This Amendment No. 4 to Schedule 14D-9 amends and supplements the Schedule 14D-9 previously filed by Move, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( Move or the Company ), with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 15, 2014 (as originally filed, the Schedule 14D-9 and as amended, the Statement ), relating to the offer by News Corporation, a Delaware corporation ( Parent ), and Magpie Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Parent ( Purchaser ), to purchase all the issued and outstanding shares of Move's common stock, $0.001 par value per share (the Shares ), for a purchase price of $21.00 per Share in cash, without interest, subject to any required withholding of taxes, if any, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the offer to purchase dated October 15, 2014, and in the related letter of transmittal. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Statement. Except as noted below, no changes are being made to the Statement. All page references below are to the Schedule 14D-9.

Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation.

The second and third paragraphs under the heading (b) Background and Reason for the Recommendation

(i) Background of Offer and Merger on page 13 is amended and replaced by the following:

In early 2013, Company A made a non-binding proposal to acquire Move, ultimately proposing a price of $12.50 per share in a mix of cash and stock. Discussions terminated due to an inability to reach agreement on price. As part of these discussions, Move and Company A entered into a confidentiality agreement. Given the fact that Company A was in the same competitive space, Move did not provide any due diligence materials.

On October 2, 2013, representative of Parent contacted Move to request a meeting between Mr. Robert Thomson, Chief Executive Officer of Parent, and Mr. Steve Berkowitz, our Chief Executive Officer. On October 5, 2013, they met. Mr. Berkowitz and Ms. Rachel Glaser, our Chief Financial Officer, met with Mr. Thomson and Mr. Bedi A. Singh, Chief Financial Officer of Parent to discuss a potential strategic transaction. None of the board or executives at Move had a prior business relationship with any officer or director of News Corp.

The last paragraph under the heading (b) Background and Reason for the Recommendation (i) Background of Offer and Merger on page 13 is amended and replaced by the following:

On January 6, 2014, Mr. Hanauer met with Mr. Thomson, at which time Mr. Thomson informed Mr. Hanauer that Parent would not be moving forward at that time; however, his hope was that there would be interest in pursuing a potential transaction in the future. Parent decided that the time was not right for a transaction at this point.

The first paragraph under the heading (b) Background and Reason for the Recommendation (i) Background of Offer and Merger on page 14 is amended and replaced by the following:

From October 2013 through February 2014, Move also had meetings and discussions with Company B about a possible transaction. During that time, representatives of Company B, met with Mr. Hanauer, Mr. Berkowitz, and other members of our management team regarding a potential transaction and preliminary diligence matters. Representatives of Company B, Mr. Hanauer, Mr. Berkowitz and a representative of our management also met with the NAR during November 2013 to discuss a possible transaction. After further discussions between our company and Company B in February, Company B declined to pursue a transaction. Company B declined to pursue a transaction with Move due to the timing of the potential transaction and due to its own changing internal circumstances.

The fifth paragraph under the heading (b) Background and Reason for the Recommendation (i) Background of Offer and Merger on page 15 is amended and replaced by the following:

Our board of directors continued its evaluation of Parent's latest proposal and possible response at a board meeting on August 16, 2014, also attended by representatives of Morgan Stanley, Cooley and our management team. Having further reviewed factors relevant to Move's valuation with Morgan Stanley, including but not limited to, the risk of continuing as a standalone company, and in order to maximize shareholder value, our board of directors directed Morgan Stanley to propose to Parent a price of $21 per share, with a customary no shop and termination fee, and on August 16, 2014, Morgan Stanley communicated to Goldman Sachs this proposal.

The eighth paragraph under the heading (b) Background and Reason for the Recommendation (i) Background of Offer and Merger on page 15 is amended and replaced by the following:

Parent submitted a revised non-binding indication of interest on August 19, 2014 contemplating a price of $21 per share. Also on that day, Messrs. Hanauer and Berkowitz spoke with representatives of Morgan Stanley regarding contacting a list of other potential acquirors, which list was developed after taking into account past discussions with potentially interested parties, Parent, Company A and Company B, and the collective view of Morgan Stanley and Messrs. Hanauer and Berkowitz as to the likelihood of interest and ability of other potential parties to engage in a transaction.

