Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 13, 2014, (i) Targa Resources Corp. (the Company or TRC) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the ATLS Merger Agreement) by and among the Company, Targa GP Merger Sub LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and newly formed, wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (GP Merger Sub), Atlas Energy, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (ATLS) and Atlas Energy GP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the general partner of ATLS and (ii) Targa Resources Partners LP (the Partnership or TRP) and the Company entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the APL Merger Agreement) by and among the Company, the Partnership, Targa Resources GP LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the general partner of the Partnership (TRP GP), Trident MLP Merger Sub LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a newly formed, wholly owned subsidiary of the Partnership (MLP Merger Sub), ATLS, Atlas Pipeline Partners, L.P, a Delaware limited partnership (APL) and Atlas Pipeline Partners GP LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the general partner of APL. Upon the terms and conditions set forth in the ATLS Merger Agreement, GP Merger Sub will be merged with and into ATLS, with ATLS continuing as the surviving entity and as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Upon the terms and conditions set forth in the APL Merger Agreement, MLP Merger Sub will be merged with and into APL, with APL continuing as the surviving entity and as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Partnership.

In addition, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the ATLS Merger Agreement, ATLS has agreed that it will, pursuant to a Separation and Distribution Agreement, substantially in the form attached to the ATLS Merger Agreement (the Separation Agreement), (1) transfer its assets and liabilities other than those related to its Atlas Pipeline Partners segment to a limited partnership or limited liability company (New Atlas) and (2) immediately prior to the ATLS Merger, effect a pro rata distribution to the ATLS unitholders of New Atlas common units representing a 100% interest in New Atlas (the Distribution and collectively with the ATLS Merger and the APL Merger, the Transactions).

Each of the Transactions is cross-conditioned (subject to permitted waiver) on either the consummation of each of the other Transactions or the parties' agreement that such other Transactions will occur substantially concurrently with the other Transactions.

ATLS Merger Agreement

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the ATLS Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the ATLS Merger (the ATLS Effective Time), holders of ATLS common units (other than certain common units held by TRC or ATLS or their wholly owned subsidiaries, which will be cancelled) will have the right to receive (1) 0.1809 of a share of TRC common stock, par value $0.001 per share (TRC Common Stock) and such amount, the ATLS Stock Consideration), and (2) $9.12 in cash, without interest (the ATLS Cash Consideration) and together with the ATLS Stock Consideration, the ATLS Merger Consideration), for each ATLS common unit. In addition, immediately prior to the ATLS Effective Time, TRC will make a payment of $88.0 million to ATLS Merger in respect of a repayment of a portion of ATLS' outstanding indebtedness under its credit agreements. In connection with the ATLS and APL Merger, TRC and TRP will pay approximately $190 million and $65 million, respectively, for transaction fees and expenses and change of control payments. Immediately after the ATLS Effective Time, ATLS will also distribute its equity interest in ATLS GP to TRC.

All outstanding ATLS equity awards, whether vested or unvested, will be adjusted in connection with the Distribution on the terms and conditions set forth in an Employee Matters Agreement to be entered into by ATLS and New Atlas substantially in the form attached to the Separation Agreement (the Employee Matters Agreement). Following the Distribution-related adjustment and at the ATLS Effective Time, each outstanding ATLS option and ATLS phantom unit award, whether vested or unvested, held by a person who will become an employee of New Atlas will become fully vested (to the extent not vested) and will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the ATLS Merger Consideration in respect of each ATLS common unit underlying the ATLS option or phantom unit award (in the case of options, net of the applicable exercise price). Each outstanding vested ATLS option held by an employee of the companies being transferred to TRC and TRP in connection with the Transactions (the Midstream Companies) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the ATLS Merger Consideration in respect of each ATLS common unit underlying the vested ATLS option, net of the applicable exercise price. Each outstanding unvested ATLS option and each outstanding ATLS phantom unit award held by an employee of the Midstream Companies will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive (1) the ATLS Cash Consideration in respect of each ATLS common unit underlying such ATLS option or phantom unit award and (2) a TRC restricted stock award with respect to a number of shares of TRC Common Stock equal to the product of the ATLS Stock Consideration multiplied by the number of ATLS common units underlying such ATLS option or phantom unit award (in the case of options, net of the applicable exercise price). Following the ATLS Effective Time, each TRC restricted stock award will continue to have the same material terms and conditions and the same vesting conditions as applied to the corresponding ATLS phantom unit award immediately prior to the ATLS Effective Time, and will settle in shares of TRC common stock upon vesting.

