NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

February 17, 2004

To the Stockholders of
METHODE ELECTRONICS, INC.:

Notice is hereby given that an annual meeting of stockholders of Methode Electronics, Inc. (Methode) will be held on Tuesday, February 17, 2004 at 10:30 a.m., Chicago time, at The Rosewood Meeting Facility, 9421 W. Higgins Road, Rosemont, Illinois, for the following purposes:

1. To elect a board of directors; and
2. To transact such other business as may properly come before the annual meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on January 9, 2004 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting and at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

It is important that your shares be represented and voted at the annual meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the annual meeting, please complete, sign, date and mail the accompanying proxy card in the enclosed self-addressed, stamped envelope, or deliver your proxy by telephone or the Internet in accordance with the instructions provided. We respectfully request your cooperation.

By order of the Board of Directors

William T. Jensen
Chairman

January 16, 2004

PROXY STATEMENT

THE ANNUAL MEETING

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of Methode in connection with an annual meeting of our stockholders to be held on Tuesday, February 17, 2004 at 10:30 a.m., Chicago time, at The Rosewood Meeting Facility, 9421 W. Higgins Road, Rosemont, Illinois, and at any adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting.

At the annual meeting, we will ask our stockholders to elect our board of directors.

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card are first being mailed to our stockholders on or about January 16, 2004.

Record Date; Shares Outstanding

Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on January 9, 2004 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting and at any adjournment or postponement thereof. As of the record date, there were 35,462,703 shares of our common stock outstanding. All shares of our common stock are entitled to vote at the annual meeting.

Quorum; Votes Required

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting. Both abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum at the annual meeting. Generally, broker non-votes occur when shares held by a broker or nominee for a beneficial owner are not voted with respect to a particular proposal because the broker or nominee has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner and the broker or nominee lacks discretionary power to vote such shares.

At the annual meeting, each share of common stock will be entitled to one vote per share. The approval of the proposal to elect eight directors requires the director nominees to be elected by a majority of the shares of common stock represented at the meeting and entitled to vote, assuming a quorum is present. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted as votes for the directors.

Voting Procedures

It is important that your shares be represented and voted at the annual meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the annual meeting, please complete, sign, date and mail the accompanying proxy card in the enclosed self-addressed, stamped envelope, or deliver your proxy by telephone or the Internet in accordance with the instructions provided on the proxy card. The law of Delaware, under which we are incorporated, specifically permits electronically transmitted proxies, provided that each proxy contains or is submitted with information from which the inspector of election can determine that such proxy was authorized by the stockholder. In order to grant a proxy by Internet, go to www.proxyvote.com and enter your individual 12-digit control number on your proxy card in order to obtain your records and to create an electronic voting instruction form. In order to grant a proxy by telephone, call 1-800-690-6903 and enter your individual 12-digit control number on your proxy card and then follow the instructions given over the telephone. You may grant your proxy by Internet or by telephone up until 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time the day before the annual meeting date. Please do not submit a proxy card if you delivered your proxy by telephone or the Internet unless you intend to change your voting instructions.

If you return a proxy without direction, the proxy will be voted FOR the election of all eight director nominees.

Revoking Your Proxy

If you decide to change your vote, you may revoke your proxy at any time before the annual meeting. You may revoke your proxy by notifying our Corporate Secretary in writing that you wish to revoke your proxy at the following address: Methode Electronics, Inc., 7401 West Wilson Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60706, attention Corporate Secretary. You may also revoke your proxy by submitting a later-dated and properly executed proxy (including by means of the telephone or Internet) or by voting in person at the annual meeting. Attendance at the annual meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

Proxy Solicitation Expenses

We will bear the entire cost of the solicitation of proxies, including preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this proxy statement, the proxy card and any additional information furnished to stockholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding shares of our common stock beneficially owned by others to be forwarded to such beneficial owners. We will reimburse such persons for their reasonable costs of forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Our directors, officers or other regular employees may solicit proxies by telephone, by e-mail, by fax or in person. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers and other regular employees for such services.

We have retained the services of ADP Investor Communication Services (ADP) to perform the broker nominee search and to distribute proxy materials to banks, brokers, nominees and intermediaries. We will pay ADP approximately $5,000, plus out-of-pocket expenses, for these services.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A board of eight directors will be elected at the annual meeting. Each director will hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his successor is elected and qualified. All of the nominees listed below currently serve as Methode directors and were nominated unanimously by our independent directors. The shares represented by the proxies given pursuant to this solicitation will be voted for the following nominees unless votes are withheld in accordance with the instructions contained in the proxy. If any of these nominees is not a candidate for election at the annual meeting, an event which the Board of Directors does not anticipate, the proxies will be voted for a substitute nominee appointed by the Board of Directors.

