Explanatory Note

This Amendment No. 1 on Form 10-K/A (this "Amendment") amends Cvent, Inc.'s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, originally filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, on March 1, 2016 (the "Original Filing"). We are amending and refiling Part III to include information required by Items 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 because our definitive proxy statement will not be filed within 120 days after December 31, 2015, the end of the fiscal year covered by our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Pursuant to the rules of the SEC, we have also included as exhibits currently dated certifications required under Section 302 of The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Because no financial statements are contained within this Amendment, we are not including certifications pursuant to Section 906 of The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. We are amending and refiling Part IV to reflect the inclusion of those certifications, along with any changes to Part IV that occurred after the date of the Original Filing.

In addition, we updated the following items on the cover page of this Amendment: (i) the representation regarding delinquent filers pursuant to Item 405 of Regulation S-K and (ii) the deletion of the reference to our proxy statement.

Except as described above, no other changes have been made to the Original Filing. Except as otherwise indicated herein, this Amendment continues to speak as of the date of the Original Filing, and we have not updated the disclosures contained therein to reflect any events that occurred subsequent to the date of the Original Filing. The filing of this Annual Report on Form 10-K/A is not a representation that any statements contained in items of our Annual Report on Form 10-K other than Part III, Items 10 through 14, Part IV and the aforementioned portions of the cover page are true or complete as of any date subsequent to the Original Filing.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our directors, senior executives and beneficial owners of greater than 10 percent of our common stock (the Reporting Persons) to file reports of holdings and transactions in Cvent common stock with the SEC and the New York Stock Exchange.

Edgar Filing: CVENT INC - Form 10-K/A

Based solely on these reports and other information provided to us by the Reporting Persons, we believe that 90 such reports were required to be filed by the Reporting Persons during fiscal year 2015. Of these, we believe that 88 reports were timely filed. We believe that a Form 4 reporting a sale of shares by Dwayne Sye, Chief Information Officer of the Company, was filed three business days late on February 23, 2015, due to inadvertent error. We have also been informed by Insight Venture Partners (Insight) that entities affiliated with Insight undertook a related series of four sales of our common stock from December 9 to December 14, 2015 and, due to an oversight, reported those sales in a Form 4 filed on December 15, 2015, two business days late. Jeffrey Lieberman, as a Managing Director of Insight, may be deemed to be an indirect beneficial owner of the Insight entities that made these sales.

The stock options will become exercisable, and the restricted stock units will vest, upon the following schedule: 50% on September 28, 2017; 25% on September 28, 2018; and 25% on September 28, 2019.

Potential Payments upon Termination or Change-In-Control

As described above in Note 7 to the Summary Compensation Table, Ms. Russo and the Company have executed an Offer Letter governing the terms of Ms. Russo's employment as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The Offer Letter provides for certain benefits to be paid to Ms. Russo in the event that (a) her employment is terminated without cause, (b) she resigns for good reason or (c) the Company undergoes a change in control:

If the Company undergoes a change in control during Ms. Russo's employment, 50% of Ms. Russo's outstanding unvested equity awards will automatically vest. Further, if Ms. Russo is terminated without cause or resigns her position with good reason (each as defined in the Offer Letter) within 12 months following a change in control of the Company, Ms. Russo will be entitled to receive: (a) a lump sum payment equal to 12 months of her base salary and her full target incentive bonus; (b) reimbursement of her monthly COBRA premiums for up to one year; and (c) acceleration of the remaining 50% of her outstanding equity awards.

If Ms. Russo's employment is terminated without cause or in the event that Ms. Russo resigns from her position for good reason, each as defined in the Offer Letter, she will be entitled to receive: (a) a lump sum payment equal to 12 months of her base salary and a prorated portion of her target incentive bonus (provided, however, that in no case will the prorated bonus be less than three months); (b) reimbursement of her monthly COBRA premiums for up to one year; and (c) if such separation occurs (i) prior to September 28, 2016, the acceleration of vesting of 25% of her new-hire equity award or (ii) after September 28, 2016, a prorated portion of all outstanding unvested equity awards under any equity incentive plan of the Company will automatically vest. If Ms. Russo's employment is terminated due to her death or disability prior to September 28, 2016, then 25% of her outstanding equity grants will automatically vest.

