Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 7, 2006, The Kansas City Southern Railway Company ("KCSR"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kansas City Southern ("KCS" or the "Company"), and Patrick J. Ottensmeyer, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, entered into an Employment Agreement effective May 15, 2006 (the "Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement"). Pursuant to the terms of the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement, in addition to his annual salary, Mr. Ottensmeyer is eligible to receive coverage under KCSR's benefits plans and programs as are made available to similarly situated employees of KCSR. KCSR may terminate the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement "for cause" (as defined in the agreement) or other than "for cause". If Mr. Ottensmeyer is terminated other than for cause, KCSR shall (a) continue for a period of twelve (12) months following such termination to pay Mr. Ottensmeyer as severance pay a monthly amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of his annual base salary rate in effect immediately prior to termination and, (b) for a period of fifteen (15) months following such termination, reimburse Mr. Ottensmeyer for the cost of continuing health insurance coverage provided pursuant to the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement or obtaining health insurance covered comparable to the health insurance provided pursuant to the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement, and obtaining coverage comparable to the life insurance provided pursuant to the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement, unless Mr. Ottensmeyer is provided comparable health or life insurance coverage in connection with other employment. Mr. Ottensmeyer is required to execute a full release of claims in favor of KCSR and its affiliates as a condition of receiving such severance benefits.

If Mr. Ottensmeyer is terminated following a "Change in Control" (as defined in the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement) other than for cause, Mr. Ottensmeyer will be eligible to receive a lump sum payment (the "Special Severance Payment") equal to the product of (y) 175% of the rate of his annual base salary equal to not less than 12 times the highest monthly base salary paid or payable to him by KCSR in the 12 month period immediately before the Change in Control multiplied by (z) 3, as well as certain other benefits for which he was eligible immediately prior to the termination for a period 3 years.

In addition, Mr. Ottensmeyer is entitled to receive the Special Severance Payment and benefits if he resigns during the 3 year period following the Change in Control if (i) he is assigned duties inconsistent in any respect with his position (including offices, titles, reporting requirements or responsibilities), authority or duties are not at least commensurate in all material respects with the most significant of those held, exercised and assigned at any time during the 12 month period immediately before the Change in Control or any other action by KCSR that results in a diminution or other material adverse change in such position, authority or duties, (ii) his services are required to be performed at a location other than the location where he was employed immediately before the Change in Control at a location not within 40 miles from such former location, (iii) KCSR fails to comply with the terms of Section 7 of the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement, (iv) there is any other material adverse change to the terms and conditions of his employment or (v) there is any purported termination by KCSR of his employment other than as expressly permitted by the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement.

Mr. Ottensmeyer has expressly agreed to maintain in strictest confidence and not to use in any way, publish, disclose or authorize anyone else to use in any way, publish or disclose any Confidential Information (as defined in the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement) relating to any manner to the business or affairs of KCSR or any of its affiliates. This obligation survives any termination of the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement by Mr. Ottensmeyer or KCSR.

Also on June 7, 2006, the Company and Daniel W. Avramovich, Executive Vice President Sales & Marketing of the Company, entered into an Employment Agreement effective May 15, 2006 (the "Avramovich Employment Agreement"). Pursuant to the terms of the Avramovich Employment Agreement, in addition to his annual salary, Mr. Avramovich is eligible to receive coverage under KCSR's benefits plans and programs as are made available to similarly situated employees of KCSR. The Company may terminate the Avramovich Employment Agreement "for cause" (as defined in the agreement) or other than "for cause". If Mr. Avramovich is terminated other than for cause, the Company shall continue for a period of twelve (12) months following such termination (a) to pay Mr. Avramovich as severance pay a monthly amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of his annual base salary rate in effect immediately prior to termination and (b) to reimburse Mr. Avramovich for the cost of continuing health insurance coverage provided pursuant to the Avramovich Employment Agreement or obtaining health insurance covered comparable to the health insurance provided pursuant to the Avramovich Employment Agreement, and obtaining coverage comparable to the life insurance provided pursuant to the Avramovich Employment Agreement, unless Mr. Avramovich is provided comparable health or life insurance coverage in connection with other employment. Mr. Avramovich is required to execute a full release of claims in favor of the Company, KCSR and their affiliates as a condition of receiving such severance benefits.

If Mr. Avramovich is terminated following a "Change in Control" (as defined in the Avramovich Employment Agreement) other than for cause, Mr. Avramovich will be eligible to receive a lump sum payment (the "Special Severance Payment") equal to the product of (y) 175% of the rate of his annual base salary equal to not less than 12 times the highest monthly base salary paid or payable to him by KCSR in the 12 month period immediately before the Change in Control multiplied by (z) 3, as well as certain other benefits for which he was eligible immediately prior to the termination for a period 3 years.

In addition, Mr. Avramovich is entitled to receive the Special Severance Payment and benefits if he resigns during the 3 year period following the Change in Control if (i) he is assigned duties inconsistent in any respect with his position (including offices, titles, reporting requirements or responsibilities), authority or duties are not at least commensurate in all material respects with the most significant of those held, exercised and assigned at any time during the 12 month period immediately before the Change in Control or any other action by KCSR that results in a diminution or other material adverse change in such position, authority or duties, (ii) his services are required to be performed at a location other than the location where he was employed immediately before the Change in Control at a location not within 40 miles from such former location, (iii) KCSR fails to comply with the terms of Section 7 of the Avramovich Employment Agreement, (iv) there is any other material adverse change to the terms and conditions of his employment or (v) there is any purported termination by KCSR of his employment other than as expressly permitted by the Avramovich Employment Agreement.

Mr. Avramovich has expressly agreed to maintain in strictest confidence and not to use in any way, publish, disclose or authorize anyone else to use in any way, publish or disclose any Confidential Information (as defined in the Avramovich Employment Agreement) relating to any manner to the business or affairs of KCSR or any of its affiliates. This obligation survives any termination of the Avramovich Employment Agreement by Mr. Avramovich or KCSR.

The foregoing discussions of each of the Ottensmeyer Employment Agreement and the Avramovich Employment Agreement are qualified in their entirety by the terms of each agreement, which are filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2, respectively, and hereby are incorporated by reference herein.
