MoneyGram International, Inc. (the Company) maintains severance benefits for all of its employees, the intended benefits of which are to provide financial protection in the event of a qualifying termination of employment. Each of the Company's named executive officers, other than the Executive Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer, whose severance provisions are included in their employment agreements, have entered into an individual severance agreement with the Company.

In connection with the Company's entry into the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated January 26, 2017, with Alipay (UK) Limited, a United Kingdom limited company, Matrix Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, and, solely for purposes of certain specified provisions of the Merger Agreement, Alipay (Hong Kong) Holding Limited, a Hong Kong limited company, the individual severance agreements were amended effective February 22, 2017 to provide the covered officers certain protections in the event of a qualifying termination of employment within the two-year period following the effective time of the merger. If the officer is terminated without cause (other than by reason of death or disability) or the officer terminates for good reason (as such terms are defined by the severance agreement) within the 24-month period commencing on and immediately following the effective time of the merger, the officer will receive (i) cash severance in an amount equal to one year of the officer's annual base salary, (ii) provided applicable performance goals are met, a pro rata portion of the officer's annual incentive bonus for the year in which the termination occurs (not to exceed the officer's annual target incentive opportunity), payable in a lump sum when such cash bonuses are regularly paid, and (iii) full vesting of any outstanding restricted stock unit awards or long-term performance-based cash awards held by the officer on the date of termination.