BOARD COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors has standing Audit, Compensation and Nominating Committees.

The Audit Committee held nine meetings during the fiscal year ended April 30, 2003. In addition to two meetings to plan and review the results of the annual audit, the Audit Committee held seven meetings with management and Methode's independent auditors in connection with Methode's quarterly earnings releases and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission during fiscal 2003. The functions performed by this committee are to meet with and review the results of the audit performed by Methode's independent auditors and to select Methode's independent auditors. During the 2003 fiscal year, directors Warren L. Batts, William C. Croft and George C. Wright were members of the Audit Committee. See Audit Committee Matters below for more information regarding the Audit Committee.

The Compensation Committee held three meetings during the 2003 fiscal year. The functions performed by this committee are to review salaries and bonuses of all officers and key management personnel and the overall administration of Methode's compensation program. During the 2003 fiscal year, directors Warren L. Batts and William C. Croft were members of the Compensation Committee.

The Nominating Committee held one meeting during the 2003 fiscal year. The functions performed by this committee are to make recommendations to the Board regarding nominees, matters of corporate governance and Board procedures and practices, including those of the committees of the Board, and to evaluate the performance, qualifications and attendance of current Board members. During the 2003 fiscal year, director Warren L. Batts and Robert R. McGinley, a former director, were members of the Nominating Committee.

The Board of Directors held six meetings during the 2003 fiscal year. During their respective tenures, no incumbent director attended less than 75% of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of the Board and the total number of meetings held by the respective committees on which he served.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE MATTERS

Methode is committed to establishing and maintaining high standards of corporate governance which are intended to serve the long-term interests of Methode and its stockholders and employees.

Director Independence

Methode's Board of Directors has considered the independence of its members under the applicable standards of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq Stock Market. The Board has determined that all of its current directors, each of which are nominated for election at the annual meeting, are independent under those standards, except for Mr. Jensen, Chairman of Methode and Mr. Duda, President of Methode. Messrs. Jensen's and Duda's lack of independence relates solely to their service as executive officers of Methode and is not due to any other transactions or relationships.

Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors has determined that each current member of the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nominating Committee satisfies the independence requirements of applicable federal law and the listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market.

Director Nominations

As noted above, during fiscal 2003 Methode's Nominating Committee consisted of two members, Warren L. Batts and Robert McGinley, a former director. Until the recent elimination of our dual-class structure in January 2004, 25% of our directors were elected by the holders of our Class A common stock and the remaining directors were elected by holders of the Class B common stock. The Class B common stock was controlled by the McGinley family and related trusts.

We have not received director candidate recommendations from our stockholders in the last five (5) years and do not have a formal policy regarding consideration of such recommendations. However, any recommendations received from stockholders will be evaluated in the same manner that potential nominees suggested by board members, management or other parties are evaluated. Methode does not intend to treat stockholder recommendations in any manner different from other recommendations.

The Nominating Committee does not have a charter and has not adopted a policy with respect to minimum qualifications for board members. With respect to each individual vacancy, the Nominating Committee intends to determine the specific qualifications and skills required to fill that vacancy and to complement the existing qualifications and skills of the other Board members.

Historically, Methode has not engaged third parties to assist in identifying and evaluating potential nominees, but would do so in those situations where particular qualifications are required to fill a vacancy and the Board's contacts are not sufficient to identify an appropriate candidate.

Stockholder Communication with Board Members

Methode's Annual Meeting of Stockholders provides an opportunity each year for stockholders to ask questions of or otherwise communicate directly with members of our Board of Directors on appropriate matters. Each of our directors is requested to attend the Annual Meeting in person. We anticipate that a majority of our directors will attend the 2003 Annual Meeting. In addition, stockholders may, at any time, communicate in writing with any particular director, or non-management directors as a group, by sending such written communication to the Corporate Secretary of Methode Electronics, Inc. at 7401 West Wilson Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60706. Copies of written communications received at such address will be provided to the relevant director or the non-management directors as a group unless such communications are considered, in the reasonable judgment of the Corporate Secretary, to be improper for submission to the intended recipient(s). Examples of stockholder communications that would be considered improper for submission include, without limitation, customer complaints, solicitations, communications that do not relate directly or indirectly to Methode or Methode's business or communications that relate to improper or irrelevant topics.

