ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 8, 2017, Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (Integra) and certain of its subsidiaries entered into an asset purchase agreement (the Divestiture Agreement) with Natus Medical Incorporated (Natus) pursuant to which Integra has agreed to divest (the Divestiture), subject to the terms and conditions of the Divestiture Agreement, certain assets related to Integra's intercranial pressure monitoring and U.S. fixed pressure valve shunt systems businesses along with certain assets related to Johnson & Johnson's Codman U.S. dural graft implant, external ventricular drainage catheter and cerebrospinal fluid collection systems businesses that Integra has agreed to purchase from DePuy Synthes, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson, for a purchase price of approximately $47.5 million in cash, subject to certain adjustments.

The Divestiture Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of each of the parties. The Divestiture Agreement also contains customary covenants and agreements, including with respect to the operation of the business of the divested products between signing and closing and the use of efforts to consummate the transaction. The Divestiture Agreement also contains indemnification rights of each party with respect to breaches of or inaccuracies in counterparty representations, warranties and covenants (subject to certain limitations).

The Divestiture Agreement is being entered into in connection with the review by the Federal Trade Commission and the antitrust authority of Spain of Integra's previously announced proposed acquisition of certain assets, and assumption of certain liabilities, of Johnson & Johnson's Codman neurosurgery business (the Codman Acquisition). The Divestiture is conditioned upon completion of the Codman Acquisition and is expected to close promptly following completion of the Codman Acquisition.