Table of Contents

In the course of negotiating these provisions with Ms. Russo, the Compensation Committee considered the risks and benefits of these arrangements. The Compensation Committee also considered relevant market data and the strategic importance of the Chief Financial Officer position to the Company's business objectives. Given the competitive nature of the market for executive talent, the Compensation Committee determined that reasonable severance and change-in-control protections would be necessary in order for us to hire a qualified Chief Financial Officer. Further, we believe that change-in-control protections for senior executives benefit Cvent by incentivizing management to focus on shareholder interests in the face of events that may result in a change-in-control, rather than worrying consciously or unconsciously about the individual implications of such events.

Director Compensation

None of our non-employee directors was compensated for service on the board of directors prior to July 2013. In July 2013, we adopted a non-employee director compensation policy that became effective upon the closing of our IPO in August 2013. Under that policy:

Initial Equity Award. Each person who first becomes a non-employee director will be granted an award of restricted stock units with a target value of $100,000 at the grant date.

Annual Equity Award. Each non-employee director may be granted an award of equity on the date of the annual meeting of stockholders.

Annual Cash Retainer. Each non-employee director will receive an annual cash retainer of $35,000.

Audit Committee Chairperson Retainer Fee. Any non-employee director serving as the chairperson of the audit committee will receive an annual cash retainer of $25,000.

Committee Member Fee. Each non-employee director serving as a member of the audit, compensation or nominating and governance committee will receive an annual cash retainer of $5,000.

For the purposes of this policy, none of Messrs. Bansal, Florence or Lieberman shall be deemed to be a non-employee director, until they no longer directly or indirectly beneficially own 5% or more of the outstanding shares of our capital stock. Accordingly, none of these three directors were compensated for service on the board of directors in 2015.

We also reimburse director expenses for attending meetings of the board of directors.

The following table sets forth information regarding the compensation earned for service on our board of directors during the year ended December 31, 2015 by our directors who were not also our employees. Reggie K. Aggarwal, our President and Chief Executive Officer, is also a director but does not receive any additional compensation for his services as a director. Mr. Aggarwal's compensation as an executive officer is set forth above at Item 11. Executive Compensation Summary Compensation Table.

Mr. Parker also holds 9,599 vested shares of common stock.

Compensation Risk

Our compensation programs are designed to balance risk and reward in relation to the Company's overall business strategy. Our management assesses and discusses with our Compensation Committee our compensation policies and practices for our employees as they relate to our risk management, and based upon this assessment, we believe that any risks arising from such policies and practices are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on us in the future.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Messrs. Lieberman, Bansal and Parker served as members of our Compensation Committee during 2015, and continue to serve on the committee at present. No member of the 2015 Compensation Committee has been an officer or employee of Cvent or any of our subsidiaries at any time. During 2015, none of our executive officers served as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of any other company that had or has one or more executive officers serving as a member of our Board or our Compensation Committee.

Table of ContentsBENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of April 25, 2016 for:

each beneficial owner of 5% or more of the outstanding shares of our common stock;

each of our directors;

each of our named executive officers; and all directors and executive officers as a group.

The number of shares of common stock beneficially owned by each person or entity is determined in accordance with the applicable rules of the SEC and includes voting or investment power with respect to shares of our common stock. The information is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Unless otherwise indicated, to our knowledge, all persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to their shares of common stock, except to the extent authority is shared by spouses under community property laws. The inclusion herein of any shares as beneficially owned does not constitute an admission of beneficial ownership. Except as otherwise indicated, the address of each person who is listed in this table is c/o Cvent, Inc., 1765 Greensboro Station Place, 7th Floor, Tysons Corner, VA 22102.