AUDIT COMMITTEE MATTERS

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee oversees Methode's financial reporting process on behalf of the board of directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the system of internal control. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles; the reasonableness of significant judgments; and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with Methode's independent auditors, Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young), which is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, the firm's judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of Methode's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed under generally accepted auditing standards.

Edgar Filing: METHODE ELECTRONICS INC - Form DEF 14A

Ernst & Young provided to the Committee the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee discussed with Ernst & Young the firm's independence from management and Methode and considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the firm's independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with Methode's internal auditors and Ernst & Young the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee meets with the internal auditors and Ernst & Young, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of Methode's internal control, and the overall quality of Methode's financial reporting. The Committee also discussed with Ernst & Young matters related to the financial reporting process required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the board of directors (and the board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2003 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

George C. Wright, Chairman
Warren L. Batts
William C. Croft

Audit Committee Charter

The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter. A copy of our Audit Committee Charter, which was revised in January 2004, has been attached to this proxy statement as Appendix 1.

Auditing and Related Fees

Our Audit Committee has engaged Ernst & Young to examine Methode's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending April 30, 2004. Ernst & Young has served Methode in this capacity since 1966.

Fees paid to Ernst & Young for services performed in fiscal year 2003 were as follows:

Audit Fees	$ 358,000
Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees	$ 0
All Other Fees	$ 101,500
Total Fees	$ 459,500

All other fees include non-audit related fees, which include fees for employee benefit plan audits, certain attestation services not required by statute or regulation and due diligence services; and tax fees, which include fees for tax compliance, tax advice and expatriate tax services.

Representatives of Ernst & Young will be present at the annual meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies

Pursuant to its Charter, the Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing and pre-approving all audit and non-audit services provided by Ernst & Young and shall not engage Ernst & Young to perform the specific non-audit services proscribed by law or regulation. The Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to a member of the Audit Committee. The decisions of any Audit Committee member to whom pre-approval authority is delegated must be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Summary Compensation Table below includes, for each of the fiscal years ended April 30, 2003, 2002 and 2001, individual compensation paid for services to Methode and its subsidiaries to Methode's chief executive officer and the four other most highly compensated individuals serving as executive officers of Methode at the end of fiscal 2003 (the Named Executives).

Long-Term Incentive Plans Awards In Last Fiscal Year

Methode has a Longevity Contingent Bonus Program that covers certain officers and key management personnel. The longevity compensation amount is equal to the current bonus received by an eligible employee for a given quarter, and is earned and payable three years after the current quarter only if the eligible employee is still an employee of Methode and his employment performance is satisfactory. If for any reason other than death, disability or retirement the officer or key employee terminates his employment with Methode during the three-year period or his employment performance is not satisfactory, no longevity compensation is payable under this program. The following table includes information regarding amounts payable under the Longevity Bonus Program to the Named Executives based on the bonuses earned in fiscal 2003.

Name	Performance or Other Period Until Maturation or Payout	Estimated Future

Employment Agreements

Jensen Employment Agreement

William T. Jensen entered into an agreement with Methode in connection with his election to Chairman of the board of directors in February 2001. Under the agreement, as amended, Mr. Jensen was entitled to an annual salary of $278,356 and a quarterly bonus equal to .75% of first $2,000,000 pretax profit, .375% of the next $2,000,000 of pre-tax profit and .25% of all other pre-tax profit. In addition, Mr. Jensen was granted an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Methode's common stock in fiscal 2001. In June 2002, the Compensation Committee elected to extend the term of the agreement to June 30, 2003. This agreement has not been further extended.

Employment Security Agreements

On December 21, 2001, Messrs. Duda, Koman, Kuehnau and McQuillen each entered into an Employment Security Agreement with Methode. Each agreement provides that if within three years of a Change in Control (as defined below) or during a Period Pending a Change in Control (as defined below), Methode terminates the executive's employment without good cause or the executive voluntarily terminates his employment for good reason, the executive is entitled to (1) a lump sum cash payment equal to three times the executive's annual salary (two times the annual salary in the case of Mr. McQuillen), (2) a lump sum cash bonus payment equal to 100% of the executive's annual salary plus a pro-rata portion of the executive's earned but unpaid bonus, (3) continued participation in Methode's welfare benefit plans for three years or until the executive becomes covered under other welfare benefit plans providing substantially similar benefits, (4) unpaid salary or other compensation earned with respect to periods prior to the executive's termination, including accumulated but unused vacation and accrued bonuses under the Longevity Contingent Bonus Program, and (5) a lump sum of any amount payable to the executive pursuant to a tax gross-up payment.

