during the Term, Executive shall become unable to perform his duties as provided for herein by reason of illness or injury for a consecutive period of ninety (90) days, then the Company after that ninety (90) day period may, on thirty (30) days prior written notice to Executive, suspend the officership held by Executive. In the event of such suspension, Executive shall remain an employee of the Company and receive his compensation and all of his fringe benefits as set forth below in Sections 6 and 8, respectively, for the lesser of (i) one (1) year from the date of such suspension or (ii) the remaining Term (the Suspension Period). If during the Suspension Period, Executive returns to perform his duties as provided for herein, and there is no physical or mental inability to perform such duties, then Executive shall resume the officership and the Company shall continue payment of his full compensation and all of his fringe benefits as set forth below in Sections 6 and 8, respectively. Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate at the end of the Suspension Period if Executive has not returned by the end of the Suspension Period to the full-time performance of his duties hereunder.

- (b) Failure on the part of Executive to (i) follow material instructions or policy of the Board given or adopted in good faith, or (ii) carry out an agreed policy or course of action as determined by (a) the Board or (b) a committee of the Board or (c) carry out the directions of the Board, any or all of which is or may be to the detriment of the Company;

Moreover, the Company agrees to permit Executive to involve himself in other similar Outside Business Interests, on condition that they similarly be disclosed and are added to Schedule 1 prior to their being commenced. The failure to disclose and list any Outside Business activity on Schedule 1 shall be prima facie a breach of this provision. If Executive is not eligible for health benefits as described above, by reason of age, location or otherwise, then Executive shall be provided equivalent benefits determined at the election of the Company. Executive shall be eligible to receive the foregoing benefits during the six (6) month period following the termination of his employment under this Agreement, except if this Agreement is terminated for cause, and after that six (6) month period, Executive shall be entitled to COBRA benefits; and

All such reimbursement of Approved Reimbursable Expenses shall be made within thirty (30) days of receipt by the Company from Executive of an itemized account and if necessary proper substantiation of Approved Reimbursable Expenses. In order to facilitate the payment of the Approved Reimbursable Expenses, the Company may at its option furnish Executive with Company acquired credit cards as may be available to all other executive officers of the Company; and

9. SECTION 409A COMPLIANCE

The provisions of this Section 9 shall apply notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement related to the timing of payments following Executive's resignation.

(a) If, at the time of Executive's resignation of employment with the Company, Executive is a Specified Employee (as defined below), then any outstanding awards payable under the Plan and any other amounts payable under this Agreement that the Company determines constitute deferred compensation within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code and which are subject to the six-month delay required by Treas. Reg. Section 1.409A-1(c)(3)(v), shall be delayed and not paid to Executive until the first business day following the six-month anniversary of Executive's date of resignation (the Short-Term Deferral Date), at which time such delayed amounts will be paid to Executive in a cash lump sum (the Catch-Up Amount). If payment of an amount is delayed as a result of this Section 9(a), such amount shall be increased with interest from the date on which such amount would otherwise have been paid to Executive but for this Section 9(a) to the day prior to the date the Catch-Up Amount is paid. The rate of interest shall be the applicable short-term federal rate applicable under Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code for the month in which the date of Executive's resignation occurs. Such interest shall be paid at the same time that the Catch-Up Amount is paid. If Executive dies on or after the date of Executive's resignation and prior to the Short-Term Deferral Date, any amount delayed pursuant to this Section 9(d) shall be paid to Executive's estate or beneficiary, as applicable, together with interest, within 30 days following the date of Executive's death.

(b) Specified Employee has the meaning set forth in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code. The determination of whether Executive constitutes a Specified Employee on the date of his resignation shall be made in accordance with the Company's established methodology for determining Specified Employees.

(c) Separation from Service means a separation from service from the Company within the meaning of the default rules under the final regulations issued pursuant to Section 409A of the Code. For purposes of this Agreement, the terms terminate, terminated, termination and resignation mean a termination of Executive's employment constitutes a Separation from Service.

