Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 30, 2007, The St. Joe Company and a group of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company") entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "Agreement") with Eola Capital, LLC (the "Purchaser") for the sale of the Company's office building portfolio, consisting of seventeen buildings with approximately 2.3 million net rentable square feet located in seven markets throughout the Southeast.

The purchase price payable under the Agreement is $383 million. An initial deposit of $5 million was paid upon signing; a second deposit of $7 million is payable within two days after the conclusion of a due diligence period ending on May 9, 2007 (the "Feasibility Period"); and the balance of the purchase price is payable at closing. The deposits are non-refundable to the Purchaser except in the event of a default by the Company under the Agreement or the failure to satisfy certain closing obligations. The Purchaser may terminate the Agreement at any time prior to the conclusion of the Feasibility Period and forfeit the initial deposit. The purchase price includes the assumption by the Purchaser of approximately $60 million of debt associated with certain buildings in the portfolio.

The Agreement contains terms and conditions customary to real estate purchase agreements, including, but not limited to, representations, warranties and covenants regarding title matters, leases and environmental conditions.

The Agreement states that the closing of the purchase and sale will occur on June 13, 2007. Pursuant to a letter agreement executed by the parties in connection with the Agreement (the "Side Letter"), however, the closing date for two buildings (representing $100 million of the purchase price) may be deferred until the lenders' approve the assumption by the Purchaser of the debt associated with such buildings.

A copy of the Agreement and Side Letter is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto. The foregoing description of the Agreement and Side Letter does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement and Side Letter, which are incorporated by reference herein.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(c) Exhibits

10.1 Purchase and Sale Agreement and Letter Agreement, each dated as of April 30, 2007 by and among the registrant, certain subsidiaries of the registrant and Eola Capital, LLC.