In general, a Change in Control shall have occurred if any of the following occur:

- (1) any person or group is or becomes the beneficial owner of 25 percent or more of Methode's common stock (excluding shares acquired directly from Methode or acquired in certain mergers and business combinations);
- (2) at any time during any period of two consecutive 12-month periods, members of Methode's board of directors at the beginning of the period (the Incumbent Board) cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the board. Directors approved by a majority of the Incumbent Board will be considered members of the Incumbent Board. However, directors elected in connection with an actual or threatened proxy contest or solicitation by a third party will not be considered members of the Incumbent Board for this purpose; or
- (3) there is a merger or other business combination of Methode pursuant to which Methode's stockholders own less than 60 percent of the voting stock of the surviving corporation.

Edgar Filing: METHODE ELECTRONICS INC - Form DEF 14A

Period Pending a Change in Control is defined in each agreement as the period between the time an agreement is entered into by Methode with respect to a transaction which would constitute a Change in Control, and the closing of such transaction.

Donald W. Duda Cash Bonus Agreement

In each of May 2001 and June 2002, Methode granted Donald W. Duda a stock option award for 200,000 shares of common stock under Methode's 2000 Stock Plan. Due to annual award volume limitations contained in the 2000 Stock Plan, each of these stock option awards are void to the extent that the number of shares granted exceeds 100,000 shares of common stock. Accordingly, each of these grants were reduced to 100,000 shares of common stock. In July 2003, Methode granted Mr. Duda a stock option award for 100,000 shares of common stock, and would have granted him an additional 150,000 shares if the 2000 Stock Plan's annual volume limitation did not apply. In light of the foregoing and in order to compensate Mr. Duda equitably, effective as of August 22, 2003, Methode and Donald W. Duda entered into a Cash Bonus Agreement. Pursuant to this Cash Bonus Agreement, Mr. Duda is entitled to up to three cash bonuses, with the amounts to be determined based on two factors: the increase, if any, in the value of the common stock, and the date Mr. Duda is paid the bonus. All bonuses payable under the Cash Bonus Agreement are forfeited if Mr. Duda is terminated for cause.

The amount of the first cash bonus shall be determined by multiplying 100,000 by the value of the common stock in excess of $10.50 (the value of common stock on the date of the 2002 stock option grant). The vesting is the same as the underlying June 2002 stock option award. The amount of the second cash bonus shall be determined by multiplying 150,000 by the value of the common stock in excess of $11.44 (the value of common stock on the date of the 2003 stock option grant). The vesting is the same as the underlying July 2003 stock option award. These bonuses shall be paid on the earliest to occur of the following: (i) a date selected by Mr. Duda, provided there are no vested but unexercised options with respect to the corresponding option grant; (ii) termination of Mr. Duda's employment without cause; (iii) Mr. Duda's death or disability; and (iv) June 10, 2012 (for the first bonus) and July 3, 2013 (for the second bonus).

Methode will pay Mr. Duda a third cash bonus in the event a change in control of Methode occurs prior to May 4, 2004, provided Mr. Duda is an employee of Methode immediately prior to such event. The amount of this cash bonus shall be determined by multiplying 100,000 by the value of the common stock on the date of the change of control in excess of $6.35 (the value of common stock on the date of the 2001 stock option grant).

Longevity Contingent Bonus Program

Methode has a Longevity Contingent Bonus Program that covers certain officers and key management personnel. The longevity compensation amount is equal to the current bonus received by an eligible employee for a given quarter, and is earned and payable three years after the current quarter only if the eligible employee is still an employee of Methode and his employment performance is satisfactory. If for any reason other than death, disability or retirement the officer or key employee terminates his employment with Methode during the three-year period or his employment performance is not satisfactory, no longevity compensation is payable under this program.