(d) For purposes of applying the provisions of Section 409A of the Code to this Agreement, each separately identifiable amount to which Executive is entitled under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment. To the extent any reimbursements or in-kind benefit payments under this Agreement are subject to Section 409A, such reimbursements and in-kind benefit payments shall be made in accordance with Section 409A, and payments of such reimbursements or in-kind benefits shall be made on or before the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the relevant expense is incurred.

10. CHANGE IN CONTROL

Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, the following provisions will govern in the event a Change in Control (as defined herein) occurs during the Term:

Table of Contents

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, a Change in Control shall be deemed to have occurred if (i) there shall be consummated (A) any consolidation or merger in which the Company is not the continuing or surviving corporation or pursuant to which shares of the Company's common stock would be converted into cash, securities or other property, other than a consolidation or a merger having the same proportionate ownership of common stock of the surviving corporation immediately after the consolidation or merger or (B) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions other than in the ordinary course of business of the Company) of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company to any corporation, person or other entity which is not a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, or (ii) any person, group, corporation or other entity (collectively, Persons) shall acquire beneficial ownership (as determined pursuant to Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and rules and regulations promulgated hereunder) of 50% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock; provided, however, that in all cases, any such event described in this Section 10(a) will not be determined to constitute a Change in Control unless the event constitutes either a change in ownership, change in effective control or change in the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of the Company, as such terms are described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(5).

(b) If a Change in Control occurs during the Term as defined in Section 10(a) above and Executive's employment with the Company is involuntarily terminated by the Company other than for cause or Executive resigns for Good Reason (as defined in Section 10(e) below) upon or within twenty-four (24) months following such Change in Control (notwithstanding the expiration of the Term), then, in lieu of any severance or other amounts payable by the Company under this Agreement or otherwise in connection with the termination of employment, the Company shall pay to Executive no later than the sixtieth day following such termination of employment a cash lump sum amount equal to (i) forty-eight (48) months' base salary and (ii) two times any bonuses paid in respect of the preceding fiscal year.

(c) If a Change in Control occurs as defined in Section 10(a) above, then all options or warrants granted to Executive shall immediately vest and become exercisable. Such acceleration of the vesting of options or warrants shall be in addition to, and shall have no effect on, any payments accrued pursuant to Section 10(b).

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that it is determined by an independent accounting firm chosen by mutual agreement of the parties that any economic benefit, payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of Executive, whether paid, payable, distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise (a Payment), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) (such excise tax referred to in this Agreement as the Excise Tax), then the value of any such Payments payable under this Agreement which constitute parachute payments under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, as determined by the independent accounting firm, will be reduced so that the present value of all Payments (calculated in accordance with Section 280G of the Code and the regulations thereunder), in the aggregate, is equal to 2.99 times Executive's base amount, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code.

Table of Contents

(e) For purposes of this Section 10, Good Reason shall mean (i) any material diminution in Executive's title, duties or reporting responsibilities, (ii) a material reduction in Executive's compensation or the failure to pay Executive any material amount of compensation when due or (iii) a material breach of this Agreement by the Company.

11. DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION AND NON-COMPETITION

(a) Executive recognizes and acknowledges that during the course of his employment he will have access to certain confidential information of the Company and that such information constitutes valuable, special and unique property of the Company. During the Term of this Agreement and following termination of his employment hereunder and for a term of two years, Executive will not disclose information, including any trade secrets or confidential information of the Company obtained during the course of his employment with the Company, except such information as may have become part of the public domain through no fault of Executive, which public domain determination shall only be made by the Company in a written acknowledgment made at the request of Executive, before Executive may be free to disclose any such claimed public domain information.

(b) During the Term and for two years thereafter, Executive will not, directly or indirectly, engage in any business enterprise or activity competitive with the business of the Company either as an employee, consultant, partner, shareholder, or in any other capacity. Further, Executive agrees that he will not either during or within two years subsequent to the termination of his employment, disturb, entice, hire or in any other manner attempt to persuade any employee, dealer, supplier or customer of the Company to discontinue its business relationship with the Company.

