Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

W Resources Acquisition

On July 27, 2018, Northern Oil and Gas, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with WR Operating LLC ( Seller ), pursuant to which the Company has agreed to acquire, effective as of July 1, 2018, certain oil and gas properties and interests (the Assets ). Upon closing under the Purchase Agreement, Seller will receive initial consideration of $100.0 million in cash and 56,371,899 shares of common stock. The cash portion of the initial consideration is subject to adjustment resulting from pre- and post-effective date revenue and expense allocation and procedures relating to customary title and environmental matters.

The obligations of the parties to complete the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement. Upon termination of the Purchase Agreement under specified circumstances, generally relating to a failure by the Company to close or fulfill in any material respect any of its obligations under the Purchase Agreement, the Company would be required to forfeit to the Seller a cash deposit in the amount of $20.0 million.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified by, the full text of the Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

The Purchase Agreement has been included with this report to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms of the transactions contemplated therein. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, the Seller or the Assets. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in the Purchase Agreement, which are made only for purposes of the agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties (including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Purchase Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts) and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors and security holders. Company security holders should not rely on the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, Sellers, or the Assets. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

The Additional Shares would be issued only if the Company elects to use shares of its common stock to satisfy certain monthly payment obligations that may arise based on the average daily volume weighted average price of a share of the Company's common stock as measured against specified reference prices for 12 of the 13 calendar months following closing.

The Shares will serve as partial consideration for the acquisition of the Assets and will be issued in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), to a limited number of persons who are accredited investors or sophisticated persons as those terms are defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, without the use of any general solicitation or advertising to market or otherwise offer the securities for sale.