Director Compensation

Directors who are not also Methode employees are compensated at the rate of $25,000 annually, plus an attendance fee of $500 for any special board meeting in addition to the regularly scheduled quarterly meetings. Directors who are members of the Compensation, Nominating or Audit Committees receive an additional $500 for each committee meeting attended. In addition, each non-employee director is eligible to participate in the 2000 Stock Plan. Each non-employee director was granted an option to purchase 5,000 shares of Methode common stock for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2003. These options vest six months after the grant date. Directors who are also Methode employees are not paid for their services as directors or for attendance at meetings. In fiscal 2003, Messrs. Croft and Wright accrued above-market interest under Methode's Capital Accumulation Program of $2,237 and $2,221, respectively.

2000 Stock Plan

The 2000 Stock Plan provides for awards of incentive stock options, non-qualified stock options, stock appreciation rights, and restricted stock. All present and future directors, officers and employees, are eligible to participate. Two million shares of common stock have been reserved for issuance (no more than 500,000 of which may be used for restricted stock). All options automatically vest if within 12 months following a Change of Control the participant is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason and the award is exercisable for 90 days after the termination. A Change of Control is defined as one of the following occurrences: (1) any person other than William McGinley or his family owns more than 25% of the total voting power of Methode, (2) if a tender offer is made for Methode, a change of control is deemed to have occurred on the first to occur of (A) the person making the offer owns or has accepted for payment more than 25% of the voting stock or (B) three business days before the offer is to terminate if, by the terms of the offer, the offeror could own more than 50% of the voting stock, or (3) individuals who were the board's nominees for election are not reelected at a meeting involving a contested election.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Under the securities laws of the United States, Methode's directors, its executive officers, and any persons holding more than 10% of Methode's common stock are required to report their initial ownership of common stock and any subsequent changes in that ownership to the Securities and Exchange Commission. Specific due dates for these reports have been established and Methode is required to disclose in this proxy statement any failure to file by the required dates during its fiscal year ended April 30, 2003. All of these filing requirements were satisfied. In making these disclosures, Methode has relied solely on written representations of its directors and executive officers and copies of the reports filed with the Commission.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee during the 2003 fiscal year was composed of Messrs. Batts and Croft. No interlocking relationships exist between any member of the Compensation Committee and any member of any other company's board of directors or compensation committee.

BOARD COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Methode's compensation philosophy is comprised of several elements designed to retain key management personnel, reward performance, dedication and historical service to Methode, and to relate executive pay to long-term performance. These elements consist of a base salary, bonus compensation, incentive awards directly relating pay to performance, and long-term incentive awards designed to align executive interests with stockholder interests.

Base Salary

The base salaries of Methode's executive officers have remained relatively flat, with small increases to reflect inflation. The Compensation Committee reviews base salaries annually. Although base salaries have not been high relative to other companies of comparable size, the bonus has been a key tool for rewarding performance. Pursuant to Mr. Jensen's employment agreement, as amended, Mr. Jensen was paid an annual salary of $279,447.

Bonus Compensation

Quarterly cash bonuses for all officers and managerial personnel, other than Mr. Jensen, are determined pursuant to a bonus plan reviewed from time to time by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Jensen's quarterly cash bonuses are determined pursuant to his employment agreement. Pursuant to the bonus plan and Mr. Jensen's employment agreement, bonus amounts are calculated according to a formula which assigns certain percentages to different levels of adjusted pretax profits. Mr. Jensen earned quarterly cash bonuses totaling $132,124 during fiscal 2003.

Long-Term Incentives

Methode has instituted several plans that are designed to provide long-term incentives for executives by relating executive compensation to Methode's performance over time as well as by rewarding continued service. The Longevity Contingent Bonus Program (the Bonus Program) awards officers and key management personnel a matching bonus (equal to the amount of the current quarterly bonus), which will be considered as earned and payable in three years provided that the participant is still employed and performance has been satisfactory. If, for any reason, other than death, disability, or retirement, the officer or key employee terminates his employment with Methode during the three year period, or his employment performance is not satisfactory, no longevity compensation is payable under this program. Mr. Jensen's total quarterly bonus awards in 2003 were $132,124. He is therefore eligible to receive payments totaling this amount in fiscal 2006.

The Methode Electronics, Inc. 1997 Stock Plan and 2000 Stock Plan (the Stock Plans) also provide long-term incentive to employees. The Stock Plans provide for the granting of awards of restricted stock, incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options and stock appreciation rights with respect to the common stock. The Compensation Committee administers the Stock Plans and from time to time grants awards under the Stock Plans to selected eligible directors and employees. Mr. Jensen received a grant of an option to purchase 50,000 shares of Methode common stock for fiscal 2003.