(c) Executive and the Company acknowledge that it would be very difficult or impossible to measure the damages resulting from a breach of this Section 11, and that any such breach would cause immediate and irreparable harm. Therefore, in consequence of the foregoing, Executive hereby agrees that any breach or threatened breach by him of any provision of this Section 11 shall entitle the Company, in addition to any other legal remedies available to it, to obtain from any Court of competent jurisdiction a temporary and permanent injunction in order to enjoin such breach or threatened breach, without the necessity on the part of the Company, in any application for such injunctive relief (a) to show immediate and irreparable harm, (B) likelihood of success on the merits, and (c) to post any bond or undertaking, all of which would be a requirement of such an application absent this covenant waiving those requirements. Executive also covenants that the service of any papers to commence any legal proceedings, including proceedings to obtain injunctive relief, may be done by utilizing Federal Express in lieu of any other form of personal delivery of the process or orders of the Court and upon doing so the service and notice provisions for the commencement of legal proceedings shall be satisfied.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, in the event of a Change in Control as defined in Section 10(a) above, this Section 11 will not apply.

13. PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

During the Term, all work product emanating directly and/or indirectly from Executive's duties and activities effected on behalf of the Company (Work Product) shall be exclusively owned by the Company. Springer Employment Agreement

This employment agreement (Agreement), dated as of February 22, 2013 is between Universal Insurance Holdings, Inc. a Delaware corporation (the Company), and Jon Springer (Executive).

WHEREAS, the parties wish to establish the terms of Executive's employment with the Company;

WHEREAS, Executive is currently a party to an Employment Agreement with Blue Atlantic Reinsurance Company (Blue Atlantic), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, dated June 15, 2006 (the Prior Agreement); and

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company now desire to cause the Prior Agreement to be terminated and Executive and the Company desire to enter into this Agreement to supersede and replace the Prior Agreement.

Accordingly, the parties agree as follows:

1. Employment and Acceptance. The Company will employ Executive, and Executive will accept employment, subject to the terms of this Agreement, as of February 22, 2013 (Effective Date).
2. Term. Subject to earlier termination pursuant to Section 5, this Agreement and the employment relationship hereunder will continue from the Effective Date until December 31, 2014. As used in this Agreement, the Term means the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the date Executive's employment terminates in accordance with this Section 2 or Section 5. In the event that Executive's employment terminates, the Company's obligation to continue to pay all Base Salary and other benefits then accrued will terminate except as may be provided for in Section 5. The parties acknowledge that the Company's offices and headquarters are currently located in Miami, Florida; however, the situs of Executive's employment shall be Eagan, Minnesota.
3. Duties and Title.
 - 3.1 Title. The Company will employ Executive to render full-time services to the Company, its parent, its subsidiaries and its affiliates (singularly, Related Company or collectively, Related Companies). The Company will employ Executive as Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.
 - 3.2 Duties. Executive will have such authority and responsibilities and will perform such duties assigned to him from time to time by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, commensurate with his position. Executive will devote all Executive's full working-time and attention to the performance of such duties and to the promotion of the Company's or a Related Company's business and interests.

3.3 Other Business Activities. Executive may not engage in any activity that conflicts with the Company's or a Related Company's interests or would materially interfere with the performance of Executive's duties to the Company, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion. Executive may not hold, directly or indirectly, an ownership interest of more than 2% in any entity which competes with the Company or a Related Company, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion.

4. Compensation and Benefits by the Company. As compensation for all services rendered pursuant to this Agreement, the Company will provide Executive the following during the Term:

4.1 Base Salary. The Company will pay Executive an annual base salary of $1,250,000, payable in accordance with the Company's customary payroll practices, which shall be increased by 7.25% on January 1, 2014 over the rate in effect on the Effective Date (Base Salary).

