Item 8.01 Other Events.

As of August 10, 2007, Allegiant Travel Company (the "Company") has been informed that Linda A. Marvin, chief financial officer and managing director of the Company, has adopted a pre-arranged, non-discretionary stock trading plan to sell a portion of her currently owned Company stock systematically over time as part of an individual long-term strategy for asset diversification and estate planning. In addition, on August 23, 2007, the Company was informed that M. Ponder Harrison, managing director- marketing and sales of the Company, also adopted a pre-arranged, non-discretionary stock trading plan to sell a portion of his currently owned Company stock systematically over time as part of an individual long-term strategy for asset diversification and estate planning. The stock trading plans were adopted in accordance with guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Company's policies regarding stock transactions by insiders.

Rule 10b5-1 allows corporate officers and directors to adopt written, pre-arranged stock trading plans when they are not in possession of material, non-public information. Using these plans, insiders can gradually diversify their investment portfolios, by spreading stock trades out over an extended period of time to reduce any market impact, while avoiding concerns about the initiation of stock transactions when in possession of material non-public information.

Subject to the terms of the plan adopted by Ms. Marvin, she may sell up to 150,000 shares of the Company's stock on or before March 31, 2008. The plan anticipates the sale of between 20,000 and 35,000 shares per month. The transactions under this plan are to be disclosed publicly through Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Subject to the terms of the plan adopted by Mr. Harrison, he may sell up to 120,000 shares of the Company's stock on or before August 29, 2008. The plan anticipates the sale of up to 10,000 shares per month. The transactions under this plan are to be disclosed publicly through Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