Donald W. Duda Cash Bonus Agreement

In each of May 2001 and June 2002, Methode granted Mr. Duda a stock option award for 200,000 shares of common stock under Methode's 2000 Stock Plan. Due to annual award volume limitations contained in the 2000 Stock Plan, each of these stock option awards are void to the extent that the number of shares granted exceeds 100,000 shares of common stock. Accordingly, each of these grants were reduced to 100,000 shares of common stock. In July 2003, Methode granted Mr. Duda a stock option award for 100,000 shares of common stock, and would have granted him an additional 150,000 shares if the 2000 Stock Plan's annual volume limitation did not apply. In light of the foregoing and in order to adequately compensate Mr. Duda, the Compensation Committee determined to grant Mr. Duda cash bonuses calculated based on the appreciation in Methode's common stock and Mr. Duda's tenure with Methode. Accordingly, on August 22, 2003, Methode and Donald W. Duda entered into a Cash Bonus Agreement. This agreement is summarized in more detail under "Employment Agreements - Donald W. Duda Cash Bonus Agreement."

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

James W. McGinley and Robert R. McGinley, the sons of William J. McGinley, Methode's founder, were both members of our Board of Directors until their resignation in October 2003. James McGinley and Robert McGinley, together with their sister, Margaret J. McGinley, are special fiduciaries, co-trustees and beneficiaries of Marital Trust No. 1 and Marital Trust No. 2, each created under the William J. McGinley Trust (the "Trusts"). Set forth below is a brief description of certain recent transactions between Methode, members of the McGinley family and the Trusts.

The Merger Agreement

Edgar Filing: METHODE ELECTRONICS INC - Form DEF 14A

As of July 18, 2003, Methode entered into an agreement with the Trusts, the Jane R. McGinley Trust, James McGinley, Robert McGinley and Margaret McGinley. Pursuant to this agreement, the McGinley family, the Trusts and the Jane R. McGinley Trust sold 750,000 shares of their Class B common stock to Methode for $22.75 per share and agreed to vote their remaining 181,760 shares of Class B common stock in favor of a merger in which all outstanding shares of Methode's Class B common stock would receive $23.55 per share and the Class A common stock would be converted into new Methode common stock (the Merger). The Merger occurred on January 8, 2004. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger, the Trusts, the Jane R. McGinley Trust and the McGinley family members were paid $23.55 per share for their 181,760 remaining shares of Class B common stock. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, Roy M. Van Cleave ceased to be a director upon the completion of the Merger.

The Planned Tender Offer by Methode

Methode previously entered into an agreement dated August 19, 2002, and amended December 26, 2002, with the Trusts, Jane McGinley, Margaret McGinley, James McGinley, and Robert McGinley to commence a tender offer to purchase all of the outstanding Class B common stock at a price of $20 per share in cash by the terms and conditions provided for in the agreement.

Pursuant to the agreement, Methode's obligation to commence the tender offer was subject to the prior approval of the offer by a majority of the Class A common stockholders present at a special meeting (excluding Class A common stock held by the Trusts and the McGinley family members). The Trusts, Jane McGinley, Margaret McGinley, James McGinley, and Robert McGinley agreed to tender their shares within ten business days of commencement and not to withdraw, on the condition that less than 100,000 shares of Class B common stock were outstanding after the planned Methode tender offer. Under the agreement, the Trusts, the Jane R. McGinley Trust, Margaret McGinley, James McGinley, and Robert McGinley were obligated to tender all of their Class B common stock in the offer. This represented an aggregate of 931,760 shares of Class B common stock, or 85.7% of the outstanding Class B common stock.

On June 12, 2003, Methode mailed to its stockholders the definitive proxy statement in connection with the special meeting scheduled for July 10, 2003 for eligible Class A common stockholders to vote on the making of the planned tender offer. On July 8, 2003, Dura Automotive Systems, Inc. commenced an unsolicited tender offer for all of the outstanding shares of Class B common stock at $23.00 per share. On July 10, 2003, Methode adjourned the special meeting until July 24, 2003. On July 14, 2003, the Trusts and the McGinley family members gave notice of termination of the agreement. On July 23, 2003, Methode cancelled its special meeting of stockholders scheduled to reconvene on July 24, 2003.

The Horizon Loan

The Trusts also own Horizon Farms, Inc. (Horizon), a horse farm and breeding operation. As co-trustees and beneficiaries of the Trusts, James McGinley and Robert McGinley have an interest in Horizon. In addition, James McGinley and Robert McGinley are officers and directors of Horizon.