4.2 Annual Bonus. Executive shall receive an annual bonus of 2.5% of the Company's pre-tax income, which shall be computed as at December 31 of each year of the Term of this Agreement (with such bonus for calendar year 2013 based on January 1, 2013 and not the Effective Date) (the Annual Bonus); provided, however, that in no event shall any bonus due and owing under this Section 4.2 be paid to Executive later than March 15 of the year following the year in which it was earned; and provided, further, that the payment of any bonus pursuant to this Section 4.2 shall be contingent upon the Company's shareholders approving the bonus formula described in this Section 4.2 at the Company's annual meeting of shareholders in 2013, and should the Company's shareholders fail to approve the bonus formula described in this Section 4.2, Executive shall have no right or entitlement under this Section 4.2. For the avoidance of doubt, if Executive has earned a bonus under this Section 4.2, he need not be employed on the bonus payment date to receive such bonus, provided, except as otherwise provided below, that he is employed through December 31 of the year to which the bonus relates.

4.3 Participation in Executive Benefit Plans. Executive is entitled, if and to the extent eligible, to participate in the Company's benefit plans generally available to Company employees in similar positions. Each grant shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable restricted stock award and shall be governed by the Plan and other applicable award documentation.

5.2 Termination With Cause. The Company has the right, at any time during the Term, to terminate Executive's employment with the Company for Cause (as defined below) by giving written notice to Executive as described in this Section 5.2 below. Prior to the effectiveness of termination for Cause under subclause (i), (ii), (iii) or (v) below, Executive shall be given thirty (30) calendar days' prior written notice from the Company, specifically identifying the reasons which are alleged to constitute Cause for any termination pursuant to the aforementioned subclauses, and an opportunity to be heard by the Company in the event Executive disputes such allegations; provided, however, that the Company shall have no obligation to continue to employ Executive following such thirty (30) calendar day notice period. Prior to the effectiveness of termination for Cause under subclause (iv) below, Executive shall be given thirty (30) calendar days' prior written notice from the Company, specifically identifying the reasons which are alleged to constitute Cause for any termination under such subclause, and, in the event Executive disputes such allegations, an opportunity to be heard by the Company and to cure the actions, events or circumstances giving rise to such allegations; provided, however, that the Company shall have no obligation to continue to employ Executive following such thirty (30) calendar day notice period unless such allegations are cured to the Company's reasonable satisfaction. The Company's termination of Executive's employment for Cause under subclause (vi) below shall be effective immediately upon the Company's written notice to Executive. If the Company terminates Executive's employment for Cause, the Company's obligation to Executive shall be limited solely to the Accrued Obligations. For purposes of this Agreement, Cause means, as determined by the Chief Executive Officer (or his designee), any of the following: (i) Executive's abuse of alcohol or any controlled substance; (ii) a willful act of fraud, dishonesty or breach of fiduciary duty on the part of Executive with respect to the business or affairs of the Company; (iii) knowing and material failure by Executive to comply with material applicable laws and regulations or professional standards relating to the business of the Company; (iv) Executive's documented and continuing unsatisfactory performance of his duties hereunder (as documented in at least one performance improvement plan to Executive) or a material breach by Executive of this Agreement except, in each case, where such failure or breach is caused by the illness or other similar incapacity or disability of Executive; (v) Executive being subject to an inquiry or investigation by a governmental authority or self-regulatory organization such that the existence of such inquiry or investigation may result in damage to the Company's business interests, licenses, reputation or prospects; or (vi) Executive has been convicted of or has pled guilty to any felony.

