Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 11, 2006, Direct Alliance Corporation ("Direct Alliance"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Insight Enterprises, Inc., and James D. Kebert entered into a new employment agreement in connection with his service as President of Direct Alliance. The agreement is effective for an initial term of one year and will automatically renew for a new one-year term each successive day after the start of the initial term. Either Direct Alliance or Mr. Kebert may elect not to renew the agreement, and, in that instance, the agreement would expire at the end of the then current term.

The agreement provides for an annual salary, currently set at $250,000, and eligibility for an incentive bonus pursuant to one or more incentive compensation plans established by the Company from time to time. If Mr. Kebert's employment is terminated without cause, or if he resigns with good reason, at any time during the term of this agreement or within 12 months following a change of control, he will be entitled to receive, in a lump sum, an amount equal to (1) base annual salary for one year, plus (2) with respect to any incentive compensation plan with quarterly objectives, the sum of (i) a prorated bonus for the quarter in which the termination takes place and (ii) four times his bonus for the last completed quarter, plus (3) with respect to any Incentive Compensation Plan with annual objectives, a prorated bonus for the year in which the termination takes place.

The agreement also provides for non-disclosure by Mr. Kebert of confidential information and includes covenants by Mr. Kebert not to compete with Direct Alliance for a period of as long as one year following termination of employment and not to solicit the employees, suppliers and customers for one year following termination of employment.