In early 2001, Methode was completing its request for the revenue ruling in connection with the Stratos Lightwave spin-off. At the request of the IRS, William J. McGinley provided an undertaking to the IRS that he had no present intention to sell any of his Class A or Class B common stock (the majority of which shares are now held by the Trusts). William McGinley passed away in late January 2001. Consequently, the IRS required that William McGinley's Estate, as the owner of such Class A common stock and Class B common stock, provide a similar undertaking to that provided by William McGinley.

After William McGinley's death, loans held by William McGinley for which the Estate was responsible became due because of his death. The Estate informed Methode that it would be unable to provide the requested representation to the IRS because if the banks attempted to quickly foreclose on the loans, the Estate might be forced to sell various assets, including its Methode Class A common stock and Class B common stock. In discussions with Methode, the Estate indicated that if it received a term loan from Methode which allowed it to pay off the loans, it would be able to provide the representation to the IRS required in connection with the Stratos Lightwave spin-off.

With the approval of our board of directors, in April 2001, Methode loaned $6 million to Horizon. Upon receipt of the Horizon loan, the Estate executed the required IRS representation. The Horizon loan was payable on June 30, 2003 and bore interest at a rate of 5.25% per annum.

On June 30, 2003, Horizon paid off the Horizon loan in full.

Split-Dollar Insurance Agreement

Other non-operating income for Methode for fiscal 2001 included $6.6 million from insurance proceeds of approximately $10 million related to the death in January 2001 of William J. McGinley, Methode's founder and the father of James McGinley and Robert McGinley. Methode was a party to a Split-Dollar Insurance Agreement dated August 9, 1996, with the William J. McGinley and Jane R. McGinley Irrevocable Trust (the Irrevocable Trust). James W. McGinley, Robert R. McGinley and their sister, Margaret J. McGinley, and other McGinley family members, are beneficiaries of the Irrevocable Trust. Pursuant to the Split-Dollar Insurance Agreement, Methode agreed to pay premiums on five life insurance policies owned by the Irrevocable Trust on the lives of William J. McGinley and Jane R. McGinley, the wife of William J. McGinley and the mother of James McGinley and Robert McGinley. Methode had collateral assignments on the policies that entitled it to receive reimbursement from the insurance proceeds at the greater of the cumulative premiums paid or the cash surrender value of the policies.

As a result of the death of Jane McGinley in February 2003, insurance proceeds of approximately $10.5 million were paid under four of the split-dollar last survivor life insurance policies. In April 2003, approximately $3.5 million was paid to the Irrevocable Trust under one such policy and approximately $1.0 million was paid to Methode, representing the cash surrender value of the policy. With respect to the three remaining policies, the proceeds paid to the Irrevocable Trust equaled approximately $4.7 million and the amount paid to Methode equaled approximately $1.3 million, representing the premiums paid on those policies by Methode.

Methode and the Irrevocable Trust are currently involved in a dispute regarding whether the amount paid to Methode should be reduced by $86,908, which represents the amount of premiums included in the McGinleys' income and deducted by Methode for federal tax purposes. If this dispute is not resolved by discussions between the parties, litigation or arbitration could result. In any such proceeding, Methode could raise the issue of whether Methode is entitled to an additional payment of $99,883 from the Irrevocable Trust. This represents the amount of premium payments included in the McGinleys' taxable income and deducted by Methode for federal tax purposes and deducted from the premium reimbursement amount previously paid to Methode in connection with the insurance proceeds distributed upon the death of William McGinley.

OTHER INFORMATION

Stockholder Proposals

The Corporate Secretary must receive stockholder proposals no later than October 20, 2004 to be considered for inclusion in Methode's proxy materials for its next annual meeting. Additionally, Methode's advance notice by-law provisions require that any stockholder proposal to be presented from the floor of the next annual meeting must be received by the Corporate Secretary not later than the 60th day nor earlier than the 90th day prior to February 17, 2005 (the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting). If the date of Methode's next annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after February 17, 2005, such stockholder proposals must be delivered no earlier than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting date and not later than the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting date or the 10th day following Methode's public announcement of the meeting date for such annual meeting. Also, such proposal must be, under law, an appropriate subject for stockholder action in order to be brought before the meeting and must contain the information required by the advance notice by-law provision. These notices should be directed to the Corporate Secretary of Methode Electronics, Inc. at 7401 West Wilson Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60706.