Applicable percentage ownership is based on 42,192,737 shares of common stock outstanding at April 25, 2016. In computing the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned by a person or entity and the percentage ownership of such person or entity, we deemed to be outstanding all shares of common stock subject to options held by the person that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of April 25, 2016. However, we did not deem such shares outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence
CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Policies and Procedures for Transactions with Related Persons

Our board of directors follows a related person transaction policy governing the policies and procedures for the review and approval or ratification of related person transactions. Related persons include any executive officer, director, nominee for director or a holder of more than five percent of our common stock, including any of their immediate family members and any entity owned or controlled by such persons. Related person transactions refers to any transaction, arrangement or relationship, or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships, in which we were or are to be a participant, the amount involved exceeds $120,000, and a related person had or will have a direct or indirect material interest, including, without limitation, purchases of goods or services by or from the related person or entities in which the related person has a material interest, indebtedness, guarantees of indebtedness, and employment by us of a related person, in each case subject to certain exceptions set forth in Item 404 of Regulation S-K of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Edgar Filing: CVENT INC - Form 10-K/A

The policy provides that in any related person transaction, our audit committee and board of directors shall consider all of the available material facts and circumstances of the transaction, including: the direct and indirect interests of the related persons; in the event the related person is a director (or immediate family member of a director or an entity with which a director is affiliated), the impact that the transaction will have on the director's independence; the risks, costs and benefits of the transaction to us; and whether any alternative transactions or sources for comparable services or products are available. After considering all such facts and circumstances, our audit committee and board of directors shall determine whether approval or ratification of the related person transaction is in our best interests. For example, if our audit committee determines that the proposed terms of a related person transaction are reasonable and at least as favorable as could have been obtained from unrelated third parties, it will recommend to our board of directors that such transaction be approved or ratified. In addition, if a related person transaction will compromise the independence of one of our directors, our audit committee may recommend that our board of directors reject the transaction if it could affect our ability to comply with securities laws and regulations or New York Stock Exchange listing requirements. The policies and procedures described in the foregoing for reviewing and approving related person transactions are not in writing. However, the charter for our audit committee provides that one of the committee's responsibilities is to review and approve in advance any proposed related person transactions.

Transactions and Relationships with Directors, Officers and 5% Stockholders

Other than the (a) compensation arrangements described above under Item 11. Executive Compensation and (b) indemnification agreements with our directors and officers described below under Limitations on Director and Officer Liability and Indemnification, since January 1, 2015 we have not entered into, and have no plans to enter into, any agreement in which a related party had or will have a direct or indirect material interest in an amount that exceeded or will exceed $120,000. For the purposes of the previous sentence, a related party is any director, nominee for director, executive officer or holder of more than five percent of our common stock, or any member of the immediate family of or entities affiliated with any of them.

Limitations on Director and Officer Liability and Indemnification

Our certificate of incorporation limits the liability of our directors to the maximum extent permitted by Delaware law. Delaware law provides that directors of a corporation will not be personally liable for monetary damages for breach of their fiduciary duties as directors, except liability for:

any breach of their duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders;

acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions; or any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws provide that we are required to indemnify our directors and officers, in each case to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. Any repeal of or modification to our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws may not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director or officer occurring prior to such amendment or repeal. Our bylaws also provide that we shall advance expenses incurred by a director or officer in advance of the final disposition of any action or proceeding, and permit us to secure insurance on behalf of any officer, director, employee or other agent for any liability arising out of his or her actions in connection with their services to us, regardless of whether our bylaws permit such indemnification.

We have entered into separate indemnification agreements with our directors and executive officers, in addition to the indemnification provided for in our bylaws. These agreements, among other things, provide that we will indemnify our directors and executive officers for certain expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and settlement amounts incurred by a director or executive officer in any action or proceeding arising out of such person's services as one of our directors or executive officers, or any other company or enterprise to which the person provides services at our request. We believe that these provisions and agreements are necessary to attract and retain qualified persons as directors and executive officers.

