Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On October 17, 2007, the Board of Directors of the Company amended Article VI of the Bylaws of the Company to allow for the issuance of uncertificated shares. The amendment is intended to enable the Company to participate in the Direct Registration System ("DRS") which is currently administered by the Depository Trust Company. DRS allows investors to have securities registered in their names without the issuance of physical certificates, and to electronically transfer securities to broker-dealers without transferring physical certificates. The Bylaws still permit each registered shareholder to obtain a physical stock certificate upon written request.

The full text of Article VI of the Bylaws, as so amended, is being filed as Exhibit 99 to this Current Report, and is incorporated herein by this reference.