Additional Information

A copy of Methode's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2003 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission will be provided to stockholders without charge upon written request directed to Investor Relations, Methode Electronics, Inc., 7401 West Wilson Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60706.

Other Matters

Neither the board of directors nor management knows of any other business that will be presented at the annual meeting. Should any other business properly come before the annual meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

APPENDIX 1
METHODE ELECTRONICS, INC.

Organization

This charter governs the operations of the audit committee. The committee shall review and reassess the charter at least annually and obtain the approval of the board of directors. The committee shall be members of, and appointed by, the board of directors and shall comprise at least three directors, each of whom are independent of management and the Company. Members of the committee shall be considered independent as long as they do not accept any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee from the Company and are not an affiliated person of the Company or its subsidiaries, and meet the independence requirements of the stock exchange listing standards. All committee members shall be financially literate, and at least one member shall be an audit committee financial expert, as defined by SEC regulations.

Purpose

The audit committee shall provide assistance to the board of directors in fulfilling their oversight responsibility to the shareholders, potential shareholders, the investment community, and others relating to: the integrity of the Company's financial statements; the financial reporting process; the systems of internal accounting and financial controls; the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors; the independent auditors' qualifications and independence; and the Company's compliance with ethics policies and legal and regulatory requirements. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the committee to maintain free and open communication between the committee, independent auditors, internal auditors, and management of the Company.

In discharging its oversight role, the committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company and the authority to engage independent counsel and other advisers as it determines necessary to carry out its duties.

Duties and Responsibilities

The primary responsibility of the audit committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the board and report the results of their activities to the board. While the audit committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the audit committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation, and integrity of the Company's financial statements and for the appropriateness of the accounting principles and reporting policies that are used by the Company. The independent auditors are responsible for auditing the Company's financial statements and for reviewing the Company's unaudited interim financial statements.

The committee, in carrying out its responsibilities, believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The committee should take appropriate actions to set the overall corporate tone for quality financial reporting, sound business risk practices, and ethical behavior. The following shall be the principal duties and responsibilities of the audit committee. These are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the committee may supplement them as appropriate.

The committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, retention, and termination of the independent auditors, and the independent auditors must report directly to the audit committee. The committee also shall be directly responsible for the oversight of the work of the independent auditors, including resolution of disagreements between management and the auditor regarding financial reporting. The committee shall pre-approve all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditors and shall not engage the independent auditors to perform the specific non-audit services proscribed by law or regulation. The committee may delegate pre-approval authority to a member of the audit committee. The decisions of any audit committee member to whom pre-approval authority is delegated must be presented to the full audit committee at its next scheduled meeting.

At least annually, the committee shall obtain and review a report by the independent auditors describing:

The firm's internal quality control procedures.

Any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues.

All relationships between the independent auditor and the Company (to assess the auditor's independence).

In addition, the committee shall set clear hiring policies for employees or former employees of the independent auditors that meet the SEC regulations and stock exchange listing standards.

The committee shall discuss with the internal auditors and the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits, including the adequacy of staffing and compensation. Also, the committee shall discuss with management, the internal auditors, and the independent auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls, including the Company's policies and procedures to assess, monitor, and manage business risk, and legal and ethical compliance programs (e.g., Company's Code of Conduct).

The committee shall meet separately periodically with management, the internal auditors, and the independent auditors to discuss issues and concerns warranting committee attention. The committee shall provide sufficient opportunity for the internal auditors and the independent auditors to meet privately with the members of the committee. The committee shall review with the independent auditor any audit problems or difficulties and management's response.

The committee shall receive a report from the independent auditor, prior to the filing of its audit report with the SEC, on all critical accounting policies and practices of the Company, all material alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with management, including the ramifications of the use of such alternative treatments and disclosures and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor, and other material written communications between the independent auditor and management.

The committee shall review management's assertion on its assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls as of the end of the most recent fiscal year and the independent auditors' report on management's assertion required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes Oxley Act.

The committee shall review and discuss earnings press releases, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies.

The committee shall review the interim financial statements and disclosures under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations with management and the independent auditors prior to the filing of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Also, the committee shall discuss the results of the quarterly review and any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.

The committee shall review with management and the independent auditors the financial statements and disclosures under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K (or the annual report to shareholders if distributed prior to the filing of Form 10-K), including their judgment about the quality, not just the acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements. Also, the committee shall discuss the results of the annual audit and any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.