5.3 Payment Upon Termination Without Cause. If during the Term the Company terminates Executive's employment without Cause (which may be done at any time without prior notice), the Company will pay Executive on the sixtieth (60th) day following the date of such termination of employment, in addition to the Accrued Obligations, (1) a lump-sum cash payment equal to Executive's then-current Base Salary for a period of twelve (12) months, (2) payment for the prorated share of Executive's Annual Bonus pursuant to Section 4.2 for the year in which termination without Cause occurs, and (3) a lump-sum cash payment equal to the cost of COBRA coverage for Executive and his dependents for twelve (12) months, provided that Executive executes and delivers to the Company a valid and irrevocable release agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to the Company by no later than forty-five (45) days following the date of such termination of employment without Cause. Additionally, any restricted stock award granted in accordance with Section 4.4 prior to the date of Executive's termination without Cause shall fully vest immediately prior to such termination without Cause; for the avoidance of doubt, Executive shall not be entitled to any award under Section 4.4 which has not been granted prior to such termination without Cause. 5.4 Payment Upon Termination For Good Reason. If during the Term Executive terminates his employment with the Company for Good Reason by giving notice as provided in this Section 5.4, the Company will pay Executive on the sixtieth (60th) day following the date of such termination of employment, in addition to the Accrued Obligations, (1) a lump-sum cash payment equal to Executive's then-current Base Salary for a period of twelve (12) months, (2) payment for the prorated share of Executive's Annual Bonus pursuant to Section 4.2 for the year in which termination for Good Reason occurs, and (3) a lump-sum cash payment equal to the cost of COBRA coverage for Executive and his dependents for twelve (12) months, provided that Executive executes and delivers to the Company within a valid and irrevocable release agreement in a form reasonably acceptable to the Company by no later than forty-five (45) days following the date of such termination of employment for Good Reason. Additionally, any restricted stock award granted in accordance with Section 4.4 prior to the date of Executive's termination for Good Reason shall fully vest immediately prior to such termination with Good Reason; for the avoidance of doubt, Executive shall not be entitled to any award under Section 4.4 which has not been granted prior to such termination for Good Reason. Prior to the effectiveness of termination for Good Reason, the Company shall be given thirty (30) calendar days' prior written notice from Executive, specifically identifying the reasons which are alleged to constitute Good Reason for termination hereunder, and an opportunity to be heard by Executive in the event the Company disputes such allegations and to cure such allegations; provided, however, that Executive shall have no obligation to remain employed by the Company following such thirty (30) calendar day notice period unless such allegations are cured to Executive's reasonable satisfaction. As used in this Section 5.4, Good Reason means any of the following without Executive's prior written consent: (i) assignment to Executive of duties materially inconsistent with Executive's position hereunder; (ii) failure to pay Executive's Base Salary in accordance with Section 4.1 hereof; (iii) failure to pay Executive's Annual Bonus pursuant to Section 4.2; (iv) requiring Executive to move his situs of employment more than twenty (20) miles from his situs of employment prior to such move; or (v) the Company's material breach of this Agreement.

5.5 Voluntary Termination Without Good Reason. Executive may voluntarily terminate his employment with the Company without Good Reason at any time by giving written notice to the Company, which termination shall be effective thirty (30) days from the date of such written notice. If Executive voluntarily terminates his employment without Good Reason, the Company's obligation to Executive shall be limited solely to the Accrued Obligations.

5.6 Termination Because of Death. If Executive's employment terminates because of Executive's death, within thirty (30) days of termination, the Company will pay to Executive's estate the Accrued Obligations, payment for the prorated share of Executive's Annual Bonus pursuant to Section 4.2 for the year in which termination occurs and a lump-sum cash payment equal to Executive's ending Base Salary for the lesser of (i) one (1) year from the date of Executive's death or (ii) the remaining Term, and any employee benefits Executive may be entitled to pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans through such period; provided, however, that benefit payments under any employee benefit plan shall be paid to Executive's beneficiary or beneficiaries designated pursuant to such employee benefit plans in lieu of to his estate.

