Gannett Urges Tribune Stockholders to WITHHOLD Votes In Connection with Tribune Annual Meeting

MCLEAN, Va. May 26, 2016 - Gannett Co., Inc. (NYSE: GCI) (Gannett or the Company) today urged Tribune Publishing Company s (NYSE: TPUB) (Tribune) stockholders to WITHHOLD their votes in connection with the election of directors at the Tribune 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on June 2, 2016. Gannett encourages Tribune stockholders to deliver a mandate to the Tribune Board that it should engage constructively with Gannett regarding its $15.00 per share all-cash premium offer to acquire Tribune. Gannett issued the following statement:

The Gannett $15.00 per share all-cash premium offer would provide Tribune stockholders with superior and certain value for their shares. Gannett continues to believe a strong WITHHOLD vote by Tribune stockholders on Tribune s nominees would send a clear message that the Tribune Board should immediately engage with Gannett in a constructive manner regarding its offer to acquire Tribune.

Gannett noted that multiple Tribune stockholders have publicly voiced their objections to the behavior of Tribune s Board. A major stockholder, Towle & Co., wrote to Tribune s Board: [S]tacking the Board and ownership in favor of one particular view is not good governance. In fact, your brazen efforts of late have disrupted our belief in fair play. We now believe your primary interest is self-interest. You have fully demonstrated a lack of concern for the majority of unaffiliated shareholders whom we believe want a fair and reasonable transaction with Gannett.¹

On May 23, 2016, Tribune announced a transaction in which it issued 4.7 million shares of Tribune common stock to a single investor and appointed this investor to the Tribune Board. Since February 2016, the Tribune Board has approved the issuance of common stock to two stockholders which has increased the number of outstanding shares by approximately 37 percent. This includes the issuance of 5.2 million shares of Tribune common stock to an entity controlled by Tribune Chairman Michael Ferro at $8.50 per share. The Tribune Board did not seek stockholder approval for either of these issuances. In addition, since February 2016, two-thirds of the Tribune Board has been reconstituted with directors who appear to be hand-picked by Mr. Ferro.

Gannett will review whether to proceed with its acquisition offer taking into account the results of the WITHHOLD vote at Tribune s 2016 Annual Meeting and the latest Tribune actions, including its response to Gannett s $15.00 per share offer.

Gannett s revised $15.00 all-cash offer represents a premium of 99% to the $7.52 closing price of Tribune s common stock on April 22, 2016, the last trading day before Gannett publicly announced its initial offer for Tribune.

Gannett urges Tribune stockholders to vote the GOLD proxy card to WITHHOLD votes from the election of all eight Tribune directors: Carol Crenshaw, Justin C. Dearborn, David E. Dibble, Michael W. Ferro, Jr., Philip G. Franklin, Eddy W. Hartenstein, Richard A. Reck and Donald Tang.