The last two paragraphs under the heading (b) Background and Reason for the Recommendation (i) Background of Offer and Merger on page 15 is amended and replaced by the following:

On August 22, 2014, our board of directors held a meeting, also attended by representatives of Morgan Stanley, Cooley and our management team, in which our board of directors, with input from our management and financial and legal advisors, discussed and considered the revised proposal from Parent as well as the list of other potential acquirors to be contacted, which included, among others, Company A and Company B. After representatives of Morgan Stanley left the meeting, our board discussed entering into a new engagement letter with Morgan Stanley to take into account the difference in size of a potential transaction. Our board finalized its revised engagement terms with Morgan Stanley in a letter that was executed on August 25, 2014, which letter superseded the terms of the previous Morgan Stanley engagement letter.

Later in the day on August 22, 2014, at the direction of our board of directors, representatives of Morgan Stanley began their outreach to three other potential strategic buyers (none of which were Company A or Company B) selected based on strategic fit, business model fit, capacity to pay and acceptability to the NAR, which held a consent right with respect to any change of control of our company. Move did not contact Company A or Company B, because in the board of director's judgment, due to changed circumstances, neither company would likely be interested in a potential transaction with Move. Our board of directors believed that strategic buyers would be the most likely to pay the highest price given the availability of potential synergies. Of the three other potential buyers contacted by Morgan Stanley, none of them expressed an interest in entering into discussions with us regarding a possible strategic transaction.

Item 8. Additional Information.

Item 8 of the Schedule 14D-9 is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following paragraphs in the section heading Legal Proceedings :

On November 7, 2014, following arms-length negotiations, Move and the parties to the complaint filed by Jamie Suprina on October 24, 2014 (the Settling Parties ), entered into a memorandum of understanding (the MOU ) providing for the settlement in principle of all claims asserted in the complaint filed by Jamie Suprina on October 24, 2014 (collectively, the Litigation ) on a class-wide basis, subject to certain confirmatory discovery by the plaintiffs in the Litigation on the approval of the Santa Clara County Superior Court. Move and the named defendant in the Litigation entered into the MOU solely to avoid the costs, risks and uncertainties inherent in litigation and without admitting any liability or wrongdoing, and vigorously denied, and continue to vigorously deny, that they have committed any violation of law or engaged in any of the wrongful acts that were alleged in the Litigation. The MOU outlines the terms of the Settling Parties agreement in principle to settle and release all claims which were or could have been asserted in the Litigation. Pursuant to the MOU, Move agreed that it would make certain supplemental disclosures in the Statement, and the parties agreed to promptly execute a stipulation of settlement that will be presented to the Santa Clara County Superior Court for final approval. The stipulation will provide for, among other things, the conditional certification of the Litigation as a non-opt-out class action. The stipulation of settlement will provide for the release of any and all claims arising from the Offer and the Merger, subject to approval by the Santa Clara County Superior Court. The release will not become effective until the stipulation of settlement is approved by the Santa Clara County Superior Court, and there can be no assurance that the Settling Parties will ultimately enter into a stipulation of settlement or that the Santa Clara County Superior Court will approve the settlement. In such event, or if the Offer or Merger is not consummated for any reason, the proposed settlement will be null and void and of no force and effect. Payments made in connection with the settlement, which are subject to court approval, are not expected to be material. The settlement will not affect the settlement to be received by Move's stockholders who accept the Offer or to be received by Move's stockholders in the Merger or the timing of the Offer or the Merger.

Move and the named defendants in the litigation, and Parent and Purchaser, believe that the lawsuits are without merit and that no further disclosure is required under applicable laws to supplement the Offer to Purchase or the Schedule 14D-9 filed by Move on October 15, 2014, as amended thereafter; however, to eliminate the burden, expense and uncertainties inherent in such litigation, and without admitting any liability or wrongdoing, Move has agreed, pursuant to the terms of the MOU, to make certain supplemental disclosures in the Schedule 14D-9, and Parent and Purchaser have elected to make certain conforming changes to the Offer to Purchase. Nothing in such supplemental disclosures or conforming changes shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the supplemental disclosures or conforming changes set forth in the Schedule 14D-9 or the Offer to Purchase.

The outcome of the lawsuits against Move and the named defendants cannot be predicted with any certainty. An adverse judgment for monetary damages could have a material adverse effect on the operations and liquidity of Move. A preliminary injunction could delay or jeopardize the completion of the Offer and/or the Merger, and an adverse judgment granting permanent injunctive relief could indefinitely enjoin completion of the Offer and/or Merger. All of the defendants believe that the claims asserted against them in the lawsuits are without merit.

SIGNATURE

After due inquiry and to the best of my knowledge and belief, I certify that the information set forth in this statement is true, complete and correct.