5.7 Suspension or Termination Because of Disability. If, during the Term, Executive shall become unable to perform his duties as provided for herein by reason of Disability (as defined herein), then the Company may, on thirty (30) days prior written notice to Executive, suspend the officership held by Executive. In the event of such suspension, Executive shall remain an employee of the Company and receive his compensation and benefits as set forth above in Section 4 for the lesser of (i) one (1) year from the date of such suspension or (ii) the remaining Term (the Suspension Period). If during the Suspension Period, Executive returns to perform his duties as provided for herein, and there is no physical or mental inability to perform such duties, then Executive shall resume the officership and the Company shall continue payment of his full compensation and benefits as set forth in Section 4. Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate at the end of the Suspension Period if Executive has not returned by the end of the Suspension Period to the full-time performance of his duties hereunder. For purposes of this Agreement, Disability means a determination by the Company after review of written information provided by Executive's healthcare provider that, as a result of a physical or mental injury or illness, Executive is unable to perform the essential functions of Executive's job with or without reasonable accommodation for a period of 90 consecutive days or 90 days in any twelve (12)-month period.

6. Change in Control.

6.1 Termination in Connection with a Change in Control. In the event that, in connection with a Change in Control (as defined below) during the Term, Executive's employment with the Company is involuntarily terminated by the Company other than for Cause or if Executive resigns for Good Reason upon or within twenty-four (24) months following such Change in Control (notwithstanding the expiration of the Term), then, in lieu of any severance or other amounts payable by the Company under Section 5 of this Agreement or otherwise in connection with Executive's termination of employment, the Company or its successor shall pay Executive no later than the sixtieth day following such termination of employment in connection with a Change in Control a cash lump sum amount equal to (1) forty-eight (48) months of Executive's Base Salary at the time of such Change in Control and (2) two times any bonuses paid to Executive for the preceding fiscal year. In addition, upon a Change in Control, all options held by Executive shall vest and become immediately exercisable. For purposes of this Agreement, a Change in Control shall be deemed to have occurred if (i) there shall be consummated (A) any consolidation or merger in which the Company is not the continuing or surviving corporation or pursuant to which shares of the Company's common stock would be converted into cash, securities or other property, other than a consolidation or a merger having the same proportionate ownership of common stock of the surviving corporation immediately after the consolidation or merger or (B) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions other than in the ordinary course of business of the Company) of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company to any corporation, person or other entity which is not a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, or (ii) any person, group, corporation or other entity (collectively, Persons) shall acquire beneficial ownership (as determined pursuant to Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and rules and regulations promulgated hereunder) of 50% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock; provided, however, that in all cases, any such event described in this Section 6.1 will not be determined to constitute a Change in Control unless the event constitutes either a change in ownership, change in effective control or change in the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of the Company, as such terms are described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(5).

6.2 Limitation on Change in Control Payments. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that it is determined by an independent accounting firm chosen by mutual agreement of the parties that any economic benefit, payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of Executive, whether paid, payable, distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise (a Payment), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) (such excise tax referred to in this Agreement as the Excise Tax), then the value of any such Payments payable under this Agreement which constitute parachute payments under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, as determined by the independent accounting firm, will be reduced so that the present value of all Payments (calculated in accordance with Section 280G of the Code and the regulations thereunder), in the aggregate, is equal to 2.99 times Executive's base amount, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code.

6.3 For purposes of this Section 6, in addition to the definition above, Good Reason will also include (i) any material adverse change in Executive's title, duties or reporting responsibilities and (ii) with respect to Executive's title, duties, reporting responsibilities, compensation levels and situs of employment in effect after the expiration of the Term, any material adverse change in such title, duties, reporting responsibilities, compensation levels and situs of employment from those in effect immediately prior to the expiration of the Term.

7. Restrictions and Obligations of Executive.

7.1 Non-Disparagement. The Company will not at any time (whether during or after the Term) cause or assist the then-current Chief Executive Officer or any of its then-current directors to publish or communicate, to any person or entity any Disparaging remarks, comments or statements concerning Executive. Disparaging remarks, comments or statements are those that impugn the character, honesty, integrity, morality, business acumen or abilities in connection with any aspect of the operation of business of the individual or entity being disparaged.