The ATLS Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both ATLS and TRC, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to (1) the conduct of its business during the interim period between the execution of the ATLS Merger Agreement and the ATLS Effective Time, (2) the obligation to use reasonable best efforts to cause the ATLS Merger to be consummated and to obtain expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), subject to certain exceptions, (3) the obligation of ATLS, subject to certain exceptions, to call a meeting of its unitholders to approve the ATLS Merger Agreement and the ATLS Merger and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its unitholders approve the ATLS Merger Agreement and the ATLS Merger, (4) the obligation of TRC to call a meeting of the holders of the TRC Common Stock to approve the issuance of TRC Common Stock in the Merger (the TRC Stock Issuance) and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that the holders of the TRC Common Stock approve the TRC Stock Issuance and (5) obligations relating to the Distribution, including the obligation to file a Registration Statement on Form 10 regarding New Atlas and the Distribution. The ATLS Merger Agreement also prohibits ATLS from soliciting competing acquisition proposals. However, ATLS may provide information to, and negotiate with, a third party that makes an unsolicited acquisition proposal if the board of directors of ATLS GP determines that such acquisition proposal could reasonably result in a Superior Proposal (as defined in the ATLS Merger Agreement).

Completion of the ATLS Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including, among others, (1) approval of the ATLS Merger Agreement and the ATLS Merger by holders of a majority of the outstanding ATLS common units, (2) approval of the TRC Share Issuance by a majority of the holders of TRC Common Stock voting a special meeting to approve the TRC Share Issuance, (3) expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act, (4) satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the APL Merger Agreement and the parties to the APL Merger Agreement standing ready to consummate the APL Merger substantially concurrently with the ATLS Merger, (5) the consummation of the Distribution, (6) repayment of certain indebtedness under ATLS existing credit agreements, (7) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party subject to a material adverse effect standard (as defined in the ATLS Merger Agreement) and (8) material compliance by the other party with its obligations under the ATLS Merger Agreement.

The ATLS Merger Agreement provides for certain termination rights for both ATLS and TRC, including provisions permitting either ATLS or TRC to terminate the ATLS Merger Agreement upon the termination of the APL Merger Agreement. The ATLS Merger Agreement further provides that upon termination of the APL Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, ATLS or TRC, as applicable, will be obligated to pay the other party a termination fee of one of the following (depending on circumstances termination): (1) $53,400,000, (2) a payment in respect of the other party's expenses of $17,800,000, or (3) fifty percent (50%) of such termination fee or expense payment.

The summary of the ATLS Merger Agreement in this Current Report on Form 8-K does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the full text of the ATLS Merger Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference. The ATLS Merger Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to this report in order to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other financial information about TRC, ATLS, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the ATLS Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of the parties to the ATLS Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the ATLS Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties or covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of TRC, ATLS, or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the ATLS Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by TRC or ATLS or their subsidiaries or affiliates.

APL Merger Agreement

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the APL Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the APL Merger (the APL Effective Time), holders of APL common units (other than certain common units held by TRP or APL or their wholly-owned subsidiaries, which will be cancelled) will have the right to receive (1) 0.5846 TRP common units (the APL Unit Consideration) and (2) $1.26 in cash, without interest (the APL Cash Consideration) and together with the APL Unit Consideration, the APL Merger Consideration) for each APL common unit. APL has agreed to exercise its right under the certificate of designations of the APL Class D Preferred Units, to convert all APL Class D Preferred Units that are issued and outstanding as of the record date for the APL unitholders meeting (which will be held to vote on the APL Merger) into APL common units. APL has agreed to exercise its right under the certificate of designations of the APL Class E Preferred Units to redeem the APL Class E Preferred Units immediately prior to the APL Effective Time, and TRP has agreed to deposit the funds for such redemption with the paying agent.

In connection with the APL Merger, each outstanding APL phantom unit award held by an employee of New Atlas will become fully vested and will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the APL Merger Consideration in respect of each APL common unit underlying the APL phantom unit award. Each outstanding APL phantom unit award held by an employee of the Midstream Companies will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive (1) the APL Cash Consideration in respect of each APL common unit underlying such APL phantom unit award and (2) a TRP phantom unit award with respect to a number of TRP common units equal to the product of the APL Unit Consideration multiplied by the number of APL common units underlying such APL phantom unit award. Following the APL Effective Time, the TRP phantom unit award will continue to have the same material terms and conditions and the same vesting conditions as applied to the corresponding APL phantom unit award immediately prior to the APL Effective Time, and will settle in TRP common units upon vesting.

The APL Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both APL and TRP, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to (1) the conduct of its business during the interim period between the execution of the APL Merger Agreement and the APL Effective Time, (2) the obligation to use reasonable best efforts to cause the APL Merger to be consummated and to obtain expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act, subject to certain exceptions, and (3) the obligation of APL to call a meeting of its common unitholders to approve the APL Merger Agreement and the APL Merger and, subject to certain exceptions, to recommend that its common unitholders approve the APL Merger Agreement and the APL Merger. The APL Merger Agreement also prohibits APL from soliciting competing acquisition proposals. However, APL may provide information to, and negotiate with, a third party that makes an unsolicited acquisition proposal if the managing board of APL GP (upon the recommendation of the conflicts committee of the board) determines that such acquisition proposal could reasonably result in a Superior Proposal (as defined in the APL Merger Agreement).