The limitation of liability and indemnification provisions contained in our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws may discourage stockholders from bringing a lawsuit against our directors for breach of their fiduciary duty. They may also reduce the likelihood of derivative litigation against our directors and officers, even though an action, if successful, might benefit us and other stockholders. Further, a stockholder's investment may be adversely affected to the extent that we pay the costs of settlement and damage awards against directors and officers as required by these indemnification provisions. There is no pending litigation or proceeding involving one of our directors or executive officers as to which indemnification is required or permitted, and we are not aware of any threatened litigation or proceeding that may result in a claim for indemnification.

Director Independence

A director shall be considered independent for purposes of serving on the Board if he or she meets the criteria for independence established by The New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). A director shall be considered independent for purposes of serving on a Board committee based on the definition of independence used in that committee's charter, which shall conform to any requirements established for such a committee by the NYSE rules and any applicable SEC rules.

The Board has determined that, except for Mr. Aggarwal as CEO, each of the directors of the Company has no material relationship with the Company and is independent within the meaning of the standards established by the NYSE, as currently in effect. In making that determination, the Board of Directors considered all relevant facts and circumstances, including the director's commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable and familial relationships. The Board also adopted and applied the following standards, which provide that a director will not be considered independent if:

the director was employed by the Company, or an immediate family member of the director was employed by the Company as an executive officer;

the director or an immediate family member received more than $120,000 per year in direct compensation from the Company, other than Board and committee fees, pensions or other forms of deferred compensation;

the director or an immediate family member had specified employment relationships with the Company's independent auditor;

the director or an immediate family member was part of an interlocking directorate in which the director or family member was employed as an executive officer of another company where any of the Company's executive officers served on the compensation committee;

the director is an employee, or an immediate family member is an executive officer, of a company that made payments to, or received payments from, the Company in excess of specified amounts during the preceding three years; or the director or the director's spouse is an executive officer of a nonprofit organization to which the Company made contributions in excess of specified amounts during the preceding three years.

In evaluating Tony Florence's and Jeffrey Lieberman's independence, the Board considered the percentage of the Company's capital stock previously held by entities affiliated with New Enterprise Associates and Insight Partners, of which Messrs. Florence and Lieberman are managing directors, respectively. Following our IPO, New Enterprise Associates and Insight each held over 10% of the outstanding stock of Cvent. While New Enterprise Associates and Insight have decreased their holdings over time, the Board believes that Mr. Lieberman and Mr. Florence continue to provide invaluable knowledge and experience to the Board. In evaluating Mr. Bansal's independence, the Board considered the percentage of the Company's capital stock beneficially owned by him. Under NYSE corporate governance standards, ownership of a significant amount of our stock, by itself, does not constitute a material relationship. After evaluating the facts and circumstances, the Board determined that these relationships were not material and did not preclude independence under the standards outlined above.

All members of the Audit, Compensation, and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees must be independent directors as defined by our Corporate Governance Guidelines. Members of the Audit Committee must also satisfy additional, heightened independence requirements under Securities and Exchange Commission and New York Stock Exchange rules, which provide that Audit Committee members may not accept directly or indirectly any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from the Company (other than Board and committee fees, pensions or other forms of deferred compensation) and may not be affiliated persons of the Company. The Board determined that all members of the Audit, Compensation, and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees are independent directors.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Pursuant to the Audit Committee Charter, Audit Committee policy and the requirements of law, the Audit Committee pre-approves all audit and permissible non-audit services to be provided by our independent registered public accounting firm. This pre-approval applies to audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. In some cases, the full Audit Committee provides pre-approval for up to a year related to a particular defined task or scope of work, subject to a specific budget. In other cases, the chairman of the Audit Committee has the delegated authority from the Audit Committee to pre-approve services, and the chairman then communicates such pre-approvals to the full Audit Committee. To avoid potential conflicts of interest, the law prohibits a publicly traded company from obtaining certain non-audit services from its independent audit firm. We obtain these services from other service providers as needed.
