Gross sales grow by 4.8%, totaling R$ 1,478.3 million in November

São Paulo, Brazil, December 13, 2007. Grupo Pão de Açúcar [NYSE: CBD; BOVESPA: PCAR4 (PN)] announces its sales performance for November 2007 (unaudited preliminary figures). The information presented below was calculated based on consolidated figures and in Reais, in accordance with the Brazilian Corporate Law.

Grupo Pão de Açúcar recorded gross sales of R$ 1,478.3 million in November, 4.8% up year-on-year, while net sales moved up 5.1% to R$ 1,246.9 million.

Group sales continued to be influenced by the special offer review policy implemented, which was designed to rebalance the mix between these special offers and regular prices, in order to attract consumers that bring higher returns to the Company.

The Pão de Açúcar banner once again recorded growth above the Company average and was the monthly sales leader, further underlining the positive performance in the same-store concept recorded in the last four quarters.

Same-store sales increased by 0.4% over the previous November in gross terms and 0.8% in net terms. Sales of food products edged up by 0.4%, led by perishables, which climbed by 1.2% in the in the period.

Consumer electronics had a major influence on the sales of non-food items, which fell by 0.3% year-on-year in November. However, the non-food category recorded a substantial improvement over October, when sales presented a year-on-year decline of 4.7% . The month's positive highlight was provided by general merchandise (Mundo Casa), which has been recording substantial growth.

Note: Same-store sales include stores with at least 12 months of operation

* Average growth of 4.5% in March/April.

Statements included in this report regarding the Company's business prospects, the outlook for operating and financial results, and referring to the Company's growth potential are merely projections and were based on Management's expectations regarding the Company's future. Those projections are highly dependent on market changes, on the Brazilian general economic performance, on the industry and on international markets and are, therefore, subject to change.