Completion of the APL Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including, among others, (1) approval of the APL Merger Agreement and the APL Merger by holders of a majority of the outstanding APL common units, (2) expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act, (3) consummation of the ATLS Merger, (4) execution by TRP and TRP GP of an amendment to the partnership agreement of TRP to reduce aggregate distributions to TRC, as the holder of TRP's incentive distribution rights, by (a) $9,375,000 per quarter during the first four quarters following the APL Effective Time, (b) $6,250,000 per quarter for the next four quarters, (c) $2,500,000 per quarter for the next four quarters and (d) $1,250,000 per quarter for the next four quarters, with the amount of such reductions to be distributed pro rata to the holders of TRP outstanding common units, (4) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party subject to a material adverse effect standard (as defined in the APL Merger Agreement), (5) material compliance by the other party with its obligations under the APL Merger Agreement and (6) receipt by such party of an opinion from its counsel regarding certain U.S. federal income tax matters.

The APL Merger Agreement provides for certain termination rights for both APL and TRP, including provisions permitting either ATLS or TRC to terminate the ATLS Merger Agreement upon the termination of the APL Merger Agreement. The APL Merger Agreement further provides that upon termination of the APL Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, APL or TRP, as applicable, will be obligated to pay the other party a termination fee of one of the following (depending on circumstances termination) $122,900,000, (2) a payment in respect of the other parties expenses of $40,900,000 or (3) or fifty percent (50%) of such termination fee or expense payment.

Edgar Filing: Targa Resources Corp. - Form 8-K

The summary of the APL Merger Agreement in this Current Report on Form 8-K does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the full text of the APL Merger Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 2.2 hereto and incorporated herein by reference. The APL Merger Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to this report in order to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other financial information about TRP, APL or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the APL Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of the parties to the APL Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the APL Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties or covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of TRP, APL, or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the APL Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by TRP or APL or their subsidiaries or affiliates.

Separation Agreement

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Separation Agreement, prior to the closing of the ATLS Merger, ATLS will transfer its assets and liabilities other than those related to its Atlas Pipeline Partners segment, to New Atlas. New Atlas will assume the historical and future liabilities associated with such businesses, as well as certain other liabilities related to the Transactions. Under the Separation Agreement, New Atlas will indemnify ATLS and its remaining subsidiaries against various claims and liabilities relating to the past operation of the New ATLS business. At or prior to the distribution, New Atlas will also enter into one or more financing arrangements pursuant to which it will borrow at least $150,000,000 and transfer $150,000,000 to ATLS as a cash distribution to be used to repay certain of ATLS outstanding indebtedness. ATLS has obtained a commitment letter with respect to this financing and the cash distribution to ATLS. After the transfer of assets and assumption of liabilities (the Separation) and immediately prior to the closing of the ATLS Merger, ATLS will effect the Distribution.

Completion of the Distribution will be subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the consummation of the ATLS Merger. Completion of the Distribution will also be subject to other customary closing conditions, including the effectiveness of the Form 10 and the receipt by ATLS of certain cash payments from TRC and New Atlas.

ATLS and New Atlas will make certain representations and warranties in the Separation Agreement and will agree to certain covenants, including a one-year, mutual non-solicitation covenant.

The Separation Agreement will terminate without further action before the Distribution upon termination of the ATLS Merger Agreement. Subject to the terms and conditions of the ATLS Merger Agreement, the Separation Agreement may not be terminated prior to the Distribution without the mutual consent of ATLS and TRC. Neither ATLS nor New Atlas will be permitted to amend, waive supplement or modify any provision of the Separation Agreement in a manner that is materially adverse to TRC, ATLS or their affiliates or that would prevent or materially impede consummation of the ATLS Merger without first obtaining TRC's consent.

The summary of the Separation Agreement in this Current Report on Form 8-K does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the full text of the form of Separation Agreement attached as an annex to the ATLS Merger Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Employee Matters Agreement

Under the Employee Matters Agreement, certain employees who currently are employed by ATLS will be transferred to New Atlas in connection with the Separation and the Distribution. Certain pre-closing liabilities attributable to such transferred employees will generally be assumed by New Atlas and its post-closing affiliates. New Atlas will also assume or establish benefit plans for such transferred employees, including a 401(k) plan and health and welfare benefit plans, as of the effective time of the Distribution. The Employee Matters Agreement will also provide for the adjustment, in connection with the Distribution, of options to acquire ATLS common units and ATLS phantom units granted under ATLS equity plans.

The summary of the Employee Matters Agreement in this Current Report on Form 8-K does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the full text of the form of Employee Matters Agreement attached as an exhibit to the form of Separation Agreement attached as an annex to the ATLS Merger Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

The unitholders party to the voting and support agreements beneficially own (including equity awards) approximately 6% of the outstanding common units of ATLS.
