Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On November 17, 2016, the Board of Directors of Southwest Airlines Co. (the Company) approved the amendment and restatement of the Company's bylaws (the Bylaws), effective as of such date, primarily to implement proxy access. Specifically, the Bylaws were amended to permit a shareholder, or a group of up to 20 shareholders (with funds having specified relationships constituting a single shareholder), owning three percent or more of the Company's outstanding common stock continuously for at least three years, to nominate and include in the Company's proxy materials director candidates constituting up to 20 percent of the Board of Directors (rounded down to the nearest whole number) or two directors, whichever is greater, provided that the shareholder(s) and the nominee(s) satisfy the requirements specified in the Bylaws. Shares that have been loaned during any portion of the three-year holding period count as being owned as long as certain conditions for the recall of shares are met.

In addition, the Bylaws were amended to provide that the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas or, if such court lacks jurisdiction, the state district court of Dallas County, Texas, will be the sole and exclusive forum for certain internal corporate claims (such as claims of breach of fiduciary duty and derivative suits) unless the Company agrees to a different forum. Any person or entity purchasing or otherwise acquiring or holding any interest in shares of capital stock of the Company shall be deemed to have notice of and consented to this provision.

The amendments to the Bylaws also include various updates, clarifications, and conforming changes, including to the provisions relating to special meeting requests and advance notice requirements for nominations and business proposed by shareholders at annual and special meetings of shareholders.

The foregoing description of the amendments to the Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Bylaws, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