7.2 Confidentiality. During the course of Executive's employment, Executive has had and will have access to certain trade secrets and confidential information relating to the Company and the Related Companies which is not readily available from sources outside the Company. The parties agree that the business in which the Company engages is highly sales-oriented and the goodwill established between Executive and the Company's customers and potential customers is a valuable and legitimate business interest worthy of protection under this Agreement. Executive recognizes that, by virtue of Executive's employment by the Company, Executive is granted otherwise prohibited access to the Company's confidential and proprietary data which is not known to its competitors and which has independent economic value to the Company and that Executive will gain an intimate knowledge of the Company's reinsurance business and its policies, customers, employees and trade secrets, and of other confidential, proprietary, privileged or secret information of the Company and its clients (collectively, all such nonpublic information is referred to as Confidential Information). This Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to, data relating to the Company's marketing and servicing programs, procedures and techniques, business, management and personnel strategies, analytic tools and processes, the criteria and formulae used by the Company in pricing its insurance products and claims management, loss control and information management services, the Company's computer system, reinsurance marketing program and the skill of marketing and selling products, the structure and pricing of special reinsurance products or packages that the Company has negotiated with various underwriters, lists of prospects, customer lists and renewals, the identity, authority and responsibilities of key contacts at clients' accounts, the composition and organization of clients' business, the peculiar risks inherent in a client's operations, highly sensitive details concerning the structure, conditions and extent of a client's existing insurance and reinsurance coverages, policy expiration dates and premium amounts, commission rates, risk management service arrangements, loss histories and other data showing clients' particularized insurance requirements and preferences.

Except as required by law or an order of a court or governmental agency with jurisdiction, Executive will not, during the Term or any time thereafter, disclose any Confidential Information, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity for any reason or purpose whatsoever, nor will Executive use it in any way. Executive will take all reasonable steps to safeguard the Confidential Information and to protect it against disclosure, misuse, espionage, loss and theft. Executive understands and agrees that Executive will acquire no rights to any such Confidential Information.

At the Company's request from time to time and upon the termination of Executive's employment for any reason, Executive will promptly deliver to the Company all copies and embodiments, in whatever form, of all Confidential Information in Executive's possession or within Executive's control (including, but not limited to, memoranda, records, notes, plans, photographs, manuals, notebooks, documentation, program listings, flow charts, magnetic media, disks, diskettes, tapes and all other materials containing any Confidential Information) irrespective of the location or form of such material. 7.3 Non-Solicitation or Hire. During the Term and for a period of twelve (12) months following the termination of Executive's employment for any reason, Executive will not directly or indirectly solicit or attempt to solicit or induce, directly or indirectly, (1) any party who is a client, customer or policyholder of the Company or a Related Company, or who was a client, customer or policyholder of the Company or a Related Company at any time during the one (1)-year period immediately prior to the date of termination, for the purpose of marketing, selling or providing to any such party any services or products offered by or available from the Company or a Related Company and (2) any employee of the Company or a Related Company or any person who was an employee of the Company or a Related Company during the one (1)-year period immediately prior to the date Executive's employment terminates to terminate such employee's employment relationship with the Company or a Related Company, in either case, to enter into a similar relationship with Executive or any other person or any entity in competition with the Company or a Related Company. During the Term and for a period of one (1)-year following the termination of Executive's employment for any reason, Executive will not enter into an employment relationship, directly or indirectly, with any employee of the Company or a Related Company or any person who was an employee of the Company or a Related Company during the one (1)-year period immediately prior to the date Executive's employment terminates.

7.4 Non-Competition. During the Term and for a period of twelve (12) months following Executive's termination of employment for any reason, Executive will not, whether individually, as a director, manager, member, stockholder, partner, owner, employee, consultant or agent of any business, or in any other capacity, other than on behalf of the Company or a Related Company, organize, establish, own, operate, manage, control, engage in, participate in, invest in, permit Executive's name to be used by, act as a consultant or advisor to, render services for (alone or in association with any person, firm, corporation or business organization) or otherwise assist any person or entity that engages in or owns, invests in, operates, manages or controls any venture or enterprise which engages or proposes to engage in any business conducted by the Company or a Related Company during the one (1)-year period immediately prior to the date Executive's employment terminates.

8.3 Absence of Litigation. Within the 5-year period ending on the Effective Date, Executive has not been involved in any proceeding, claim, lawsuit or investigation alleging wrongdoing by Executive in connection with any prior employer before any court or public or private arbitration board or panel.

9. Remedies: Specific Performance. The parties acknowledge and agree that Executive's breach or threatened breach of any of the restrictions set forth in Section 7 will result in irreparable and continuing damage to the Company and the Related Companies for which there may be no adequate remedy at law and that the Company and the Related Companies are entitled to equitable relief, including specific performance and injunctive relief as remedies for any such breach or threatened or attempted breach. Executive consents to the grant of an injunction (temporary or otherwise) against Executive or the entry of any other court order against Executive prohibiting and enjoining Executive from violating, or directing Executive to comply with, any provision of Section 7. The rate of interest shall be the applicable short-term federal rate applicable under Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code for the month in which the date of Executive's termination or resignation occurs. Such interest shall be paid at the same time that the Catch-Up Amount is paid. If Executive dies on or after the date of Executive's termination or resignation and prior to the Short-Term Deferral Date, any amount delayed pursuant to this Section 10.1 shall be paid to Executive's estate or beneficiary, as applicable, together with interest, within 30 days following the date of Executive's death.

Table of Contents5.6 Termination in Connection with a Change in Control.

(a) Payment. In the event that, in connection with a Change in Control (as defined below) during the Term, Executive's employment with the Company is involuntarily terminated by the Company other than for Cause or if Executive resigns for Good Reason upon or within twenty-four (24) months following such Change in Control (notwithstanding the expiration of the Term), then, in lieu of any severance or other amounts payable by the Company under Section 5 of this Agreement or otherwise in connection with Executive's termination of employment, the Company or its successor shall pay Executive no later than the sixtieth day following such termination of employment in connection with a Change in Control a cash lump sum amount equal to twenty-four (24) months of Executive's Base Salary at the time of such Change in Control. In addition, upon a Change in Control, all options held by Executive shall vest and become immediately exercisable. For purposes of this Agreement, a Change in Control shall be deemed to have occurred if (1) there shall be consummated (A) any consolidation or merger in which the Company is not the continuing or surviving corporation or pursuant to which shares of the Company's common stock would be converted into cash, securities or other property, other than a consolidation or a merger having the same proportionate ownership of common stock of the surviving corporation immediately after the consolidation or merger or (B) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions other than in the ordinary course of business of the Company) of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company to any corporation, person or other entity which is not a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, or (2) any person, group, corporation or other entity shall acquire beneficial ownership (as determined pursuant to Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and rules and regulations promulgated hereunder) of 50% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock; provided, however, that in all cases, any such event described in this Section 5.6(a) will not be determined to constitute a Change in Control unless the event constitutes either a change in ownership, change in effective control or change in the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of the Company, as such terms are described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(5).

(b) Limitation on Change in Control Payments. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that it is determined by an independent accounting firm chosen by mutual agreement of the parties that any economic benefit, payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of Executive, whether paid, payable, distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise (a Payment), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), then the value of any such Payments payable under this Agreement which constitute parachute payments under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, as determined by the independent accounting firm, will be reduced so that the present value of all Payments (calculated in accordance with Section 280G of the Code and the regulations thereunder), in the aggregate, is equal to 2.99 times Executive's base amount, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code.

(c) Special Definition of Good Reason. For purposes of this Section 5.6, in addition to the definition above, Good Reason will also include (i) any material adverse change in Executive's title, duties or reporting responsibilities and (ii) with respect to Executive's title, duties, reporting responsibilities, compensation levels and situs of employment in effect after the expiration of the Term, any material adverse change in such title, duties, reporting responsibilities, compensation levels and situs of employment from those in effect immediately prior to the expiration of the Term.
